FOREWORD

The Kentucky Constitution requires each house of the General Assembly to keep a journal as a public accounting of daily legislative activity. It is the official record of action by the General Assembly.

The Kentucky Revised Statutes require the Legislative Research Commission to compare, edit, correct, and publish the journals of each chamber. This is the House Journal for the Regular Session of 1998.

The texts of simple and concurrent resolutions appear on first reading or adoption. Appendices contain a list of elected representatives, tables of actions on bills and resolutions, roll call votes, the budget memorandum, and a subject index.

Ms. Linda Attkisson and Ms. Gene Wallace prepared the House Journal for the 1998 Regular Session. The edited copy and appendices in this volume reflect the cooperative efforts of the LRC Staff.

(3) Nonresidents of this state other than those referred to in subsection (1) of this section, may be licensed as insurance agents in this state without taking an examination if:

(a) A written examination is required of applicants for an insurance agent's license in such other state.

Section 1. KRS 304.20-040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Policy" means an automobile liability insurance policy, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, insuring a single individual or husband and wife resident of the same household, as named insured, and under which the insured vehicles therein designated are of the following types only:

1. A motor vehicle of the private passenger or station wagon type that is not used as a public or livery conveyance for passengers, nor rented to others;

2. Any other four-wheel motor vehicle with a load capacity of fifteen hundred (1,500) pounds or less which is not used in the occupation, profession, or business of the insured; provided, however, that this section shall not apply:

a. To any policy issued under an automobile assigned risk plan;

b. To any policy insuring more than four (4) automobiles; or

c. To any policy covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards;

(b) "Automobile liability insurance policy" includes only coverage for bodily injury and property damage liability, basic reparations benefits, and the provisions therein, if any, relating to medical payments, uninsured motorists coverage, and automobile physical damage coverage;

(c) "Renewal" or "to renew" means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a policy replacing at the end of the policy period a policy previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a policy beyond its policy period or term; provided, however, that any policy with a policy period or term of less than three (3) months shall for the purpose of this section be considered as if written for a policy period or term of three (3) months. Provided, further, that any policy written for a term longer than one (1) year or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall for the purpose of this section, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one (1) year, and such policy may be terminated at the expiration of any annual period upon giving seventy-five (75) days' notice of cancellation prior to such anniversary date, and such cancellation shall not be subject to any other provisions of this section; and

(d) "Nonpayment of premium" means failure of the named insured to discharge when due any of his obligations in connection with the payment of premiums on a policy, or any installment of such premium, whether the premium is payable directly to the insurer or its agent or indirectly under any premium finance plan or extension of credit.

(2) (a) A notice of cancellation of a policy shall be effective only if it is based on one (1) or more of the following reasons:

1. Nonpayment of premium; or

2. The driver's license or motor vehicle registration of the named insured or of any other operator who either resides in the same household or customarily operates an automobile insured under the policy has been under suspension or revocation during the policy period or, if the policy is a renewal, during its policy period or the one hundred eighty (180) days immediately preceding its effective date;

(b) This subsection shall not apply to any policy or coverage which has been in effect less than sixty (60) days at the time notice of cancellation is mailed or delivered by the insurer unless it is a renewal policy;

(c) Modification of automobile physical damage coverage by the inclusion of a deductible not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) shall not be deemed a cancellation of the coverage or of the policy; and

(d) This subsection shall not apply to nonrenewal.

(3) No notice of cancellation of a policy to which subsection (2) of this section applies shall be effective unless mailed or delivered by the insurer to the named insured at least twenty (20) days prior to the effective date of cancellation; provided, however, that where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium at least fourteen (14) days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reason therefor shall be given. This subsection shall not apply to renewals.

(4) No insurer shall refuse to renew a policy of automobile insurance solely because of the age of the insured.

(5) No insurer shall refuse to renew or cancel a policy of automobile insurance solely because:

(a) Of the credit history, or lack of credit history, of the insured;

(b) The insured has previously obtained automobile coverage from a carrier providing nonstandard coverage; or

(c) The insured has sustained one (1) or more "Act of God" claims or occurrences.

(6) No insurer shall fail to renew a policy unless it shall mail or deliver to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, at least seventy-five (75) days' advance notice of its intention not to renew.

(7)[~~(6)~~] Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.

(8)[~~(7)~~] If the insurer has manifested its willingness to renew by mailing or delivering a renewal notice, bill, certificate, or policy to the first-named insured at his last known address at least thirty (30) days before the end of the current policy period with the amount of the renewal premium charge and its due date clearly set forth therein, then the policy shall expire and terminate without further notice to the insured on the due date, unless the renewal premium is received by the insurer or its authorized agent on or before that date. When any policy terminates pursuant to this subsection because the renewal premium was not received on or before the due date, the insurer shall, within fifteen (15) days, deliver or mail to the first-named insured at his last known address a notice that the policy was not renewed and the date on which the coverage under it ceased to exist.

(9)[~~(8)~~] (a) Proof of mailing of renewal premium to the insurer or its agent, when authorized, on or before the due date, shall constitute a presumption of receipt pursuant to subsection (8)[~~(7)~~] of this section.

(b) Proof of mailing of notice of cancellation or of intention not to renew or of reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal to the named insured at the address shown in the policy, shall be sufficient proof of notice.

(10)[~~(9)~~] No insurer shall impose or request an additional premium higher than its standard premium for automobile insurance, cancel or refuse to issue a policy, or refuse to renew a policy solely because the insured or the applicant is an individual with a disability, so long as the disability does not substantially impair the person's mechanically assisted driving ability.

(11)[~~(10)~~] When an automobile liability insurance policy is canceled other than for nonpayment of premium, or in the event of failure to renew a policy of automobile liability insurance[~~ to which subsection (5) of this section applies~~], the insurer shall notify the named insured of his possible eligibility for automobile liability insurance coverage through the Kentucky automobile assigned risk plan. Such notice shall accompany or be included in the notice of cancellation or the notice of intent not to renew. Such notice shall also inform the insured that he may, within four (4) days, request the commissioner in writing to determine whether there is sufficient reason to cancel or not to renew the policy. Within fourteen (14) days of receiving such a written request, the commissioner shall send his findings to the insurer and to the insured. When he sends his findings, the commissioner shall notify both parties of their right to request a hearing under KRS 304.2-310(2)(b). The party requesting the hearing shall give the commissioner written confirmation of attendance at the hearing not more than four (4) days before, nor less than twenty-four (24) hours before, the scheduled hearing. If the requesting party fails to give the required written confirmation, the commissioner shall cancel the hearing.

(12)[~~(11)~~] The reason for nonrenewal or cancellation shall accompany or be included in the notice of nonrenewal or cancellation.

(13)[~~(12)~~] Except where the maximum limits of coverage have been purchased, every notice of first renewal shall include a provision or be accompanied by a notice stating in substance that added uninsured motorists, underinsured motorists, and personal injury protection coverages may be purchased by the insured.

(14)[~~(13)~~] There shall be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against the commissioner or against any insurer, its authorized representative, its agents, its employees, or any firm, person, or corporation furnishing to the insurer information as to reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal, for any statement made by any of them in any written notice of cancellation or nonrenewal, or in any other communication, oral or written, specifying the reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal, or the providing of information pertaining thereto, or for statements made or evidence submitted at any hearings conducted in connection therewith.

Section 2. KRS 304.20-340 is amended to read as follows:

The declination or termination of a policy of insurance subject to KRS 304.20-300 to 304.20-350 by an insurer or agent is prohibited if the declination or termination is:

(1) Based solely upon the race, religion, nationality, ethnic group, age, sex, or marital status of the applicant or named insured;

(2) Based solely upon the lawful occupation or profession of the applicant or named insured, except that this provision shall not apply to an insurer which limits its market to one (1) lawful occupation or profession or to several related lawful occupations or professions or to an insurer that does not provide the kind of insurance sought by the applicant;

(3) Based solely upon the age or location of the residence or property of the applicant or named insured, unless such decision is for a business purpose which is not a mere pretext for unfair discrimination;

(4) Based solely upon the fact that another insurer previously declined to insure the applicant or terminated an existing policy in which the applicant was the named insured;[~~or~~]

(5) Based solely upon the fact that the applicant or named insured previously obtained insurance through a residual market mechanism;

(6) Based solely upon the credit history, or lack of credit history, of the insured;

HB 286, AN ACT relating to policemen's and firefighter's pension funds in cities of the first class.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 95.290 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The city legislative body in cities of the first class may enact ordinances providing for a system of pensions for retired and disabled members of the police and fire divisions of the department of public safety and their dependents, may appropriate funds for the purpose of paying such pensions, may allot and pay to the policemen's pension fund or the firefighters' pension fund or either or both of them, all fines and forfeitures imposed upon members of the respective divisions, and may provide for, assess, and collect contributions from the members for the benefit of the fund.

(2) There shall be a governing body of the policemen's pension fund, and a governing body of the firefighters' pension fund. The governing bodies of the respective funds shall hold title to all assets in their respective funds, and shall have exclusive authority relating to investment of the assets of the funds, including contracting with investment advisors or managers to perform investment services as deemed necessary and prudent by the board. A majority of the governing body of each fund shall be comprised of persons receiving pension benefits from[~~members of~~] the respective pension systems, and no more than one (1) member of the city legislative body may be a member of the governing body of either the policemen's or the firefighters' pension fund. To be effective, an action of the governing body of a fund shall require only a simple majority of the votes cast at a properly convened meeting of the governing body where a quorum is present, with a quorum being a majority of the members of a governing body.

(3) Any policemen's pension fund or any firefighters' pension fund established under the provisions of this section shall be held or distributed for, and only for, any of the following purposes of the respective fund as applicable:

(a) Paying pensions, and any bonus payments under applicable ordinances;

(b) Making payments to the city for transfer to the County Employees Retirement System for alternate participation pursuant to KRS 78.530(3)(a) and 78.531(2); or

~~(d) Payment from the city to the County Employees Retirement System for future pension contributions required pursuant to KRS 61.565.~~

~~Pursuant to the terms of this section, if policemen of the city of the first class elect entry into the County Employees Retirement System and thereby create excess funds over those required to provide for the purposes set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, these excess funds shall be distributed to the city for use by the city for any other purpose it may elect, including, but not limited to, the establishment of a reserve for payment under paragraph (d) of this subsection. The governing board of the fund may annually expend for the necessary expenses connected with the fund, including but not limited to expenses for medical, actuarial, accounting, and legal services, the amount such governing board deems proper.~~

~~(e) Payment from the city to the County Employees Retirement System for future pension contributions required pursuant to KRS 61.565. Pursuant to the terms of this section, if firefighters of the city of the first class elect entry into the County Employees Retirement System and thereby create excess funds over those required to provide for the purposes set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, these excess funds shall be distributed according to the terms of an agreement negotiated between the city and the union organization representing the firefighters. The city may use its share of the distributed excess funds for any purpose it may elect, including, but not limited to, the establishment of a reserve for payment under paragraph (e) of this~~

~~subsection~~].

(4) (a) The governing body of each pension fund shall insure that all of the assets in the fund are distributed for the purposes in subsection (3) of this section, and only for these purposes. If the assets in either fund exceed those needed for the actuarial liability for payment of current pension benefits and any anticipated liabilities under subsection (3)(b) and (c) of this section, the governing board and the legislative body of the city establishing the pension system shall insure by pension bonus ordinance that these excess funds be distributed in an equitable manner to all eligible pension recipients on an annual basis.

(b) The governing board of either[~~the~~] fund may annually expend for the necessary expenses connected with the fund, including but not limited to expenses for medical, actuarial, accounting, and legal or other professional services, the amount such governing board deems proper.

(5)[~~(4)~~] Any ordinance establishing a pension fund under this section shall make equitable provision for the rights of persons having an interest in assets transferred to the fund from any fund heretofore established by statute.

(6) To assure equal protection for the beneficiaries of either fund, any action taken by the city executive or legislative body in cities of the first class that affects a policemen's pension fund or a firefighters' pension fund established under this section shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, treat each fund in a uniform manner and shall not cause any change to be made to the structure or operation of either fund, whether through legislation, litigation, compromise, settlement, or otherwise, unless any proposed change is offered to the other fund before it takes effect. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require any change to be made to the structure or operation of either fund as it exists on the effective date of this Act.

(7)[~~(5)~~] The legislative body in a city of the first class shall issue the appropriate order, pursuant to KRS 78.530(1), directing participation for policemen in the County Employees Retirement System. All new employees who would have been granted membership in the local policemen's pension system shall be members of the County Employees Retirement System. All active members of the local policemen's pension system at the time of transition to the County Employees Retirement System may choose membership in the County Employees Retirement System or may retain membership in the local system. The city shall elect the alternate participation plan, pursuant to KRS 78.530(3), for policemen who transfer to the County Employees Retirement System. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 78.530(3)(b), the city may, at its option, extend the payment period for the cost of alternate participation to a maximum of twenty (20) years with the interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board. The city shall have the right to use assets in the local pension fund, other than assets necessary to pay benefits to the remaining active members of the local policemen's pension system and to retirees and their survivors as determined by actuarial evaluation, to assist in the payment of the annual installment cost of alternate participation. All policemen who become members of the County Employees Retirement System pursuant to this section shall be granted hazardous duty coverage, and the city may, at its option, purchase accumulated sick leave for each policeman upon retirement pursuant to KRS 78.616.

(8)[~~(6)~~] The legislative body in a city of the first class may issue the appropriate order, pursuant to KRS 78.530(1), directing participation for firefighters in the County Employees Retirement System. In the event that the legislative body in a city of the first class issues such an order, then all new employees who would have been granted membership in the local firefighters' pension system shall be members of the County Employees Retirement System. All active members of the local firefighters' pension system at the time of transition to the County Employees Retirement System may choose membership in the County Employees Retirement System or may retain membership in the local system. The city shall elect the alternate participation plan, pursuant to KRS 78.530(3), for firefighters who transfer to the County Employees Retirement System. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 78.530(3)(b), the city may, at its option, extend the payment period for the cost of alternate participation to a maximum of twenty (20) years with the interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board. The city shall have the right to use assets in the local firefighters' pension fund, other than assets necessary to pay benefits to the remaining active members of the local firefighters' pension system and to retirees and their survivors as determined by actuarial evaluation, to assist in the payment of the annual installment cost of alternate participation. After certification by the County Employees Retirement System of eligibility for hazardous duty coverage, each firefighter who becomes a member of the County Employees Retirement System pursuant to this section shall be granted hazardous duty coverage.

(9)[~~(7)~~] Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 61.565, which relate to the contributions required of participating employers, any city of the first class participating in the County Employees Retirement System hazardous duty pension plan which has in effect a collective bargaining agreement with a group of employees who participate in said plan, shall have the right to enter into agreement with its employees or with their respective collective bargaining representatives. This agreement may include, but is not limited to, specifications of what portion of the required employer contribution shall be borne by the participating employer and what portion shall be borne by the participating employee. This provision in no way modifies the employer's obligation to remit the contributions required by the County Employees Retirement System pursuant to KRS 61.565, whether such contributions are borne by the city or by its participating employees.

(10)[~~(8)~~] With regard to the employer participation or employer contributions pursuant to KRS 61.565 as it relates to future pension contribution requirements or as it relates to payback period or interest charge for service liability cost under alternate participation, if any statute or any resolution of the appropriate state board of trustees having authority over employer participation or employer contribution grants any terms or conditions to any city of the second through the sixth class, or to any county, or to any urban-county government, which are more favorable in terms of participation than terms or conditions granted to any city of the first class, then said provisions for employer participation or contribution shall be available to the city of the first class, at its option and effective upon adoption by the city of the first class and notification to the County Employees Retirement System.

HB 420, AN ACT relating to utilities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 96 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any city that owns and operates a utility that provides water service may extend lines, furnish water, or sell water to residents within or outside the utility's county of origin, if the residents do not already receive water service and they are not included in a formal, demonstrable plan, on the part of the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area, to extend water service to the unserved area within six (6) months after the date of inquiry. "Date of inquiry" means the date on which the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area receives, by registered mail, a written inquiry from another utility concerning an extension of service.

Section 2. KRS 74.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A water district shall be administered by a board of commissioners which shall control and manage the affairs of the district. The term of each commissioner is four (4) years, except as provided in this section:

(a) If a district lies wholly within a single county, or operates as a single-county district, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board of commissioners shall be composed of either three (3) or five (5) members as the county judge/executive shall determine. Members of the board shall be residents of the district, or of any incorporated or unincorporated area served by the district in the county in which the district was originally established, who shall be appointed by the county judge/executive with the approval of the fiscal court. If two (2) or more water districts within a single county merge as described in KRS 74.361, the county judge/executive may appoint up to two (2) additional commissioners with the approval of the fiscal court. Initial appointments shall be for terms of two (2), three (3), and four (4) years, as designated by the court.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county, as provided by KRS 74.115, the board of commissioners shall be appointed by the county judges/executive with the approval of the fiscal courts of the concerned counties as follows: in two (2) county districts, three (3) members from the original district and two (2) members from the extended portion of the district; for extensions into three (3) or more counties, the respective county judges/executive, with the approval of the fiscal courts, shall appoint, in addition to the existing membership of the commission, two (2) members from the original one-county district and two (2) members from the newly extended portion of the district. Orders establishing the extension shall provide for the staggering of initial terms in an equitable manner.

(c) If a single-county district administered as provided in paragraph (a) hereof shall acquire an existing water or gas distribution system serving an area which extends beyond the boundaries of the district into another county, or if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county as provided by KRS 74.115, it may operate the distribution system so acquired, or extended, if:

1. The area served outside the county shall be deemed to be a minor portion of the total area served by the district;~~[,]~~ and

2. ~~[if]~~The fiscal court of the county containing the minor portion of the total area shall have agreed to the acquisition or to the extension of the distribution system, except that the fiscal court shall not prohibit the extension of a water distribution system to residents who are not already being served by an existing utility or district and that are not included in a formal, demonstrable plan, on the part of the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area, to receive water service within six (6) months of the date of inquiry. "Date of inquiry" means the date on which the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area receives, by registered mail, a written inquiry from another utility concerning an extension of service.

If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total assets of the distribution system are located within the county outside of the boundaries of the district, it shall be conclusively presumed that the district comes within the terms of this subsection.

(2) A commissioner may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(3) A commissioner who participates in any official action by the water district board of commissioners which results in a direct financial benefit to him may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(4) Vacancies shall be filled by the same appointing authority which is empowered to make the original appointment. Vacancies resulting from cause other than expiration of the term shall be filled for the unexpired term only. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 67.710, a vacancy resulting from the expiration of a term shall be filled by the Public Service Commission if, within ninety (90) days following the expiration of the term, the vacancy has not been filled by the appropriate county judge/executive with approval of the fiscal court.

(5) The commission shall elect a chairman, secretary, and treasurer. Each commissioner shall execute a bond, approved by the county judge/executive, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his position.

(6) Each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of not more than thirty-six hundred dollars ($3600), which shall be paid out of the water district fund. In the case of single-county districts, which shall be deemed to include districts described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the salary shall be fixed by the county judges/executive with the approval of the fiscal court; in multicounty districts, it shall be fixed by the agreement between the county judges/executive with the approval of their fiscal courts. In fixing and approving the salary of the commissioners, the county judge/executive and the fiscal court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the district and its ability to meet its obligations as they mature.

Section 3. KRS 96.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any city that owns or operates a water supply or sanitary sewer system may extend the system into, and furnish and sell water and provide sanitary sewers to any person within, any territory contiguous to the city, and may install within that territory necessary apparatus; provided, however, that the[~~ extension of a~~] water supply or sanitary sewer system shall not be extended to[~~enter into~~] any territory where persons are already being served by an existing water supply or sanitary sewer district or where there is a formal, demonstrable plan to extend water or sewer services in six (6) months from the date of inquiry, as defined in Section 1 of this Act, unless such district requests the extension of water or sewer services from a city. For these purposes the city or sanitation authority established by an interlocal agreement may condemn or otherwise acquire franchises, rights, and rights-of-way, as private corporations may do. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a city-owned utility from extending the system into a county adjoining the city utility's county of origin and furnishing and selling water to persons in that county who do not already receive water service.

(2) When extending the system to any person, water district, or water association, the city may consider the installation of fire hydrants on the extended lines. The city may extend water lines which are incapable of servicing fire hydrants only if the city determines that servicing hydrants is not feasible. The determination shall include consideration of the incremental costs of adequately sized pipe and associated pumps and towers, and the benefits of real estate development, water sales, the availability of fire protection insurance, and the reduction in fire insurance premiums which may result from the installation of hydrants at specified intervals. When extending lines to a water district or water association, the determination may be made in consultation with the district or association, taking into consideration their fiscal capacity, but nothing in this section shall prohibit a city-owned utility that provides water service from extending lines, furnishing water, and selling water to residents that are not already served by an existing utility within or outside of the city utility's county of origin.

Section 4. KRS 96.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No municipality, in which there is located an existing electric, water, or gas public utility plant or facility shall construct or cause to be constructed any similar utility plant or any similar public utility facility duplicating such existing plant or facility, except that the municipality may construct or cause to be constructed additional plants or facilities for the provision of water service if the existing water utility neither provides water service to some residents nor includes in a formal, demonstrable plan the provision of water service to residents who do not already receive water from an existing utility. No municipality, in which there is located an existing electric, water, or gas public utility plant or facility shall[~~or to~~] obtain or acquire any similar public utility plant or facility other than by the purchase of the existing plant or facility or by the acquisition of such existing plant or facility by the exercise of the power of eminent domain.

(2) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, village and municipal corporation of any and every class in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and any board, commission or agency thereof.

(3) All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith to the extent of such conflict are repealed.

Section 5. KRS 96.538 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any utility providing electric service in any area annexed, subsequent to June 16, 1960, by any municipality shall have the dominant right to continue to provide electric service in said area to consumers then being served and to new consumers located nearer to its facilities than to the facilities of any other utility as all those facilities were located immediately prior to annexation.

(2) Any utility providing water, sewer or gas service in any area annexed, subsequent to July 15, 1980, by any municipality shall have the dominant right to continue to provide water, sewer or gas service in the[~~said~~] area to consumers then being served and to new consumers located nearer to its facilities than to the facilities of any other utility as all those facilities were located immediately prior to annexation, except that no dominant right shall continue to exist for a water utility with respect to persons that are not already being served or that are not included in a demonstrable plan to receive water service within a six (6) month period from the date of inquiry. "Date of inquiry" means the date on which the water utility receives, by registered mail, a written inquiry from another utility concerning an extension of service.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS 278.010 TO 278.450 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any utility that provides water service may extend lines, furnish water, or sell water to residents within or outside the utility's county of origin, if the residents do not already receive water service and they are not included in a formal, demonstrable plan, on the part of the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area, to extend water service to the unserved area within six (6) months after the date of inquiry. "Date of inquiry" means the date on which the water utility whose facilities are nearest to the unserved area receives, by registered mail, a written inquiry from another utility concerning an extension of service.

If the board of waterworks determines that it is feasible and beneficial to extend its service, it shall refer the matter to the legislative body governing the area to which service shall be extended. If the legislative body determines that service should be extended, it shall pass an ordinance providing for the extension of service~~].

(3)[~~(2)~~] The costs of such extension shall be apportioned by the ordinance against the property to which the waterwork corporation's service will be made available by reason of such extension according to an equitable basis, considering the size, configuration, and suitability as building sites of the lots or tracts to be served but in no case shall a new customer be charged more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for extension of service to one (1) lot or tract, excluding the cost of a tap-in fee whose cost shall not exceed five hundred ($500) dollars. Any of the following methods, or a combination thereof, may be used:

(a) The costs of such extension may be apportioned according to the number of square feet in any lot or tract abutting the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which the water line extension is located. The rate of apportionment shall be the same for each square foot in any lot or tract abutting a publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which a water line extension is located, except the portions of any such lot or tract which lie a distance greater than a number of feet, as stated in the ordinance, from the water line extension, or which lie within a number of feet, as stated in the ordinance, from an existing water line located in a publicly-dedicated right-of-way which also abuts such lot or tract, shall not be subject to assessment nor included in the calculations of the square footage of such lot or tract. The rate of apportionment shall be determined by dividing the costs of the extension by the assessable area of all lots or tracts abutting the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which a water line extension is located.

(b) The costs of such extension may be assessed against the lots or tracts according to the number of feet in the lot or tract fronting on the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which a water line extension is located. The rate of apportionment shall be the same for each such foot of frontage, and shall be determined by dividing the assessable costs of the water line extension by the total front footage of all lots or tracts fronting on the part of the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which a water line extension is located.

(c) The costs of such extension may be assessed against the lots or tracts abutting publicly-dedicated rights-of-way in which water line extensions are located according to the value of any such lot or tract, without regard to any improvements on such lots or tracts, as determined as of the date of the most recent assessment by the property valuation administrator of the county in which such lots or tracts are located. The rate of apportionment shall be the same for each dollar of assessed value of lots or tracts abutting the parts of the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which the water line extension is located, except portions of such lots or tracts that are a distance greater than a number of feet, as stated in the ordinance, from the water line extension or that are within a number of feet, as stated in the ordinance, from an existing water line of the corporation located in a publicly-dedicated right-of-way which also abuts such lot or tract shall not be assessed. The value of any lot or tract, portions of which are excluded from assessment, shall be determined by multiplying the value of the entire property by a ratio, the numerator of which is the number of square feet of the lot or tract to be assessed and the denominator of which is the number of square feet in the entire lot or tract. The rate of apportionment shall be determined by dividing the assessable costs of the water line extension by the total assessed value of all assessable lots or tracts abutting the parts of the publicly-dedicated rights-of-way in which water line extensions are located.

(d) The costs of such extension may be assessed against the lots or tracts that may be served by the extension at a rate that is the same for each such lot or tract, where each such lot or tract is suitable for or limited to a single building site.

(e) If any lots or tracts abut on more than one (1) dedicated right-of-way in which a water line extension is made, such lots or tracts shall be assessed as if they abutted on only one (1) such right-of-way.

(f) In the event of a subdivision of a lot or tract assessed under this section, which subdivision requires a new water line extension, nothing herein shall prohibit the assessment of the newly subdivided lots or tracts, except those that abut a dedicated right-of-way with an existing water line.

(4)[~~(3)~~] The waterwork corporation shall*:*

(a) Determine the percentage share of the total costs of the extension to be assessed against each lot or tract, but in no case shall a new customer be charged more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for extension of service to one (1) lot or tract, excluding the cost of a tap-in fee whose cost shall not exceed five hundred ($500) dollars;

(b) Notify each owner of the share to be assessed against the lot or tract; and

(c) Maintain for public inspection detailed estimates of construction costs, including right-of-way acquisition, and of property assessments for a period of at least one (1) year after construction of the extension is completed[~~and shall notify each owner of such share to be assessed against his lot or tract~~].

(5) Any owner may, within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of the method of apportionment or the percentage share of the total costs to be assessed against his property, appeal the percentage share to be assessed against his property by filing a written appeal with the waterwork corporation setting forth the bases for the challenge. The president of the waterwork corporation shall appoint one (1) or more officers of the corporation to review such appeal, which review may include holding a hearing on the appeal. Any determination by the officer or officers that affects only the assessment of the aggrieved property owner shall not require further legislative action. If, however, as a result of the appeal, the hearing officer or officers recommend that the method of apportionment be changed, the matter shall be referred back to the legislative body that passed the ordinance provided for in subsection (1) of this section for consideration of an amendment thereto.

(6) Any owner of property to be assessed for a water line extension may, at any time after receipt of the initial notice provided under subsection (4) of this section, but no later than thirty (30) days after final assessment notices are sent, apply to defer the assessment against the property, or against one (1) or more lots or tracts, as follows:

(a) The owner may decline water service made available to one (1) or more lots or tracts assessed for the extension. If the owner declines service, the owner waives claim to water service for the property, and the assessment is deferred. The declination of service shall be in writing to the board of waterworks. If a subsequent owner desires water service, that owner shall pay the face of the assessment together with accrued interest for the number of years commencing from the date of the initial assessment until the date that the property was purchased, except that the number shall not exceed twenty (20) years; and

(b) The owner may apply to defer payment of extension and installation costs by submitting an appeal to the board of hardship appeals under the terms provided in subsection (3) and subsection (4) of Section 4 of this Act. If the board of hardship appeals grants a deferral, the unpaid portion of the assessment including accrued interest shall become a deferred lien against the property. Any unpaid portion of the assessment, together with accrued interest compounded for a period not to exceed twenty (20) years, shall be payable in full upon the subsequent sale or transfer of the property.

(7)[~~(4)~~] The cost of property service connections from the water line extension to the property line as required shall be assessed against the individual lots or tracts to which such property service connections are furnished. The costs to be assessed for the property service connection shall be fixed by regulation of the board of waterworks based on its experience of costs for such work, but in no case shall a new customer be charged more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for extension of service to one (1) lot or tract, excluding the cost of a tap-in fee whose cost shall not exceed five hundred ($500) dollars. No lot or tract owner shall be required to connect to the water line extension by reason of this section, but such failure to connect to the water line extension shall not exempt such lot or tract owner from its proportionate share of the costs, except as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (6)[~~(2)~~] of this section.

(8)[~~(5)~~] All lots or tracts abutting the publicly-dedicated right-of-way in which the water line extension is located shall be assessed as provided in the ordinance, except property dedicated to use for public roadways and property owned by cities of the first class and any joint agencies of cities of the first class and the counties in which such cities are located, if the extension is located in the city of the first class.

(9)[~~(6)~~] (a) The actual construction work to provide the water line extension and property service connections shall be done by, or under the control of, the board of waterworks.

(b) The total cost of the water line extension, which is assessed against property served under subsection (3)[~~(2)~~] of this section, shall include not only the actual construction costs and the costs of any easements required for the water line extension, but also costs of surveys, designs; plans, specifications, notices, inspection, project legal and administrative services, and administration. However, costs included in the assessment which are other than actual construction costs and costs of easements shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the actual construction costs and the costs of any easements of the project.

(10)[~~(7)~~] A lien superior to all liens except the liens for state, county, city, school, and road taxes and liens prior in time for other public improvements shall exist against the respective lots or tracts of land for the cost of the water line extension for apportionment as hereinafter provided and the interest due thereon, commencing with the date of issuance of the apportionment warrant.

(11)[~~(8)~~] Upon completion of the water line extension, the board of waterworks shall issue all apportionment warrants against the properties assessed and shall immediately list the record owners thereof in alphabetical order upon a register kept for that purpose. Each apportionment warrant shall be payable to the waterworks corporation, or its assignee, in equal monthly installments, not exceeding two hundred forty (240) months, of principal and interest, except that a property owner may pay the face of the assessment in full within thirty (30) day after notice is served and not be required to pay interest. In the event that a property owner does not pay assessment within thirty (30) days after notice is served, the interest rate applied to the assessment shall not be in excess of five percent (5%) per annum. Payment of the assessment[~~and~~] shall be the obligation of the owners of the property named in the apportionment warrant, and a lien upon the applicable lots or tracts shall exist until the assessment is paid in full.[~~ The apportionment warrants may bear interest at an annual fixed rate as then determined by the board of waterworks pursuant to KRS 58.430.~~] When the warrant has been paid in full, the holder thereof shall notify the board of waterworks, and it shall mark upon the register the fact of payment and release the lien. If any installment of principal or of accumulated interest on the warrant is not paid when due, the holder thereof may foreclose the lien securing the payment of the warrant in the same manner as mortgage liens are foreclosed.

(12)[~~(9)~~] The lien shall exist from the date of the apportionment warrant. The board of waterworks shall cause such warrant or a notice thereof to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county in which the affected property is located.

(13)[~~(10)~~] After any water line extensions have been constructed in conformity with this section, the board of waterworks shall notify each affected property owner of the cost apportioned to his property at his address as shown at the time the notice is sent on the records of the property valuation administrator for the county in which the affected property is located. Failure of any property owner to receive this notice shall not affect the validity of the lien.

(14)[~~(11)~~] If, by private agreement with the owners of lots or tracts, the waterworks corporation extends its water lines to those lots or tracts, and the private agreement provides for a lien on the lots or tracts to secure payment to the waterworks corporation of the cost of the extension, and a notice of such lien is recorded, that lien shall be superior to all liens except the liens for state, county, city, school, and road taxes and liens prior in time for other public improvements.

(15) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the board of waterworks from entering into other agreements or contracts with developers or builders for the extension of water service to new residential subdivisions or commercial development within the county.

(16) The board of waterworks may recoup the costs incurred to extend water service to existing but previously unserved residents or businesses in the county if the costs are in excess of the total of the assessments against the property to be served by the extension. The board of waterworks may recoup the costs through one or both of the following methods, except that the board shall not recoup the costs by means of any charge or assessment against current customers:

(a) Contributions by municipal or county governments; or

(b) Reduced payments into the city sinking fund.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS 96.230 TO 96.310 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any person or utility capable of offering water service, located within or outside of a county containing a city of the first class, may extend its water lines and facilities to offer water service in a county that contains a city of the first class, to residences and businesses that do not already receive water service from another supplier. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person or a utility located within or outside of a county containing a city of the first class from acquiring a franchise from a city or county to provide water service to residences and businesses in a county that contains a city of the first class.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS 96.230 TO 96.310 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(3) The board shall review any appeal of a property owner subject to an assessment for extension of water lines to serve previously unserved residences or businesses within the county, if the owner asserts that the assessment cannot be paid because the owner is either disabled or suffers economic hardship.

(4) After the board has reviewed relevant information and has conducted any hearing deemed necessary, the board may grant or deny a deferral of all or part of the assessment against the property. As part of its review, the board may require an applicant for deferral to provide complete financial records and may conduct its own investigation as to the extent of the owner's disability or economic hardship. Information concerning an individual applicant shall be confidential.

(5) Decisions of the board shall be binding upon the applicant and upon the board of waterworks. The board shall notify the applicant and the board of waterworks of its decision.

(6) On or before April 1 of each year, the board shall report to the county fiscal court the number of applications it received, the number decided, the number of assessments deferred, and the number of applications denied.

(1) As provided in KRS 278.023; or

(2) When a wholesale supplier selling water to a water utility organized under KRS 96.230 increases its rates, the water utility shall have the authority to increase its rate commensurate with the wholesale supplier without prior approval by the commission. Within twenty (20) days after any such increase in rates, the association shall file its revised tariffs with the commission, together with a copy of the notice from its wholesale supplier showing the increase in the rate charged to the utility, and a statement of the volume of purchased water used to calculate the increase in rates. The commission shall approve the filing or establish revised rates by order no later than thirty (30) days after these documents are filed with it. HB 317, AN ACT relating to property tax.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 132.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each property valuation administrator shall assess at its fair cash value all property which it is his duty to assess except as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section. In the case of securities which are regularly bought and sold through stock exchanges, the price at which such property closed on the last regular business day preceding the assessment day shall be prima facie evidence of the fair cash value of such property. The property of one (1) person shall not be assessed willfully or intentionally at a lower or higher relative value than the same class of property of another, and any grossly discriminatory valuation shall be construed as an intentional discrimination. The property valuation administrator shall make every effort, through visits with the taxpayer, personal inspection of the property, from records, from his own knowledge, from information in property schedules, and from such other evidence as he may be able to obtain, to locate, identify, and assess property.

(2) (a) In determining the total area of land devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, there shall be included the area of all land under farm buildings, greenhouses and like structures, lakes, ponds, streams, irrigation ditches and similar facilities, and garden plots devoted to growth of products for on-farm personal consumption but there shall be excluded, land used in connection with dwelling houses including, but not limited to, lawns, drives, flower gardens, swimming pools or other areas devoted to family recreation. Where contiguous land in agricultural or horticultural use in one (1) ownership is located in more than one (1) county or taxing district, compliance with the minimum requirements shall be determined on the basis of the total area of such land and not the area of land which is located in the particular county or taxing district.

(b) Land devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, where the owner or owners have petitioned for, and been granted, a zoning classification other than for agricultural or horticultural purposes qualifies for the agricultural or horticultural assessment until such time as the land changes from agricultural or horticultural use to the use granted by the zoning classification.

(c) When the use of a part of a tract of land which is assessed as agricultural or horticultural land is changed either by conveyance or other action of the owner, the right of the remaining land to be retained in the agricultural or horticultural assessment shall not be impaired provided it meets the minimum requirements, except the minimum ten (10) contiguous acre requirement shall not be applicable if any portion of the agricultural or horticultural land has been acquired for a public purpose.

(d) When in the opinion of the property valuation administrator any land has a value in excess of that for agricultural or horticultural use the property valuation administrator shall enter into the tax records the value of the property according to its fair cash value. When the property valuation administrator determines that the land meets the requirements for valuation as agricultural or horticultural land, the valuation for tax purposes shall be its agricultural or horticultural value.

(3) When land which has been valued and taxed as agricultural land for five (5) or more consecutive years under the same ownership, fails to qualify for the classification through no other action on the part of the owner or owners other than ceasing to farm the land, the land shall retain its agricultural classification for assessment and taxation purposes. Classification as agricultural land shall expire upon change of use by the owner or owners or upon conveyance of the property to a person other than a surviving spouse.

(4) If the property valuation administrator assesses any property, except stocks and bonds at the market value listed in recognized publications, at a greater value than that listed by the taxpayer or assesses unlisted property, the property valuation administrator shall serve notice on the taxpayer of such action. The notice shall be given by first-class mail or as provided in the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5) Any taxpayer may designate on the property schedule any property which he does not consider to be subject to taxation, and it shall be the duty of the property valuation administrator to obtain and follow advice from the cabinet relative to the taxability of such property.

An insurer that, on or after July 15, 1995 until the effective date of this Act, issued standard health benefit plans under to KRS 304.17A-160 and then ceased doing business in Kentucky, may apply to the commissioner on or after the effective date of this Act to reenter Kentucky and engage in the health insurance business notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110(1)(d) as it existed on the date the insurer ceased doing business in Kentucky.

Section 11. KRS 304.17-383 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No filing under KRS 304.17-380 that contains an increase in premium rates shall become effective until the commissioner has issued an order approving the filing. The commissioner may hold a hearing within thirty (30) days after receiving a filing under this subtitle containing a rate increase, and after the hearing shall issue a final order approving or disapproving the filing.

(2) In approving or disapproving a filing under subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) Whether the benefits provided are reasonable in relation to the premium charged;

(b) Previous premium rates for the policies to which the filing applies; and

(c) The effect of the increase on policyholders.

(3) The commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearing and of the premium increase to be considered. The Attorney General shall be considered a party to the hearing if he chooses to participate.

(4) No insurer receiving the commissioner's approval of a filing under this section shall submit a new filing containing a rate increase for any of the same policies until at least six (6) months have elapsed following the effective date of the approved increase.

(5) At any time, the commissioner, after an administrative hearing may withdraw approval of rates previously approved under this section if he determines that the benefits are no longer reasonable in relation to the premium charged. Administrative hearings conducted under authority of this section shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(6) (a) Subsections (1) to (3) of this section shall not apply and premium rates shall be deemed approved upon filing with the Department of Insurance if the filing is accompanied by a loss ratio guarantee, and benefits shall be deemed reasonable in relation to the premium rates so long as the insurer complies with the terms of the loss ratio guarantee. This loss ratio guarantee shall be in writing and shall contain at least the following:

2. If the annual earned premium volume in Kentucky under the particular policy form is less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) and therefore not actuarially credible, the loss ratio guarantee shall be based on the actual nationwide loss ratio for the policy form;

3. A guarantee that the actual Kentucky loss ratio results for each year at issue shall be independently audited at the insurer's expense. This audit shall be done in the second quarter of the next year and the audited results shall be reported to the commissioner not later than the date for filing the applicable accident and health policy experience exhibit;

4. A guarantee that affected Kentucky policyholders will be issued a proportional refund, based on premium paid, of the amount necessary to bring the actual aggregate loss ratio up to the anticipated loss ratio standards referred to in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph. The refund shall be made to all Kentucky policyholders insured under the applicable policy form as of the last of the year at issue if the refund would equal ten dollars ($10) or more per policy. The refund shall include statutory interest from the end of the year at issue until the date of payment. Payment shall be made during the third quarter of the next year; and

5. A guarantee that refunds of less than ten dollars ($10) will be aggregated by the insurer and paid to the Department of Insurance.

(d) If it excludes coverage for human immunodeficiency virus infection or acquired immunodeficiency syndrome or contains limitations in the benefits payable, or in the terms or conditions of the contract, for human immunodeficiency virus infection or acquired immunodeficiency syndrome which are different than those which apply to any other sickness or medical condition.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than sixty (60) days in advance of any such delivery. At the expiration of such sixty (60) days the form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by order of the commissioner. Approval of any such form by the commissioner shall constitute a waiver of any unexpired portion of such waiting period. The commissioner may extend by not more than a thirty (30) day period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form, by giving notice to the insurer of such extension before expiration of the initial sixty (60) day period. SECTION 26. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 17A OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in Sections 26 to 39 of this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Contract holder" means an employer or organization that purchases a contract for services;

(2) "Covered person" means a person on whose behalf an insurer offering the plan is obligated to pay benefits or provide services under the health insurance policy;

(3) "Emergency medical condition" means:

  (a) A medical condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in:

    1. Placing the health of the individual or, with respect to a pregnant woman, the health of the woman or her unborn child, in serious jeopardy;

    2. Serious impairment to bodily functions; or

    3. Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or

  (b) With respect to a pregnant woman who is having contractions:

    1. A situation in which there is inadequate time to effect a safe transfer to another hospital before delivery; or

    2. A situation in which transfer may pose a threat to the health or safety of the woman or the unborn child.

(4) "Enrollee" means a person who is enrolled in a managed health care plan;

(5) "Experimental treatment" means services or supplies, including treatments, procedures, hospitalizations, drugs, biological products or medical devices, which a peer review panel determines are not of proven benefit for the particular diagnosis or treatment of the covered person's particular condition, or not generally recognized by the medical community as effective or appropriate for the particular diagnosis or treatment of the covered person's particular condition, or provided or performed in special settings for research purposes or under a controlled environment or clinical protocol. Unless otherwise required by law with respect to drugs that have been prescribed for the treatment of a type of cancer for which the drug has not been approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration, the plan shall not cover any services or supplies including treatment, procedures, drugs, biological products, or medical devices or any hospitalization in connection with experimental or investigational services or supplies. The plan shall also not cover any technology or any hospitalization in connection with that technology if that technology is obsolete or ineffective and is not used generally by the medical community for the particular diagnosis or treatment of the covered person's particular condition. Governmental approval of a technology is not necessarily sufficient to render it of proven benefit or appropriate or effective for a particular diagnosis or treatment of the particular condition as provided in this subsection. The plan shall apply the following five (5) criteria in determining whether services or supplies are experimental or investigational:

(a) Any medical device, drug, or biological product shall have received final approval to market by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for the particular diagnosis or condition. Any other approval granted as an interim step in the FDA regulatory process, such as an investigational device exemption or an investigational new drug exemption, is not sufficient. Once FDA approval has been granted for a particular diagnosis or condition, use of the medical device, drug, or biological product for another diagnosis or condition requires that one (1) or more of the following established reference compendia: the American Medical Association Drug Evaluations, the American Hospital Formulary Service Drug Information, or the United States Pharmacopeia Drug Information, recognize the usage as appropriate medical treatment. As an alternative to this recognition in one (1) or more of the compendia, the usage of the drug shall be recognized as appropriate if it is recommended by a clinical study and recommended by a review article in a major peer-reviewed professional journal. A medical device, drug, or biological product that meets the tests in this paragraph shall not be considered experimental or investigational. Any drug that the FDA has determined to be contraindicated for the specific treatment for which the drug has been prescribed shall be considered experimental or investigational;

(b) Conclusive evidence from the published peer-review medical literature shall exist that the technology has a definite positive effect on health outcome; this evidence shall include well-designed investigations that have been reproduced by nonaffiliated authoritative sources, with measurable results, backed up by the positive endorsements of national medical bodies or panels regarding scientific efficacy and rationale;

(c) Demonstrated evidence as reflected in the published peer-review medical literature shall exist that over time the technology leads to improvement in health outcomes, such as the beneficial effects outweigh any harmful effects;

(d) Proof as reflected in the published peer-reviewed medical literature shall exist that the technology is at least as effective in improving health outcomes as established technology, or is usable in appropriate clinical contexts in which established technology is not employable; and

(e) Proof as reflected in the published peer-reviewed medical literature shall exist that improvements in health outcomes, as defined in paragraph (c) of this subsection, is possible in standard conditions of medical practice, outside clinical investigatory settings;

(6) "Grievance" means a written complaint submitted by or on behalf of an enrollee;

(7) "Health benefit plan" means any hospital or medical expense policy or certificate; nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, and health service corporation contract or certificate; a self-insured plan or a plan provided by a multiple employer welfare arrangement, to the extent permitted by ERISA; or health maintenance organization contract; or any health benefit plan which affects the rights of a Kentucky insured and bears a reasonable relation to Kentucky, whether delivered or issued for delivery in Kentucky, and does not include policies covering only accident, credit, dental, disability income, fixed indemnity, long-term care, Medicare supplement, specified disease, vision care, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of a workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical-payment insurance, insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and which is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance, short-term coverage, or student health insurance offered by a Kentucky-licensed insurer under written contract with a university or college whose students it proposes to insure.

(8) "Health care provider" or "provider" means any facility or service required to be licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 216B, pharmacist as defined pursuant to KRS Chapter 315, and any of the following independent practicing practitioners:

(a) Physicians, osteopaths, and podiatrists licensed under KRS Chapter 311;

(b) Chiropractors licensed under KRS Chapter 312;

(c) Dentists licensed under KRS Chapter 313;

(d) Optometrists licensed under KRS Chapter 320;

(e) Physician assistants regulated under KRS Chapter 311;

(f) Nurse practitioners licensed under KRS Chapter 314; and

(g) Other health care practitioners as determined by the department by administrative regulations promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A.

(9) "Health insurance policy" means "health benefit plan" as defined in this section;

(10) "Insurer" means any insurance company; health maintenance organization; self-insurer or multiple employer welfare arrangement not exempt from state regulation by ERISA; provider-sponsored integrated health delivery network; self-insured employer-organized association, or nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, dental, or health service corporation authorized to transact health insurance business in Kentucky;

(11) "Managed care plan" means a health insurance policy that integrates the financing and delivery of appropriate health care services to covered persons by arrangements with participating providers who are selected to participate on the basis of explicit standards to furnish a comprehensive set of health care services and financial incentives for covered persons to use the participating providers and procedures provided for in the plan;

(12) "Participating health care provider" means a health care provider that has entered into an agreement with an insurer to provide health care services to an enrollee in its managed care plan;

(13) "Quality assurance or improvement" means the ongoing evaluation by a managed care plan of the quality of health care services provided to its enrollees;

"Record" also includes the substance of any communication made by a patient to a provider in confidence during or in connection with the provision of health services to a patient or information otherwise acquired by the provider about a patient in confidence and in connection with the provision of health services to a patient; and

(15) "Utilization management" means a system for reviewing the appropriate and efficient allocation of health care services under a health benefits plan according to specified guidelines, in order to recommend or determine whether, or to what extent, a health care service given or proposed to be given to a covered person should or will be reimbursed, covered, paid for, or otherwise provided under the plan. The system may include: preadmission certification, the application of practice guidelines, continued stay review, discharge planning, preauthorization of ambulatory care procedures, and retrospective review.

Selection or participation standards based on the economics or capacity of a provider's practice shall be adjusted to account for case mix, severity of illness, patient age and other features that may account for higher-than- or lower-than-expected costs. All data profiling or other data analysis pertaining to participating providers shall be done in a manner which is valid and reasonable. Plans shall not use criteria that would allow an insurer to avoid high-risk populations by excluding providers because they are located in geographic areas that contain populations or providers presenting a risk of higher-than-average claims, losses, or health services utilization or that would exclude providers because they treat or specialize in treating populations presenting a risk of higher-than-average claims, losses, or health services utilization.

(2) Each insurer shall establish mechanisms for soliciting and acting upon applications for provider participation in the plan in a fair and systematic manner. These mechanisms shall, at a minimum, include:

(b) If a participating health care provider's participation will be terminated or withdrawn prior to the date of the termination of the contract as a result of a professional review action, the insurer and participating health care provider shall comply with the standards in 42 U.S.C. sec. 11112; and

(b) Education of physicians, enrollees, and pharmacists regarding the appropriate use of prescription drugs; and

(c) Ongoing periodic examination of data on outpatient prescription drugs to ensure quality therapeutic outcomes for enrollees.

(2) The drug utilization review program shall utilize the following to effectuate the purposes of subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Relevant clinical criteria and standards for drug therapy;

(c) In the case of a managed care plan, a procedure is implemented whereby participating physicians have an opportunity to review and comment on all medical and surgical protocols, respectively, of the insurer;

(d) The utilization management program is available to respond to authorization requests for urgent services and is available, at a minimum, during normal working hours for inquiries and authorization requests for nonurgent health care services; and

He was one of 113 original district court judges of the Commonwealth instrumental in implementing the 1976 judicial article creating the unified court system of Kentucky. Credited with making the District Court System what it is today, he is one of 19 remaining members of that original group still serving in their respective districts and remains the last of the nine original district judges elected in 1977 from Boone, Campbell and Kenton Counties. Inasmuch as he is now serving his fifth term on the District Court and has determined that, having heard 130,000 cases, having tried more jury cases than any sitting judge in Northern Kentucky and having sat longer in Juvenile Court than any other judge in the area, he will not seek re-election; therefore, the members of the House of Representatives are indeed pleased to join with Representative Richard Murgatroyd in expressing high praise and recognition to him for his service to this great Commonwealth and in wishing him continued good fortune in his retirement. Legislative Citation No. 61 was adopted without objection.

(a) If the family service worker believes that the committed child continues to be dependent, neglected, or abused, but immediate removal is unnecessary to protect the child from imminent death or serious physical injury, the casework situation and evidence shall be reviewed with his supervisor to determine whether to continue work with the family intact or to remove the child. There shall be documentation that the family service worker, prior to the court hearing, made an effort to contact the parents to inform them of the specific problems that could lead to removal so they have an opportunity to take corrective action. If the parents are unavailable or do not respond to attempts to communicate, the specific circumstances shall be documented;

(b) If it appears that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm and there is not reasonably available an alternative less drastic than removal of the child from the home, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the commitment pursuant to KRS 610.120 in relation to the cabinet's intention to remove the child from the parent's home. If the parents' whereabouts are unknown, notice may be mailed to the last known address of an adult who is a near relative. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall not be removed from the parents' home;

(c) If a family service worker finds a committed, unattended child who is too young to take care of himself, the family service worker shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for an emergency caretaker in the child's home until the parents return or fail to return within a reasonable time. If no in-home caretaker is available for the child, the family service worker shall request any appropriate law enforcement officer to take the child into protective custody. If, after a reasonable time, it appears the child has been abandoned, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the case; or

(d) If there exist reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child, the family service worker shall, with the assistance of a law enforcement officer, immediately remove the child prior to filing a petition for review. Within seventy-two (72) hours after the removal, the cabinet shall file a petition for review in District Court pursuant to KRS 610.120 with a request for an expeditious hearing. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall be returned to the parents' home.

(3) The cabinet or the Department of Juvenile Justice, as appropriate, shall notify the juvenile court of the county of placement with the conditions of supervised placement of each child placed in that county from one (1) of the residential treatment facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet. The Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall have the power to make such visitations and inspections of the homes, facilities, and agencies in which children who have committed public offenses have been placed as it deems necessary to carry out its functions under the law.

(c) The child is in immediate danger due to the parent's failure or refusal to provide for the safety or needs of the child.

(2) Custody may be placed with a relative taking into account the wishes of the custodial parent and child or any other appropriate person or agency including the cabinet.

(3)[~~(2)~~] An emergency custody order shall be effective no longer than seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, unless there is a temporary removal hearing with oral or other notice to the county attorney and the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision of the child, to determine if the child should be held for a longer period. The seventy-two (72) hour period also may be extended or delayed upon the waiver or request of the child's parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision.

(4)[~~(3)~~] Any person authorized to serve process shall serve the parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision with a copy of the emergency custody order. If such person cannot be found, the sheriff shall make a good faith effort to notify the nearest known relative, neighbor, or other person familiar with the child.

(6)[~~(5)~~] Nothing herein shall preclude the issuance of arrest warrants pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, when the court is petitioned to remove or continue the removal of a child from the custody of his parent or other person exercising custodial control or supervision, the court shall first consider whether the child may be reasonably protected against the alleged dependency, neglect or abuse, by alternatives less restrictive than removal. Such alternatives may include, but shall not be limited to, the provision of medical, educational, psychiatric, psychological, social work, counseling, day care, or homemaking services with monitoring wherever necessary by the cabinet or other appropriate agency. Where the court specifically finds that such alternatives are adequate to reasonably protect the child against the alleged dependency, neglect or abuse, the court shall not order the removal or continued removal of the child.

(2) If the court orders the removal or continues the removal of the child, services provided to the parent and the child shall be designed to promote the protection of the child and the return of the child safely to the child's[~~his~~] home as soon as possible. The cabinet shall develop a treatment plan for each child designed to meet the needs of the child. The cabinet may change the child's placement or treatment plan as the cabinet may require. Section 8. KRS 403.212 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The following provisions and child support table shall be the child support guidelines established for the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) For the purposes of the child support guidelines:

(a) "Income" means actual gross income of the parent if employed to full capacity or potential income if unemployed or underemployed.

(b) "Gross income" includes income from any source, except as excluded in this subsection, and includes but is not limited to income from salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), gifts, prizes, and alimony or maintenance received. Specifically excluded are benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs, including but not limited to~~[Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), and]~~ food stamps.

(c) For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, "gross income" means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation. Straight line depreciation, using Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines, shall be the only allowable method of calculating depreciation expense in determining gross income. Specifically excluded from ordinary and necessary expenses for purposes of this guideline shall be investment tax credits or any other business expenses inappropriate for determining gross income for purposes of calculating child support. Income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be carefully reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child support obligation. In most cases, this amount will differ from a determination of business income for tax purposes. Expense reimbursement or in-kind payments received by a parent in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business or personal use of business property or payments of expenses by a business, shall be counted as income if they are significant and reduce personal living expenses such as a company or business car, free housing, reimbursed meals, or club dues.

(d) If a parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, child support shall be calculated based on a determination of potential income, except that a determination of potential income shall not be made for a parent who is physically or mentally incapacitated or is caring for a very young child, age three (3) or younger, for whom the parents owe a joint legal responsibility. Potential income shall be determined based upon employment potential and probable earnings level based on the obligor's or obligee's recent work history, occupational qualifications, and prevailing job opportunities and earnings levels in the community. A court may find a parent to be voluntarily unemployed or underemployed without finding that the parent intended to avoid or reduce the child support obligation.

(e) "Imputed child support obligation" means the amount of child support the parent would be required to pay from application of the child support guidelines.

(f) Income statements of the parents shall be verified by documentation of both current and past income. Suitable documentation shall include but shall not be limited to, income tax returns, paystubs, employer statements, or receipts and expenses if self-employed.

(g) "Combined adjusted parental gross income" means the combined gross incomes of both parents, less any of the following payments made by the parent:

1. The cost of health insurance coverage for the child;

2. The amount of pre-existing orders for current maintenance for prior spouses to the extent payment is actually made and the amount of current maintenance, if any, ordered paid in the proceeding before the court;

3. The amount of pre-existing orders of current child support for prior-born children to the extent payment is actually made under those orders; and

4. A deduction for the support to the extent payment is made, if a parent is legally responsible for and is actually providing support for other prior-born children who are not the subject of a particular proceeding. If the prior-born children reside with that parent, an "imputed child support obligation" shall be allowed in the amount which would result from application of the guidelines for the support of the prior-born children.

(3) The child support obligation set forth in the child support guidelines table shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their adjusted gross income.

(4) The child support obligation shall be the appropriate amount for the number of children in the table for whom the parents share a joint legal responsibility. The minimum amount of child support shall be sixty dollars ($60) per month.

(5) The court may use its judicial discretion in determining child support in circumstances where combined adjusted parental gross income exceeds the uppermost levels of the guideline table.

(6) The child support guidelines table is as follows:

COMBINED MONTHLY ADJUSTED PARENTAL GROSS INCOME	ONE CHILD	TWO CHILDREN	THREE	FOUR	FIVE	SIX OR MORE

The taxpayer shall be entitled to a copy of this[~~such~~] cabinet recording or a transcript[~~ thereof~~] as provided in KRS 61.874.

(6) If any taxpayer's failure to submit a timely return or payment to the cabinet is due to the taxpayer's reasonable reliance on written advice from the cabinet, the taxpayer shall be relieved of any penalty or interest with respect thereto provided the taxpayer requested the[~~such~~] advice in writing from the cabinet and the specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction were fully described in the taxpayer's request, the cabinet did not subsequently rescind or modify the advice in writing and there were no subsequent changes in applicable laws or regulations or a final decision of a court which rendered the cabinet's earlier written advice no longer valid.

(3) The Department of Corrections shall assign the same identification number or other variable to each person whose name appears in the database.

Section 20. KRS 605.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless precluded by law, any child committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may by the decision of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet or its designee, at any time during the period of his commitment, be:

(a) Upon fourteen (14) days' prior written notice to the court, discharged from commitment. Written notice of discharge shall be given to the committing court and to any other parties as may be required by law;

(b) Placed in the home of his parents, a suitable foster home, or boarding home, upon such conditions as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may prescribe and subject to visitation and supervision by a family service worker or juvenile probation and parole officer. At the time a committed child is placed in the home of his parents by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, the parents shall be informed in writing of the conditions of the placement and the criteria that will be used to determine whether removal is necessary;

(c) Placed in one (1) of the facilities or programs operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, except that: No child committed under the provisions of KRS 610.010(1)(b), (c), or (d) shall be placed in a facility operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children adjudicated as a public offender unless the cabinet and the department agree, and the court consents, that the placement is in the best interest of the child and that the placement does not exceed a group home level; and

(d) Placed in a child-caring facility operated by a local governmental unit or by a private organization willing to receive the child, upon such conditions as the cabinet may prescribe;

(e) Treated as provided in KRS Chapter 645;

(f) Following the transfer or placement of a child pursuant to subsections (b), (c), (d), or (e) of this section, the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall, within fourteen (14) days, excluding weekends and holidays, give written notice to the court and law enforcement agencies specified in KRS 610.110 of the transfer, the placement, and the reasons therefor.

(2) No[~~or any~~] child ten (10) years of age or under shall be placed in a facility operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children adjudicated as public offenders;

(3) If a child committed to the cabinet as dependent, neglected, or abused is placed in the home of his parents, the child shall not be removed except in accordance with the following standards and procedures:

(a) If the family service worker believes that the committed child continues to be dependent, neglected, or abused, but immediate removal is unnecessary to protect the child from imminent death or serious physical injury, the casework situation and evidence shall be reviewed with his supervisor to determine whether to continue work with the family intact or to remove the child. There shall be documentation that the family service worker, prior to the court hearing, made an effort to contact the parents to inform them of the specific problems that could lead to removal so they have an opportunity to take corrective action. If the parents are unavailable or do not respond to attempts to communicate, the specific circumstances shall be documented;

(b) If it appears that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm and there is not reasonably available an alternative less drastic than removal of the child from the home, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the commitment pursuant to KRS 610.120 in relation to the cabinet's intention to remove the child from the parent's home. The petition shall set forth the facts which constitute the need for removal of the child. The court shall serve notice of the petition and the time and place of the hearing on the parents; however, the family service worker shall also contact the parents to ensure that they received the notice and are aware of the right to be represented by counsel. If the parents' whereabouts are unknown, notice may be mailed to the last known address of an adult who is a near relative. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall not be removed from the parents' home;

(c) If a family service worker finds a committed, unattended child who is too young to take care of himself, the family service worker shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for an emergency caretaker in the child's home until the parents return or fail to return within a reasonable time. If no in-home caretaker is available for the child, the family service worker shall request any appropriate law enforcement officer to take the child into protective custody. If, after a reasonable time, it appears the child has been abandoned, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the case; or

(d) If there exist reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child, the family service worker shall, with the assistance of a law enforcement officer, immediately remove the child prior to filing a petition for review. Within seventy-two (72) hours after the removal, the cabinet shall file a petition for review in District Court pursuant to KRS 610.120 with a request for an expeditious hearing. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall be returned to the parents' home.

(4)[~~(3)~~] The cabinet or the Department of Juvenile Justice, as appropriate, shall notify the juvenile court of the county of placement with the conditions of supervised placement of each child placed in that county from one (1) of the residential treatment facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet. Notice of the conditions of such placement may be made available by the court to any law enforcement agency.

(5)[~~(4)~~] The person in charge of any home to which a child is probated, and the governing authority of any private facility or agency to which a child is committed, shall make such reports to the court as the court may require, and such reports as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may require in the performance of its functions under the law. The Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall have the power to make such visitations and inspections of the homes, facilities, and agencies in which children who have committed public offenses have been placed as it deems necessary to carry out its functions under the law.

(6)[~~(5)~~] The Department of Juvenile Justice may assist the courts in placing children who have committed public offenses in boarding homes, and, under agreements with the individual courts, may assume responsibility for making such placements. Counties may pay or contribute towards the expenses of maintaining such children and, to the extent authorized by the fiscal court, the Department of Juvenile Justice may incur obligations chargeable to the county for such expenses.

Section 21. KRS 610.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The disposition shall determine the action to be taken by the court on behalf of, and in the best interest of, the child under the provisions of KRS Chapter 630 or 635.

(2) At the disposition, all information helpful in making a proper disposition, including oral and written reports, shall be received by the court in compliance with subsection (1) of this section and relied upon to the extent of their probative value, provided that the parties or their counsel shall be afforded an opportunity to examine and controvert the reports.

(3) The court shall, and the Department of Juvenile Justice may upon request, notify the law enforcement agency of the child's city, county, or urban county of residence as appropriate and the law enforcement agencies where any offense was committed of the disposition of each case and of each child committed by the court who is placed in a residential treatment facility by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet.

(4) If any court commits a child to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, a child-caring facility, or child-placing agency, the court shall cause to be transmitted to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency, as appropriate, a certified copy of the commitment order, together with a summary of the court's information concerning the child. A certified copy of the court order shall be proof of the authority of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency to hold the child. Such certified order shall be sufficient authority for any law enforcement officer to take into custody any person named therein and deliver him to such a place as shall be directed by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency given custody of him in the order.

(5) In placing a child on probation in a home or boarding home, or in committing a child to a child-caring facility or child-placing agency, the court shall as far as practicable select a home, facility, or agency operated or governed by persons of a similar religious faith as the parents of the child.

(6) Upon motion of the child and agreement of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, as appropriate, the court may authorize an extension of commitment up to age twenty-one (21) for the purpose of permitting the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, as appropriate, to assist the child in establishing independent living arrangements if a return to the child's home is not in his best interest.

Section 22. KRS 610.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A special record book shall be kept by the court for all cases, to be known as the "juvenile record," and the docket or calendar of such cases shall be called the "juvenile docket."

(2) No probation officer, nor employee of a probation officer, shall, without the consent of the District Judge sitting in juvenile session, divulge or communicate to any persons other than the court, law enforcement, the Department of Juvenile Justice, an officer of the court interested in the case, a member of the advisory board of the court, or a representative of the cabinet, any information obtained pursuant to the discharge of his duties, nor shall any record of the action of the probation officer be made public except by leave of the District Judge; provided, that nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the probation officer from divulging or communicating such information to the court, to his colleagues or superiors in his own department, or to another probation officer having a direct interest in the record or social history of the child.

(3) All law enforcement and court records regarding children who have not reached their eighteenth birthday shall not be opened to scrutiny by the public, except court records, limited to the petition, order of the adjudication, and disposition in juvenile delinquency proceedings concerning a child who is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for the commission of an offense that would constitute a capital offense or a Class A, B, or C felony if the juvenile were an adult, or any offense involving a deadly weapon, or an offense wherein a deadly weapon is used or displayed. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Release of any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or Title IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act is also prohibited. Otherwise, the law enforcement records shall be made available to the child, family, guardian, or legal representative of the child involved. The records shall also be made available to the court, probation officers, prosecutors, the Department of Juvenile Justice, or representatives of the cabinet. Records, limited to the child's adjudication of delinquency, and disposition of a criminal activity covered by KRS 610.345, shall also be made available to public or private elementary and secondary school administrative and counseling personnel, and to any teacher to whose class the student has been assigned for instruction, subject to the provisions of KRS 610.340 and 610.345.

(4) Subject to the Kentucky Rules of Evidence, juvenile court records of adjudications of guilt of a child for an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult shall be admissible in court at any time the child is tried as an adult, or after the child becomes an adult, at any subsequent criminal trial relating to that same person. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial, and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial. However, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense which would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication.

(5) This section shall not relieve the probation officer or peace officer from divulging such facts as a witness in a trial or hearing involving any cases falling under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or the production of juvenile records for use in the trial or proceedings.

(6) This section shall not prohibit release of information regarding juvenile proceedings in the District Court which do not reveal the identity of the child or its parents or guardians, or which relate to the child's eligibility for services under Title IV-E or IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court.

Section 23. KRS 610.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless a specific provision of KRS Chapters 600 to 645 specifies otherwise, all juvenile court records of any nature generated pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 by any agency or instrumentality, public or private, shall be deemed to be confidential and shall not be disclosed except to the child, parent, and to the extent necessary at the proceeding to victims, or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070 unless ordered by the court for good cause. Juvenile court records which contain information pertaining to arrests, petitions, adjudications, and dispositions of a child may be disclosed to victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or Title IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act shall not be disclosed to victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to public officers or employees engaged in the investigation of and in the prosecution of cases under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or other portions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes[~~ provided that the inspection of the records and the disclosure of the information contained therein is limited to that required in the investigation and the prosecution of the case~~].

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to employees of the Department of Juvenile Justice or cabinet or its designees responsible for any services under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or to attorneys for parties involved in actions relating to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or other prosecutions authorized by the Kentucky Revised Statutes[~~ provided that the inspection of the records and the disclosure of the information contained therein is limited to that required in the investigation and the representation of the client in the case~~].

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to records disclosed pursuant to KRS 610.320 or to public or private elementary and secondary school administrative and counseling personnel, to any teacher to whose class the student has been assigned for instruction, or to persons entitled to have juvenile records under KRS 610.345, if the possession and use of the records is in compliance with the provisions of KRS 610.345 and this section.

(5) No person, including school personnel, shall disclose any record or any information contained therein except as permitted by this section or other specific section of KRS Chapters 600 to 645, or except as permitted by specific order of the court.

(6) No person, including school personnel, authorized to obtain records pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 shall obtain or attempt to obtain records to which he is not entitled or for purposes for which he is not permitted to obtain them pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645.

(7) No person, including school personnel, not authorized to obtain records pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 shall obtain or attempt to obtain records which are made confidential pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 except upon proper motion to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) No person shall destroy or attempt to destroy any record required to be kept pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 unless the destruction is permitted pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 and is authorized by the court upon proper motion and good cause for the destruction being shown.

(9) As used in this section the term "KRS Chapters 600 to 645" includes any administrative regulations which are lawfully promulgated pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645.

Section 24. KRS 197.045 is amended to read as follows:

(5) (a) The Department of Corrections shall, by administrative regulation, specify the length of forfeiture of good time and the ability to earn good time in the future for those inmates who have civil actions dismissed because the court found the action to be malicious or harassing, or if satisfied that the action is legally without merit or factually frivolous.

(b) Penalties set by administrative regulation pursuant to this subsection shall be as uniform as practicable throughout all institutions operated by, under contract to, or under the control of the department and shall specify a specific number of days or months of good time forfeited as well as any prohibition imposed on the future earning of good time.

(5) Payment of restitution in full prior to the end of the period of parole supervision shall not shorten the period of parole supervision.

Section 49. KRS 533.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court shall place him on probation if he is in need of the supervision, guidance, assistance, or direction that the probation service can provide. Conditions of probation shall be imposed as provided in KRS 533.030, but the court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the period of probation.

(2) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court may sentence him to probation with an alternative sentence if it is of the opinion that the defendant should conduct himself according to conditions determined by the court and that probationary supervision alone is insufficient. The court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the alternative sentence.

(3) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court may sentence him to conditional discharge if it is of the opinion that the defendant should conduct himself according to conditions determined by the court but that probationary supervision is inappropriate. Conditions of conditional discharge shall be imposed as provided in KRS 533.030, but the court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the period of conditional discharge.

(4) The period of probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge shall be fixed by the court and at any time may be extended or shortened by duly entered court order. Such period, with extensions thereof, shall not exceed five (5) years, or the time necessary to complete restitution, whichever is longer, upon conviction of a felony nor two (2) years, or the time necessary to complete restitution, whichever is longer, upon conviction of a misdemeanor. Upon completion of the probationary period, probation with an alternative sentence, or the period of conditional discharge, the defendant shall be deemed finally discharged, provided no warrant issued by the court is pending against him, and probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge has not been revoked.

(5) Notwithstanding the fact that a sentence to probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge can subsequently be modified or revoked, a judgment which includes such a sentence shall constitute a final judgment for purposes of appeal.

Section 50. KRS 533.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The conditions of probation and conditional discharge shall be such as the court, in its discretion, deems reasonably necessary to insure that the defendant will lead a law-abiding life or to assist him to do so. The court shall provide as an explicit condition of every sentence to probation or conditional discharge that the defendant not commit another offense during the period for which the sentence remains subject to revocation.

(2) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court may, in addition to any other reasonable condition, require that the defendant:

(a) Avoid injurious or vicious habits;

(b) Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

(c) Work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

(d) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment and remain in a specific institution as required for that purpose;

(l) If the defendant's record indicates a controlled substance or alcohol problem, submit to periodic testing for use of controlled substances or alcohol and pay a reasonable fee, not to exceed the actual cost of the test and analysis, as determined by the court, said fee to be collected by the circuit clerk, held in an agency account, and disbursed, on court order, solely to the agency or agencies responsible for testing and analysis as compensation for the cost of the testing and analysis performed under this subsection. For good cause shown, the testing fee may be waived by the court.

(3) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge in a case where a victim of a crime has suffered monetary damage as a result of the crime due to his property having been converted, stolen, or unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a result of the crime, or where the victim suffered actual medical expenses, direct out-of-pocket losses, or loss of earning as a direct result of the crime, or if as a direct result of the crime the victim incurred medical expenses that were paid by the Cabinet for Human Resources, the Crime Victims Compensation Board, or any other governmental entity, the court shall order the defendant to make restitution in addition to any other penalty provided for the commission of the offense. Payment of restitution to the victim shall have priority over payment of restitution to any government agency. Restitution shall be ordered in the full amount of the damages, unless the damages exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or twice the amount of the gain from the commission of the offense, whichever is greater, in which case the higher of these two (2) amounts shall be awarded. The court may, in lieu of ordering monetary restitution, order the defendant to make restitution by working for or on behalf of the victim. The court shall determine the number of hours of work necessary by applying the then prevailing federal minimum wage to the total amount of monetary damage caused by or incidental to the commission of the crime. The court may, with the consent of the agency, order the defendant to work as specified in KRS 533.070. Any work ordered pursuant to this section shall not be deemed employment for any purpose, nor shall the person performing the work be deemed an employee for any purpose. Where there is more than one (1) defendant or more than one (1) victim, restitution may be apportioned. Restitution shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a)~~[Restitution by payment may be ordered in a lump sum or in specified payments;~~

~~(b) Restitution by payment may be ordered paid through the circuit clerk who shall disburse the moneys as ordered by the court;~~

~~(c)]~~ Where property which is unlawfully in the possession of the defendant is in substantially undamaged condition from its condition at the time of the taking, return of the property shall be ordered in lieu of monetary restitution;

~~[(d) Restitution by payment to governmental agencies shall be made through payments to and disbursement by the circuit clerk;]~~

(b)~~[(e)]~~The circuit clerk shall assess an additional fee of two percent (2%) to defray the administrative costs of collection of payments or property. This fee shall be paid by the defendant and shall enure to the general fund of the State Treasury;

(c)~~[(f)]~~ When a defendant fails to make restitution ordered to be paid through the circuit clerk, the circuit clerk shall notify the court.~~[The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the defendant is in contempt of the court or has violated the terms of his probation]~~; and

(d)~~[(g)]~~ An order of restitution shall not preclude the owner of property or the victim who suffered personal physical or mental injury or out-of-pocket loss of earnings or support or other damages from proceeding in a civil action to recover damages from the defendant. A civil verdict shall be reduced by the amount paid under the criminal restitution order.

(4) In addition to any other terms and conditions imposed under this section, the court may require the probationer, as a condition of his probation, to make one (1) payment to a crime stoppers organization in an amount not to exceed the amount of the reward paid by a crime stoppers organization, as defined by KRS 431.570, relative to the probationer.

(5) When a defendant is sentenced to probation or conditional discharge, he shall be given a written statement explicitly setting forth the conditions under which he is being released.

(6) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court, in addition to conditions imposed under this section, may require as a condition of the sentence that the defendant submit to a period of imprisonment in the county jail or to a period of home incarceration at whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine. The time actually spent in confinement or home incarceration pursuant to this provision shall not exceed six (6) months or the maximum term of imprisonment assessed pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, whichever is the shorter. Time spent in confinement or home incarceration under this subsection shall be credited against the maximum term of imprisonment assessed for the defendant pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, if probation or conditional discharge is revoked and the defendant is sentenced to imprisonment. Any prohibitions against probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge under KRS 533.060(2), or 532.045 shall not apply to persons convicted of a misdemeanor or Class D felony and sentenced to a period of confinement or home incarceration under this section.

(c) Both imprisonment and a fine unless precluded by the provisions of KRS Chapter 534.

(4) In all cases in which the death penalty may be authorized the judge shall instruct the jury in accordance with subsection (1) of this section. The instructions shall state, subject to the aggravating and mitigating limitations and requirements of KRS 532.025, that the jury may recommend upon a conviction for a capital offense a sentence of death, or at a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, or a sentence of life, or to a term of not less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years.

Section 78. KRS 532.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Upon conviction of a defendant in cases where the death penalty may be imposed, a hearing shall be conducted. In such hearing, the judge shall hear additional evidence in extenuation, mitigation, and aggravation of punishment, including the record of any prior criminal convictions and pleas of guilty or pleas of nolo contendere of the defendant, or the absence of any prior conviction and pleas; provided, however, that only such evidence in aggravation as the state has made known to the defendant prior to his trial shall be admissible. Subject to the Kentucky Rules of Evidence, juvenile court records of adjudications of guilt of a child for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult shall be admissible in court at any time the child is tried as an adult, or after the child becomes an adult, at any subsequent criminal trial relating to that same person. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial; however, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense that would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Release of any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act is also prohibited. The judge shall also hear argument by the defendant or his counsel and the prosecuting attorney, as provided by law, regarding the punishment to be imposed. The prosecuting attorney shall open and the defendant shall conclude the argument. In cases in which the death penalty may be imposed, the judge when sitting without a jury shall follow the additional procedure provided in subsection (2) of this section. Upon the conclusion of the evidence and arguments, the judge shall impose the sentence or shall recess the trial for the purpose of taking the sentence within the limits prescribed by law. If the trial court is reversed on appeal because of error only in the presentence hearing, the new trial which may be ordered shall apply only to the issue of punishment;

(b) In all cases in which the death penalty may be imposed and which are tried by a jury, upon a return of a verdict of guilty by the jury, the court shall resume the trial and conduct a presentence hearing before the jury. Such hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as presentence hearings conducted before the judge as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, including the record of any prior criminal convictions and pleas of guilty or pleas of nolo contendere of the defendant. Upon the conclusion of the evidence and arguments, the judge shall give the jury appropriate instructions, and the jury shall retire to determine whether any mitigating or aggravating circumstances, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, exist and to recommend a sentence for the defendant. Upon the findings of the jury, the judge shall fix a sentence within the limits prescribed by law.

(2) In all cases of offenses for which the death penalty may be authorized, the judge shall consider, or he shall include in his instructions to the jury for it to consider, any mitigating circumstances or aggravating circumstances otherwise authorized by law and any of the following statutory aggravating or mitigating circumstances which may be supported by the evidence:

(a) Aggravating circumstances:

1. The offense of murder or kidnapping was committed by a person with a prior record of conviction for a capital offense, or the offense of murder was committed by a person who has a substantial history of serious assaultive criminal convictions;
2. The offense of murder or kidnapping was committed while the offender was engaged in the commission of arson in the first degree, robbery in the first degree, burglary in the first degree, rape in the first degree, or sodomy in the first degree;
3. The offender by his act of murder, armed robbery, or kidnapping knowingly created a great risk of death to more than one (1) person in a public place by means of a destructive device, weapon, or other device which would normally be hazardous to the lives of more than one (1) person;
4. The offender committed the offense of murder for himself or another, for the purpose of receiving money or any other thing of monetary value, or for other profit;
5. The offense of murder was committed by a person who was a prisoner and the victim was a prison employee engaged at the time of the act in the performance of his duties;
6. The offender's act or acts of killing were intentional and resulted in multiple deaths; and
7. The offender's act of killing was intentional and the victim was a state or local public official or police officer, sheriff, or deputy sheriff engaged at the time of the act in the lawful performance of his duties;

(b) Mitigating circumstances:

1. The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;
2. The capital offense was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance even though the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance is not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;
3. The victim was a participant in the defendant's criminal conduct or consented to the criminal act;
4. The capital offense was committed under circumstances which the defendant believed to provide a moral justification or extenuation for his conduct even though the circumstances which the defendant believed to provide a moral justification or extenuation for his conduct are not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;
5. The defendant was an accomplice in a capital offense committed by another person and his participation in the capital offense was relatively minor;
6. The defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person even though the duress or the domination of another person is not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;

7. At the time of the capital offense, the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct to the requirements of law was impaired as a result of mental illness or retardation or intoxication even though the impairment of the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform the conduct to the requirements of law is insufficient to constitute a defense to the crime; and

8. The youth of the defendant at the time of the crime.

(3) The instructions as determined by the trial judge to be warranted by the evidence or as required by KRS 532.030(4) shall be given in charge and in writing to the jury for its deliberation. The jury, if its verdict be a recommendation of death, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, shall designate in writing, signed by the foreman of the jury, the aggravating circumstance or circumstances which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. In nonjury cases, the judge shall make such designation. In all cases unless at least one (1) of the statutory aggravating circumstances enumerated in subsection (2) of this section is so found, the death penalty, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or the sentence to imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, shall not be imposed.

Section 79. KRS 533.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a crime and who has not been sentenced to death may be sentenced to probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

(2) Before imposition of a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall consider~~[the possibility of]~~ probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge. Unless the defendant is a violent felon as defined in KRS 439.3401 or a statute prohibits probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge, after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation~~[, probation with an alternative sentencing plan,]~~ or conditional discharge shall~~[should]~~ be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for protection of the public because:

(a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation~~[, probation with an alternative sentencing plan,]~~ or conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(3) In the event the court determines that probation is not appropriate after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime, and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation with an alternative sentencing plan shall be granted unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for the protection of the public because:

(a) There is a likelihood that during a period of probation with an alternative sentencing plan or conditional discharge the defendant will commit a Class D or Class C felony or a substantial risk that the defendant will commit a Class B or Class A felony;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(4) The court shall not determine that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony based upon the fact that:

(a) The defendant has never been convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense;

(b) If convicted of, having pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense, the defendant successfully completed probation more than ten (10) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period; or

(c) The defendant has been released from incarceration for the commission of a felony offense more than ten (10) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period.

(5) In making a determination under subsection (4) of this section, the court may determine that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony.

(6) Upon initial sentencing of a defendant or upon modification or revocation of probation, when the court deems it in the best interest of the public and the defendant, the court may order probation with the defendant to serve one (1) of the following alternative sentences:

(a) To a halfway house for no more than twelve (12) months;

(b) To home incarceration with or without work release for no more than twelve (12) months;

(c) To jail for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months with or without work release and other programs as required by the court;

(d) To a residential treatment program for the abuse of alcohol or controlled substances; or

(e) To any other specified counseling program, rehabilitation or treatment program, or facility.

(7) If during the term of the alternative sentence the defendant fails to adhere to and complete the conditions of the alternative sentence, the court may modify the terms of the alternative sentence or may modify or revoke probation and alternative sentence, and commit the defendant to an institution.

(8) In addition to those conditions that the court may impose, the conditions of alternative sentence shall include the following and, if the court determines that the defendant cannot comply with them, then they shall not be made available:

(a) A defendant sentenced to a halfway house shall:

1. Be working or pursuing his or her education, or be enrolled in a full-time treatment program;

2. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime;

(b) A defendant sentenced to home incarceration shall:

1. Be employed by another person or self-employed at the time of sentencing to home incarceration and continue the employment throughout the period of home incarceration, unless the court determines that there is a compelling reason to allow home incarceration while the defendant is unemployed;

2. Pay restitution during the term of home incarceration;

3. Enter a treatment program, if appropriate;

4. Pay all or some portion of the cost of home incarceration as determined by the court;

5. Comply with other conditions as specified; and

6. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime;

(c) A defendant sentenced to jail with work release shall:

1. Pay restitution during all or some part of the defendant's term of probation;

2. Pay all or some portion of the cost of incarceration as determined by the court; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime; or

(d) A defendant sentenced to a residential treatment program for drug and alcohol abuse shall:

1. Undergo mandatory drug screening during term of probation;

2. Be subject to active, supervised probation for a term of five (5) years;

3. Undergo aftercare as required by the treatment program;

4. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(9) When the court deems it in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the person to work at community service related projects under the terms and conditions specified in KRS 533.070. Work at community service related projects shall be considered as a form of conditional discharge.

(10) Probation with alternative sentence shall not be available as set out in KRS 532.045 and 533.060, except as provided in KRS 533.030(6).

(11) The court may utilize a community corrections program authorized or funded under KRS Chapter 196 to provide services to any person released under this section.

Section 80. KRS 532.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a term of imprisonment in the state~~[penitentiary or reformatory]~~ for:

(a) At least one (1) but not more than five (5) years shall be deemed a Class D felony;

(b) At least five (5) but not more than ten (10) years shall be deemed a Class C felony;

(c) At least ten (10) but not more than twenty (20) years shall be deemed a Class B felony;

(d) For at least twenty (20) but not~~[or]~~ more than fifty (50) years or for life shall be deemed a Class A felony.

(2) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a definite term of imprisonment with a maximum which falls between ninety (90) days and twelve (12) months shall be deemed a Class A misdemeanor.

(3) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a definite term of imprisonment with a maximum of less than ninety (90) days shall be deemed a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a fine only or to any other punishment, whether in combination with a fine or not, other than death or imprisonment shall be deemed a violation.

Section 81. KRS 532.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No court shall impose sentence for conviction of a felony, other than a capital offense, without first ordering a presentence investigation after conviction and giving due consideration to a written report of the investigation. The presentence investigation report shall not be waived; however, the completion of the presentence investigation report may be delayed until after sentencing upon the written request of the defendant if the defendant is in custody and is ineligible for probation or conditional discharge.

(2) The report shall be prepared and presented by a probation officer and shall include an analysis of the defendant's history of delinquency or criminality, physical and mental condition, family situation and background, economic status, education, occupation, personal habits, and any other matters that the court directs to be included.

(3) Before imposing sentence for a felony conviction, the court may order the defendant to submit to psychiatric observation and examination for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days. The defendant may be remanded for this purpose to any available clinic or mental hospital or the court may appoint a qualified psychiatrist to make the examination.

(4) If the defendant has been convicted of any felony offense under KRS Chapter 510, 530.020, 530.064, 531.310, any sexual offense under KRS 506.010 or 506.030, or any other felony offense committed in conjunction with a misdemeanor under KRS Chapter 510, the court shall, prior to determining the sentence, order an evaluation of the defendant to be conducted by the sexual offender treatment program operated or approved by the Department of Corrections or the Department for Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services. The evaluation shall provide to the court a recommendation related to the risk of a repeat offense by the defendant and the defendant's amenability to treatment, and shall be considered by the court in determining the appropriate sentence. A copy of the evaluation shall be furnished to the Commonwealth and to the defendant. If the defendant is eligible and the court suspends the sentence and places the defendant on probation or conditional discharge, the provisions of KRS 532.045(3) to (8) shall apply. All communications relative to the evaluation and treatment of the sex offender shall fall under the provisions of KRS 197.440 and shall not be made a part of the court record subject to review in appellate proceedings. The defendant shall pay for any evaluation or treatment required pursuant to this section up to the defendant's ability to pay but no more than the actual cost of the evaluation or treatment.

(5) The presentence investigation report shall identify the counseling treatment, educational, and rehabilitation needs of the defendant and identify community-based and correctional-institutional-based programs and resources available to meet those needs or shall identify the lack of programs and resources to meet those needs.

(6) Before imposing sentence, the court shall advise the defendant or his counsel of the factual contents and conclusions of any presentence investigation or psychiatric examinations and afford a fair opportunity and a reasonable period of time, if the defendant so requests, to controvert them. The court shall provide the defendant's counsel a copy of the presentence investigation report. It shall not be necessary to disclose the sources of confidential information.

Section 82. KRS 532.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a defendant is found to be a persistent felony offender, the jury, in lieu of the sentence of imprisonment assessed under KRS 532.060 for the crime of which such person presently stands convicted, shall fix a sentence of imprisonment as authorized by subsection (5) or (6) of this section. When a defendant is charged with being a persistent felony offender, the determination of whether or not he is such an offender and the punishment to be imposed pursuant to subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall be determined in a separate proceeding from that proceeding which resulted in his last conviction. Such proceeding shall be conducted before the court sitting with the jury that found the defendant guilty of his most recent offense unless the court for good cause discharges that jury and impanels a new jury for that purpose.

(2) A persistent felony offender in the second degree is a person who is more than twenty-one (21) years of age and who stands convicted of a felony after having been convicted of one (1) previous felony. As used in this provision, a previous felony conviction is a conviction of a felony in this state or conviction of a crime in any other jurisdiction provided:

- (b) That the offender was over the age of eighteen (18) years at the time the offense was committed; and
- (c) That the offender:
  - 1. Completed service of the sentence imposed on the previous felony conviction within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

3. Was discharged from probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, or any other form of legal release on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

4. Was in custody from the previous felony conviction at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

5. Had escaped from custody while serving any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted.

As used in this provision, a previous felony conviction is a conviction of a felony in this state or conviction of a crime in any other jurisdiction provided:

(a) That a sentence to a term of imprisonment of one (1) year or more or a sentence to death was imposed therefor; and

(b) That the offender was over the age of eighteen (18) years at the time the offense was committed; and

(c) That the offender:

1. Completed service of the sentence imposed on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

3. Was discharged from probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, or any other form of legal release on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

4. Was in custody from the previous felony conviction at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

5. Had escaped from custody while serving any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted.

(4) For the purpose of determining whether a person has two (2) or more previous felony convictions, two (2) or more convictions of crime for which that person served concurrent or uninterrupted consecutive terms of imprisonment shall be deemed to be only one (1) conviction, unless one (1) of the convictions was for an offense committed while that person was imprisoned.

(5) A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the second degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment pursuant to the sentencing provisions of KRS 532.060(2) for the next highest degree than the offense for which convicted. A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the second degree shall not be eligible for probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge.

(6) A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to imprisonment as follows:

(a) If the offense for which he presently stands convicted is a Class A or Class B felony, a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment, the maximum of which shall not be less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years, or life imprisonment; or

(b) If the offense for which he presently stands convicted is a Class C or Class D felony, a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment, the maximum of which shall not be less than ten (10) years nor more than twenty (20) years.

(7) [~~If the offense the person presently stands convicted of is a Class A, B, or C felony,~~]A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall not be eligible for probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge, and if the offense the person presently stands convicted of is a Class A, B, or C felony, shall not be eligible[~~nor~~] for parole until having served a minimum term of incarceration of not less than ten (10) years.

(8) The provisions of this section amended by 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 396, sec. 11, shall be retroactive.

(2) A violent offender who has been convicted of a capital offense and who has received a life sentence (and has not been sentenced to twenty-five (25) years without parole), or a Class A felony and receives a life sentence, or to death and his sentence is commuted to a life sentence shall not be released on parole until he has served at least twenty (20)[~~twelve (12)~~] years in the penitentiary. Violent offenders may have a greater minimum parole eligibility date that other offenders who receive longer sentences, including a sentence of life imprisonment. Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, it is the intent of the General Assembly that violent offenders be subject to the parole eligibility set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) A violent offender who has been convicted of a capital offense or Class A felony with a sentence of a term of years or Class B felony who is a violent offender shall not be released on parole until he has served at least eighty-five percent (85%)[~~fifty percent (50%)~~] of the sentence imposed.

(4) A violent offender may not be awarded any credit on his sentence authorized by KRS 197.045(1), except the educational credit. A violent offender may, at the discretion of the commissioner, receive credit on his sentence authorized by KRS 197.045(3). In no event shall a violent offender be given credit on his sentence if the credit reduces the term of imprisonment to less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the sentence.

(5) This section shall not apply to a person who has been determined by a court to have been a victim of domestic violence or abuse pursuant to KRS 533.060 with regard to the offenses involving the death of the victim or serious physical injury to the victim. (2) Place the child on probation, home incarceration, or under supervision in the child's own home or in a suitable home or boarding home, upon the conditions that the court shall determine. Home incarceration shall not be ordered for a child found delinquent of, convicted of, or entering a plea of guilty to, or an Alford plea to a violent felony offense specified in KRS 532.200. A child placed on probation, home incarceration, or supervision shall be subject to the visitation and supervision of a juvenile probation officer of the Department of Juvenile Justice. The court, in its discretion, upon motion by the child and with the concurrence of the Department of Juvenile Justice, may authorize an extension of commitment up to age twenty-one (21) to permit the Department of Juvenile Justice to assist the child in establishing independent living arrangements; or

(4) Effective July 1, 1997, if the child is fourteen (14) years of age but less than sixteen (16) years of age, order that the child be confined in an approved secure juvenile detention facility or juvenile holding facility in accordance with KRS 15A.200 for a period of time not to exceed forty-five (45) days; or

SECTION 118. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A pretrial diversion program shall be operated in each Circuit Court and each District Court. The chief judge of each circuit or district, as appropriate, shall submit a plan for the pretrial diversion program to the Supreme Court for approval on or before December 1, 1999. - (b) The program shall not be utilized for persons charged with felony offenses which, if convicted, would classify them as violent offenders under KRS 439.3401 or for persons charged with offenses for which probation, parole, or conditional discharge is prohibited under KRS 532.045.
- (c) Any person charged with an offense not specified as precluding a person from pretrial diversion under paragraph (b) of this subsection may apply in writing to the county or Commonwealth's attorney, as appropriate, for entry into a pretrial diversion program.

If the attorney for the Commonwealth has recommended pretrial diversion and the judge approves pretrial diversion, it shall be granted according to the terms agreed upon.

(3) If the county or Commonwealth's attorney has made a recommendation against pretrial diversion, the judge may permit pretrial diversion. However, the Commonwealth may appeal the decision.

(4) A decision of the judge to deny pretrial diversion may be appealed in the manner specified in the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

SECTION 119. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

When considering an application for pretrial diversion the attorney for the Commonwealth shall:

(2) Interview the victim of the crime, if there is an identified victim, and, when the victim of the crime is deceased or the attorney for the Commonwealth deems it necessary, interview a member of the family of the victim of the crime. The attorney for the Commonwealth shall explain to the victim the diversion program, the proposed diversion conditions, and any other matters that the attorney for the Commonwealth deems to be appropriate. The results of the interview and recommendations of the victim may be presented to the court when it is considering the application for pretrial diversion. The victim, or the victim's family if the victim is deceased, may attend the court hearing, if they so desire. The attorney for the Commonwealth shall notify them of this fact and the time, date, and place of the hearing.

(3) Conduct any other investigation that the attorney for the Commonwealth determines may be necessary with regard to the defendant and the circumstances of the crime so as to enable him or her to set proper conditions of pretrial diversion, or to make a decision whether to recommend or oppose the application of the defendant for pretrial diversion. The application shall be opposed if the attorney for the Commonwealth finds that the defendant has a felony record, has failed to complete a pretrial diversion or similar program in the past, or has previously been granted pretrial diversion on two (2) or more occasions.

SECTION 121. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the defendant fails to complete the provisions of the pretrial diversion agreement within the time specified, or is not making satisfactory progress toward the completion of the provisions of the agreement, the victim, the attorney for the Commonwealth, or a peace officer may apply to the court for a hearing to determine whether or not the pretrial diversion agreement should be voided and the defendant stand trial as charged.

(2) In making a determination as to whether or not a pretrial diversion agreement should be voided, the court shall use the same criteria as for the revocation of probation, and the defendant shall have the same rights as he or she would if probation revocation was sought.

(3) Making application for a pretrial diversion agreement tolls any statute of limitations relative to the criminal offenses for which the application is made for the period until the application is granted or denied. Approval of the application for pretrial diversion by the court tolls any statute of limitations relative to criminal offenses diverted for the period of the diversion agreement.

(4) If the court voids the pretrial diversion agreement, the court shall notify the applicable prosecutor, in writing, that the pretrial diversion agreement has been voided and the reasons for the action. The prosecutor shall decide whether or not the defendant should be tried and for what charges. If the decision is made to try the defendant the court shall order the defendant to stand trial. The defendant may be arrested and jailed pending pretrial release. The order voiding the pretrial diversion agreement is subject to appeal in the same manner as any probation revocation under the statutes and the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

SECTION 122. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the defendant successfully completes the provisions of the pretrial diversion agreement, the charges against the defendant shall be listed as "dismissed-diverted" and shall not constitute a criminal conviction.

(2) As of the effective date of this Act, no other pretrial diversion program shall be permitted, except to supervise persons granted pretrial diversion prior to the effective date of this Act. No new persons shall be admitted to these programs.

(3) A person who is in a pretrial diversion program as of the effective date of this Act may continue in that program until he or she successfully completes the program or is removed from the program for other reasons, whichever occurs earlier.

SECTION 125. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 635 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) No court shall impose sentence for finding of delinquency for an offense which is a felony, other than a capital offense, without first ordering a presentence investigation after conviction and giving due consideration to a written report of the investigation. The presentence investigation report shall not be waived; however, the completion of the presentence investigation report may be delayed until after sentencing upon the written request of the defendant if the defendant is in custody and is ineligible for probation or conditional discharge.

(2) The report shall be prepared and presented by a probation officer or person designated by the Department of Juvenile Justice and shall include an analysis of the defendant's history of delinquency or criminality, physical and mental condition, family situation and background, economic status, education, occupation, personal habits, and any other matters that the court directs to be included.

(3) Before imposing sentence for a felony conviction, the court may order the defendant to submit to psychiatric observation and examination for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days. The defendant may be remanded for this purpose to any available clinic or mental hospital or the court may appoint a qualified psychiatrist to make the examination.

(4) If the defendant has been convicted of any felony offense under KRS Chapter 510, 530.020, 530.064, 531.310, any sexual offense under KRS 506.010 or 506.030, or any other felony offense committed in conjunction with a misdemeanor under KRS Chapter 510, the court shall, prior to determining the sentence, order an evaluation of the defendant to be conducted by the sexual offender treatment program operated or approved by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department for Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services. The evaluation shall provide to the court a recommendation related to the risk of a repeat offense by the defendant and the defendant's amenability to treatment, and shall be considered by the court in determining the appropriate sentence. A copy of the evaluation shall be furnished to the Commonwealth and to the defendant. If the defendant is eligible and the court suspends the sentence and places the defendant on probation or conditional discharge, the provisions of KRS 532.045(3) to (8) shall apply. All communications relative to the evaluation and treatment of the sex offender shall fall under the provisions of KRS 197.440 and shall not be made a part of the court record subject to review in appellate proceedings. The defendant shall pay for any evaluation or treatment required pursuant to this section up to the defendant's ability to pay but no more than the actual cost of the evaluation or treatment.

(5) The presentence investigation report shall identify the counseling treatment, educational, and rehabilitation needs of the defendant and identify community-based and correctional-institution-based programs and resources available to meet those needs or shall identify the lack of programs and resources to meet those needs.

(6) Before imposing sentence, the court shall advise the defendant or his counsel of the factual contents and conclusions of any presentence investigation or psychiatric examinations and afford a fair opportunity and a reasonable period of time, if the defendant so requests, to controvert them. The court shall provide the defendant's counsel a copy of the presentence investigation report. It shall not be necessary to disclose the sources of confidential information.

SECTION 126. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 635 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Any person who has been convicted or found delinquent of a crime and who has not been sentenced to death may be sentenced to probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

(2) Before imposition of a sentence of confinement, the court shall consider the possibility of probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge. After due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation or conditional discharge should be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for protection of the public because:

- (a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation or probation with conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime;
- (b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(3) In the event the court determines that probation is not appropriate after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime, and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation with an alternative sentencing plan shall be granted unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for the protection of the public because:

(a) There is a likelihood that during a period of probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge the defendant will commit a Class D or Class C felony or a substantial risk that the defendant will commit a Class B or Class A felony;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(4) The court shall not determine that there is a likelihood the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony based upon the fact that:

(a) The defendant has never been found delinquent, convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense; or

(b) If found delinquent, convicted of, having pled guilty to or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense, the defendant successfully completed probation more than five (5) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening finding of delinquency, convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period; or

(c) The defendant has been released from incarceration for the commission of a felony offense more than five (5) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening findings of delinquency, convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period.

(5) In making a determination under subsection (4) of this section, the court may determine that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony.

(6) Upon initial sentencing of a defendant or upon modification or revocation of probation, when the court deems it in the best interest of the public and the defendant, the court may order probation with the defendant to serve one of the following alternative sentences:

(a) To a halfway house for no more than twelve (12) months;

(b) To home incarceration with or without work release for no more than twelve (12) months;

(c) To jail for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months with or without work release and other programs as required by the court;

(d) To a residential treatment program for the abuse of alcohol or controlled substances; or

(e) To any other specified counseling program, rehabilitation or treatment program, or facility.

(7) If during the term of the alternative sentence, the defendant fails to adhere to and complete the conditions of the alternative sentence, the court may modify the terms of the alternative sentence, or may modify or revoke probation and alternative sentence, and commit the defendant to an institution.

(8) In addition to those conditions which the court may impose, the conditions of alternative sentence shall include the following and, if the court determines that the defendant cannot comply with them, then they shall not be made available:

(a) A defendant sentenced to a halfway house shall:

1. Be working or pursuing his or her education, or be enrolled in a full-time treatment program;

2. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(b) A defendant sentenced to home incarceration shall:

1. Pay restitution during the term of home incarceration;

2. Enter a treatment program, if appropriate;

3. Pay all or some portion of the cost of home incarceration as determined by the court;

4. Comply with other conditions as specified; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(c) A defendant sentenced to detention with work release shall:

1. Pay restitution, during all or some part of the defendant's term of probation;

2. Pay all or some portion of the cost of incarceration as determined by the court; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(d) A defendant sentenced to a residential treatment program for drug and alcohol abuse shall:

1. Undergo mandatory drug screening during term of probation;

2. Be subject to active, supervised probation for a term of two (2) years;

3. Undergo aftercare as required by the treatment program;

4. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(9) When the court deems it in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the person to work at community service related projects under the terms and conditions specified in KRS 533.070. Work at community service related projects shall be considered as a form of conditional discharge.

(10) Probation with alternative sentence shall not be available as set out in KRS 533.060 and 532.045; except as provided in KRS 533.030(6).

(11) The court may utilize a community corrections program authorized or funded under KRS Chapter 196 to provide services to any person released under this section.

SECTION 127. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 640 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) No court shall impose sentence for conviction of a felony, including a capital offense, without first ordering a presentence investigation after conviction and giving due consideration to a written report of the investigation. The presentence investigation report shall not be waived; however, the completion of the presentence investigation report may be delayed until after sentencing upon the written request of the defendant if the defendant is in custody and is ineligible for probation or conditional discharge.

(2) The report shall be prepared and presented by an employee of the Department of Juvenile Justice or a probation officer and shall include an analysis of the defendant's history of delinquency or criminality, physical and mental condition, family situation and background, economic status, education, occupation, personal habits, and any other matters that the court directs to be included.

(3) Before imposing sentence for a felony conviction, the court may order the defendant to submit to psychiatric observation and examination for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days. The defendant may be remanded for this purpose to any available clinic or mental hospital or the court may appoint a qualified psychiatrist to make the examination.

(4) If the defendant has been convicted of any felony offense under KRS Chapter 510, 530.020, 530.064, 531.310, any sexual offense under KRS 506.010 or 506.030, or any other felony offense committed in conjunction with a misdemeanor under KRS Chapter 510, the court shall, prior to determining the sentence, order an evaluation of the defendant to be conducted by the sexual offender treatment program operated or approved by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department for Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services. The evaluation shall provide to the court a recommendation related to the risk of a repeat offense by the defendant and the defendant's amenability to treatment, and shall be considered by the court in determining the appropriate sentence. A copy of the evaluation shall be furnished to the Commonwealth and to the defendant. If the defendant is eligible and the court suspends the sentence and places the defendant on probation or conditional discharge, the provisions of KRS 532.045(3) to (8) shall apply. All communications relative to the evaluation and treatment of the sex offender shall fall under the provisions of KRS 197.440 and shall not be made a part of the court record subject to review in appellate proceedings. The defendant shall pay for any evaluation or treatment required pursuant to this section up to the defendant's ability to pay but no more than the actual cost of the evaluation or treatment.

(5) The presentence investigation report shall identify the counseling treatment, educational, and rehabilitation needs of the defendant and identify community-based and correctional-institution-based programs and resources available to meet those needs or shall identify the lack of programs and resources to meet those needs.

(6) Before imposing sentence, the court shall advise the defendant or his counsel of the factual contents and conclusions of any presentence investigation or psychiatric examinations and afford a fair opportunity and a reasonable period of time, if the defendant so requests, to controvert them. The court shall provide the defendant's counsel a copy of the presentence investigation report. It shall not be necessary to disclose the sources of confidential information.

SECTION 128. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 640 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a crime may be sentenced to probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

(2) Before imposition of a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall consider the possibility of probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge. After due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation or conditional discharge should be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for protection of the public because:

(a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation or probation with conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(3) In the event the court determines that probation is not appropriate after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime, and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation with an alternative sentencing plan shall be granted unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for the protection of the public because:

(a) There is a likelihood that during a period of probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge the defendant will commit a Class D or Class C felony or a substantial risk that the defendant will commit a Class B or Class A felony;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(4) The court shall not determine that there is a likelihood the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony based upon the fact that:

(a) The defendant has never been convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense; or

(b) If convicted of, having pled guilty to or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense, the defendant successfully completed probation more than five (5) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period; or

(c) The defendant has been released from incarceration for the commission of a felony offense more than five (5) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period.

(5) In making a determination under subsection (4) of this section, the court may determine that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony.

(6) Upon initial sentencing of a defendant or upon modification or revocation of probation, when the court deems it in the best interest of the public and the defendant, the court may order probation with the defendant to serve one of the following alternative sentences:

(a) To a halfway house for no more than twelve (12) months;

(b) To home incarceration with or without work release for no more than twelve (12) months;

(c) To jail for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months with or without work release and other programs as required by the court;

(d) To a residential treatment program for the abuse of alcohol or controlled substances; or

(e) To any other specified counseling program, rehabilitation or treatment program, or facility.

(7) If during the term of the alternative sentence, the defendant fails to adhere to and complete the conditions of the alternative sentence, the court may modify the terms of the alternative sentence, or may modify or revoke probation and alternative sentence, and commit the defendant to an institution.

(8) In addition to those conditions which the court may impose, the conditions of alternative sentence shall include the following and, if the court determines that the defendant cannot comply with them, then they shall not be made available:

(a) A defendant sentenced to a halfway house shall:

1. Be working or pursuing his or her education, or be enrolled in a full-time treatment program;

2. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(b) A defendant sentenced to home incarceration shall:

1. Pay restitution during the term of home incarceration;

2. Enter a treatment program, if appropriate;

3. Pay all or some portion of the cost of home incarceration as determined by the court;

4. Comply with other conditions as specified; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(c) A defendant sentenced to jail with work release shall:

1. Pay restitution, during all or some part of the defendant's term of probation;

2. Pay all or some portion of the cost of incarceration as determined by the court; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(d) A defendant sentenced to a residential treatment program for drug and alcohol abuse shall:

1. Undergo mandatory drug screening during term of probation;

2. Be subject to active, supervised probation for a term of five (5) years;

3. Undergo aftercare as required by the treatment program;

4. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(9) When the court deems it is in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the person to work at community service related projects under the terms and conditions specified in KRS 533.070. Work at community service related projects shall be considered as a form of conditional discharge.

(10) Probation with alternative sentence shall not be available as set out in KRS 533.060 and 532.045, except as provided in KRS 533.030(6).

(11) The court may utilize a community corrections program authorized or funded under KRS Chapter 196 to provide services to any person released under this section.

(2) The hearing shall address the following issues:

(a) If there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the accused child committed that offense. Probable cause may be established in the same manner as in a preliminary hearing in cases involving adults accused of felonies. The child shall be afforded the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses. The Commonwealth shall bear the burden of proof and if it should fail to establish probable cause, the child shall be released and the complaint or petition dismissed unless the court determines further detention is necessary to assure the appearance of the child in court on another pending case; and

(b) In determining detention, the court shall consider the seriousness of the alleged offense, the possibility that the child would commit an offense dangerous to himself or the community pending disposition of the alleged offense, the child's prior record, if any, and whether there are other charges pending against the child. Any child, ordered to be detained in a state-operated facility pursuant to the statewide detention plan, shall be referred to the Department of Juvenile Justice for a security assessment and placement in an approved detention facility or program pending the child's next court appearance. The security assessment shall be done at the facility where the juvenile is initially detained.

The court, in its discretion, upon motion by the child and with the concurrence of the Department of Juvenile Justice, may authorize an extension of commitment up to age twenty-one (21)

Section 20. KRS 605.090 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless precluded by law, any child committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may by the decision of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet or its designee, at any time during the period of his commitment, be:

(a) Upon fourteen (14) days' prior written notice to the court, discharged from commitment. Written notice of discharge shall be given to the committing court and to any other parties as may be required by law;

(b) Placed in the home of his parents, a suitable foster home, or boarding home, upon such conditions as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may prescribe and subject to visitation and supervision by a family service worker or juvenile probation and parole officer. At the time a committed child is placed in the home of his parents by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, the parents shall be informed in writing of the conditions of the placement and the criteria that will be used to determine whether removal is necessary;

(c) Placed in one (1) of the facilities or programs operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, except that: No child committed under the provisions of KRS 610.010(1)(b), (c), or (d) shall be placed in a facility operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children adjudicated as a public offender unless the cabinet and the department agree, and the court consents, that the placement is in the best interest of the child and that the placement does not exceed a group home level;

(d) Placed in a child-caring facility operated by a local governmental unit or by a private organization willing to receive the child, upon such conditions as the cabinet may prescribe;

(e) Treated as provided in KRS Chapter 645;

(f) Following the transfer or placement of a child pursuant to subsections (b), (c), (d), or (e) of this section, the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall, within fourteen (14) days, excluding weekends and holidays, give written notice to the court of the transfer, the placement, and the reasons therefor.

(2) No[~~or any~~] child ten (10) years of age or under shall be placed in a facility operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice for children adjudicated as public offenders;

(3) If a child committed to the cabinet as dependent, neglected, or abused is placed in the home of his parents, the child shall not be removed except in accordance with the following standards and procedures:

(a) If the family service worker believes that the committed child continues to be dependent, neglected, or abused, but immediate removal is unnecessary to protect the child from imminent death or serious physical injury, the casework situation and evidence shall be reviewed with his supervisor to determine whether to continue work with the family intact or to remove the child. There shall be documentation that the family service worker, prior to the court hearing, made an effort to contact the parents to inform them of the specific problems that could lead to removal so they have an opportunity to take corrective action. If the parents are unavailable or do not respond to attempts to communicate, the specific circumstances shall be documented;

(b) If it appears that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm and there is not reasonably available an alternative less drastic than removal of the child from the home, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the commitment pursuant to KRS 610.120 in relation to the cabinet's intention to remove the child from the parent's home. The petition shall set forth the facts which constitute the need for removal of the child. The court shall serve notice of the petition and the time and place of the hearing on the parents; however, the family service worker shall also contact the parents to ensure that they received the notice and are aware of the right to be represented by counsel. If the parents' whereabouts are unknown, notice may be mailed to the last known address of an adult who is a near relative. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental, or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall not be removed from the parents' home;

(c) If a family service worker finds a committed, unattended child who is too young to take care of himself, the family service worker shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for an emergency caretaker in the child's home until the parents return or fail to return within a reasonable time. If no in-home caretaker is available for the child, the family service worker shall request any appropriate law enforcement officer to take the child into protective custody. If, after a reasonable time, it appears the child has been abandoned, the cabinet shall petition the District Court to review the case; or

(d) If there exist reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in danger of imminent death or serious physical injury or is being sexually abused and that the parents are unable or unwilling to protect the child, the family service worker shall, with the assistance of a law enforcement officer, immediately remove the child prior to filing a petition for review. Within seventy-two (72) hours after the removal, the cabinet shall file a petition for review in District Court pursuant to KRS 610.120 with a request for an expeditious hearing. If the court fails to find that the child's health or welfare or physical, mental or emotional condition is subjected to or threatened with real and substantial harm, or recommends a less drastic alternative that is reasonably available, the child shall be returned to the parents' home.

(4)[~~(3)~~] The cabinet or the Department of Juvenile Justice, as appropriate, shall notify the juvenile court of the county of placement with the conditions of supervised placement of each child placed in that county from one (1) of the residential treatment facilities operated by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet. Notice of the conditions of such placement may be made available by the court to any law enforcement agency.

(5)[~~(4)~~] The person in charge of any home to which a child is probated, and the governing authority of any private facility or agency to which a child is committed, shall make such reports to the court as the court may require, and such reports as the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet may require in the performance of its functions under the law. The Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet shall have the power to make such visitations and inspections of the homes, facilities, and agencies in which children who have committed public offenses have been placed as it deems necessary to carry out its functions under the law.

(6)[~~(5)~~] The Department of Juvenile Justice may assist the courts in placing children who have committed public offenses in boarding homes, and, under agreements with the individual courts, may assume responsibility for making such placements. Counties may pay or contribute towards the expenses of maintaining such children and, to the extent authorized by the fiscal court, the Department of Juvenile Justice may incur obligations chargeable to the county for such expenses.

Section 21. KRS 610.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The disposition shall determine the action to be taken by the court on behalf of, and in the best interest of, the child under the provisions of KRS Chapter 630 or 635.

(2) At the disposition, all information helpful in making a proper disposition, including oral and written reports, shall be received by the court in compliance with subsection (1) of this section and relied upon to the extent of their probative value, provided that the parties or their counsel shall be afforded an opportunity to examine and controvert the reports.

(3) The court shall, and the Department of Juvenile Justice may upon request, notify the law enforcement agency of the child's city, county, or urban county of residence as appropriate and the law enforcement agencies where any offense was committed of the disposition of each case and of each child committed by the court who is placed in a residential treatment facility by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet.

(4) If any court commits a child to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, a child-caring facility, or child-placing agency, the court shall cause to be transmitted to the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency, as appropriate, a certified copy of the commitment order, together with a summary of the court's information concerning the child. A certified copy of the court order shall be proof of the authority of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency to hold the child. Such certified order shall be sufficient authority for any law enforcement officer to take into custody any person named therein and deliver him to such a place as shall be directed by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, facility, or agency given custody of him in the order.

(5) In placing a child on probation in a home or boarding home, or in committing a child to a child-caring facility or child-placing agency, the court shall as far as practicable select a home, facility, or agency operated or governed by persons of a similar religious faith as the parents of the child.

(6) Upon motion of the child and agreement of the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, as appropriate, the court may authorize an extension of commitment up to age twenty-one (21) for the purpose of permitting the Department of Juvenile Justice or the cabinet, as appropriate, to assist the child in establishing independent living arrangements if a return to the child's home is not in his best interest.

Section 22. KRS 610.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A special record book shall be kept by the court for all cases, to be known as the "juvenile record," and the docket or calendar of such cases shall be called the "juvenile docket."

(2) No probation officer, nor employee of a probation officer, shall, without the consent of the District Judge sitting in juvenile session, divulge or communicate to any persons other than the court, law enforcement, the Department of Juvenile Justice, an officer of the court interested in the case, a member of the advisory board of the court, or a representative of the cabinet, any information obtained pursuant to the discharge of his duties, nor shall any record of the action of the probation officer be made public except by leave of the District Judge; provided, that nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the probation officer from divulging or communicating such information to the court, to his colleagues or superiors in his own department, or to another probation officer having a direct interest in the record or social history of the child.

(3) All law enforcement and court records regarding children who have not reached their eighteenth birthday shall not be opened to scrutiny by the public, except court records, limited to the petition, order of the adjudication, and disposition in juvenile delinquency proceedings concerning a child who is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for the commission of an offense that would constitute a capital offense or a Class A, B, or C felony if the juvenile were an adult, or any offense involving a deadly weapon, or an offense wherein a deadly weapon is used or displayed. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Release of any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or Title IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act is also prohibited. Otherwise, the law enforcement records shall be made available to the child, family, guardian, or legal representative of the child involved. The records shall also be made available to the court, probation officers, prosecutors, the Department of Juvenile Justice, and law enforcement agencies or representatives of the cabinet. Records, limited to the child's adjudication of delinquency, and disposition of a criminal activity covered by KRS 610.345, shall also be made available to public or private elementary and secondary school administrative and counseling personnel, and to any teacher to whose class the student has been assigned for instruction, subject to the provisions of KRS 610.340 and 610.345.

(4) Subject to the Kentucky Rules of Evidence, juvenile court records of adjudications of guilt of a child for an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult shall be admissible in court at any time the child is tried as an adult, or after the child becomes an adult, at any subsequent criminal trial relating to that same person. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial, and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial. However, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense which would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication.

(5) This section shall not relieve the probation officer or peace officer from divulging such facts as a witness in a trial or hearing involving any cases falling under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or the production of juvenile records for use in the trial or proceedings.

(6) This section shall not prohibit release of information regarding juvenile proceedings in the District Court which do not reveal the identity of the child or its parents or guardians, or which relate to the child's eligibility for services under Title IV-E or IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court.

Section 23. KRS 610.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless a specific provision of KRS Chapters 600 to 645 specifies otherwise, all juvenile court records of any nature generated pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 by any agency or instrumentality, public or private, shall be deemed to be confidential and shall not be disclosed except to the child, parent, and to the extent necessary at the proceeding to victims, or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070 unless ordered by the court for good cause. Juvenile court records which contain information pertaining to arrests, petitions, adjudications, and dispositions of a child may be disclosed to victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. The provisions of this section shall not be subject to suspension or nonimposition.

(3) If probation, shock probation, conditional discharge, or other alternative sentence is granted, restitution shall be a condition of the sentence.

(4) If a person is sentenced to incarceration and paroled, restitution shall be made a condition of parole.

SECTION 47. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 532 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 48. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 439 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(3) The board, in addition to any other sanctions which may be imposed on the defendant, ask a court to hold a defendant who is not paying restitution in the manner or amount prescribed in contempt of court.

(4) Any statute relating to the length of parole supervision notwithstanding, the parole for a person owing restitution shall be until the restitution is paid in full, even if this would lengthen the period of supervision beyond the statutory limit of parole supervision or the statutory limit for serving out the sentence imposed.

(5) Payment of restitution in full prior to the end of the period of parole supervision shall not shorten the period of parole supervision.

Section 49. KRS 533.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court shall place him on probation if he is in need of the supervision, guidance, assistance, or direction that the probation service can provide. Conditions of probation shall be imposed as provided in KRS 533.030, but the court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the period of probation.

(2) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court may sentence him to probation with an alternative sentence if it is of the opinion that the defendant should conduct himself according to conditions determined by the court and that probationary supervision alone is insufficient. The court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the alternative sentence.

(3) When a person who has been convicted of an offense or who has entered a plea of guilty to an offense is not sentenced to imprisonment, the court may sentence him to conditional discharge if it is of the opinion that the defendant should conduct himself according to conditions determined by the court but that probationary supervision is inappropriate. Conditions of conditional discharge shall be imposed as provided in KRS 533.030, but the court may modify or enlarge the conditions or, if the defendant commits an additional offense or violates a condition, revoke the sentence at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the period of conditional discharge.

(4) The period of probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge shall be fixed by the court and at any time may be extended or shortened by duly entered court order. Such period, with extensions thereof, shall not exceed five (5) years, or the time necessary to complete restitution, whichever is longer, upon conviction of a felony nor two (2) years, or the time necessary to complete restitution, whichever is longer, upon conviction of a misdemeanor. Upon completion of the probationary period, probation with an alternative sentence, or the period of conditional discharge, the defendant shall be deemed finally discharged, provided no warrant issued by the court is pending against him, and probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge has not been revoked.

(5) Notwithstanding the fact that a sentence to probation, probation with an alternative sentence, or conditional discharge can subsequently be modified or revoked, a judgment which includes such a sentence shall constitute a final judgment for purposes of appeal.

Section 50. KRS 533.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The conditions of probation and conditional discharge shall be such as the court, in its discretion, deems reasonably necessary to insure that the defendant will lead a law-abiding life or to assist him to do so. The court shall provide as an explicit condition of every sentence to probation or conditional discharge that the defendant not commit another offense during the period for which the sentence remains subject to revocation.

(2) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court may, in addition to any other reasonable condition, require that the defendant:

(a) Avoid injurious or vicious habits;

(b) Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

(c) Work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

(d) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment and remain in a specific institution as required for that purpose;

(e) Post a bond, without surety, conditioned on performance of any of the prescribed conditions;

(f) Support his dependents and meet other family responsibilities;

(g) Pay the cost of the proceeding as set by the court;

(h) Remain within a specified area;

(i) Report to the probation officer as directed;

(j) Permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere;

(k) Answer all reasonable inquiries by the probation officer and promptly notify the probation officer of any change in address or employment; and

(l) If the defendant's record indicates a controlled substance or alcohol problem, submit to periodic testing for use of controlled substances or alcohol and pay a reasonable fee, not to exceed the actual cost of the test and analysis, as determined by the court, said fee to be collected by the circuit clerk, held in an agency account, and disbursed, on court order, solely to the agency or agencies responsible for testing and analysis as compensation for the cost of the testing and analysis performed under this subsection. For good cause shown, the testing fee may be waived by the court.

(3) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge in a case where a victim of a crime has suffered monetary damage as a result of the crime due to his property having been converted, stolen, or unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a result of the crime, or where the victim suffered actual medical expenses, direct out-of-pocket losses, or loss of earning as a direct result of the crime, or if as a direct result of the crime the victim incurred medical expenses that were paid by the Cabinet for Human Resources, the Crime Victims Compensation Board, or any other governmental entity, the court shall order the defendant to make restitution in addition to any other penalty provided for the commission of the offense. Payment of restitution to the victim shall have priority over payment of restitution to any government agency. Restitution shall be ordered in the full amount of the damages, unless the damages exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or twice the amount of the gain from the commission of the offense, whichever is greater, in which case the higher of these two (2) amounts shall be awarded. The court may, in lieu of ordering monetary restitution, order the defendant to make restitution by working for or on behalf of the victim. The court shall determine the number of hours of work necessary by applying the then prevailing federal minimum wage to the total amount of monetary damage caused by or incidental to the commission of the crime. The court may, with the consent of the agency, order the defendant to work as specified in KRS 533.070. Any work ordered pursuant to this section shall not be deemed employment for any purpose, nor shall the person performing the work be deemed an employee for any purpose. Where there is more than one (1) defendant or more than one (1) victim, restitution may be apportioned. Restitution shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a)[~~Restitution by payment may be ordered in a lump sum or in specified payments;~~

~~(b) Restitution by payment may be ordered paid through the circuit clerk who shall disburse the moneys as ordered by the court;~~

~~(c)~~] Where property which is unlawfully in the possession of the defendant is in substantially undamaged condition from its condition at the time of the taking, return of the property shall be ordered in lieu of monetary restitution;

[~~(d) Restitution by payment to governmental agencies shall be made through payments to and disbursement by the circuit clerk;~~]

(b)[~~(e)~~]The circuit clerk shall assess an additional fee of five[~~two~~] percent (5%)[~~(2%)~~] to defray the administrative costs of collection of payments or property. This fee shall be paid by the defendant and shall enure to a trust and agency account which shall not lapse and which shall be used to hire additional deputy clerks and office personnel or increase deputy clerk and office personnel salaries, or combination thereof[~~the general fund of the State Treasury~~];

(c)[~~(f)~~] When a defendant fails to make restitution ordered to be paid through the circuit clerk, the circuit clerk shall notify the court.[~~ The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the defendant is in contempt of the court or has violated the terms of his probation~~]; and

(d)[~~(g)~~] An order of restitution shall not preclude the owner of property or the victim who suffered personal physical or mental injury or out-of-pocket loss of earnings or support or other damages from proceeding in a civil action to recover damages from the defendant. A civil verdict shall be reduced by the amount paid under the criminal restitution order.

(4) In addition to any other terms and conditions imposed under this section, the court may require the probationer, as a condition of his probation, to make one (1) payment to a crime stoppers organization in an amount not to exceed the amount of the reward paid by a crime stoppers organization, as defined by KRS 431.570, relative to the probationer.

(5) When a defendant is sentenced to probation or conditional discharge, he shall be given a written statement explicitly setting forth the conditions under which he is being released.

(6) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court, in addition to conditions imposed under this section, may require as a condition of the sentence that the defendant submit to a period of imprisonment in the county jail or to a period of home incarceration at whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine. The time actually spent in confinement or home incarceration pursuant to this provision shall not exceed six (6) months or the maximum term of imprisonment assessed pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, whichever is the shorter. Time spent in confinement or home incarceration under this subsection shall be credited against the maximum term of imprisonment assessed for the defendant pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, if probation or conditional discharge is revoked and the defendant is sentenced to imprisonment. Any prohibitions against probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge under KRS 533.060(2), or 532.045 shall not apply to persons convicted of a misdemeanor or Class D felony and sentenced to a period of confinement or home incarceration under this section.

SECTION 71. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any person who was found guilty of a felony offense under KRS Chapter 218A, KRS 237.040, KRS Chapter 507, KRS Chapter 508, KRS Chapter 509, KRS Chapter 511, KRS Chapter 513, KRS 514.030 relating to a motor vehicle, KRS 514.100, KRS 525.020, KRS 525.030, KRS 527.040, KRS 527.070, and KRS 527.100, and who was wearing body armor at the time of the commission of the offense shall not be granted probation, shock probation, parole, conditional discharge, or any other form of early release.

Section 72. KRS 532.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence of imprisonment for a felony shall be an indeterminate sentence, the maximum of which shall be fixed within the limits provided by subsection (2), and subject to modification by the trial judge pursuant to KRS 532.070.

(2) The authorized maximum terms of imprisonment for felonies are:

(a) For a Class A felony, not less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years, or life imprisonment;

(b) For a Class B felony, not less than ten (10) years nor more than twenty (20) years;

(c) For a Class C felony, not less than five (5) years nor more than ten (10) years; and

(d) For a Class D felony, not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years.

(3) For any felony specified in KRS Chapter 510, KRS 530.020, 530.064, or 531.310 the sentence shall include an additional three (3) year period of conditional discharge which shall be added to the maximum sentence rendered for the offense. During this period of conditional discharge, if a defendant violates the provisions of conditional discharge, the defendant may be reincarcerated for:

(a) The remaining period of his initial sentence, if any is remaining; and

(b) The entire period of conditional discharge, or if the initial sentence has been served, for the remaining period of conditional discharge.

(4) The actual time of release within the maximum established by subsection (1), or as modified pursuant to KRS 532.070, shall be determined under procedures established elsewhere by law.

Section 73. KRS 532.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person is convicted of a capital offense he shall have his punishment fixed at death, or at a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or at a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until he has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, or to a sentence of life, or to a term of not less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years.

(2) When a person is convicted of a Class A felony he shall have his punishment fixed at imprisonment in accordance with KRS 532.060.

(3) When a person is convicted of an offense other than a capital offense or Class A felony, he shall have his punishment fixed at:

(a) A term of imprisonment authorized by this chapter; or

(b) A fine authorized by KRS Chapter 534; or

(c) Both imprisonment and a fine unless precluded by the provisions of KRS Chapter 534.

(4) In all cases in which the death penalty may be authorized the judge shall instruct the jury in accordance with subsection (1) of this section. The instructions shall state, subject to the aggravating and mitigating limitations and requirements of KRS 532.025, that the jury may recommend upon a conviction for a capital offense a sentence of death, or at a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or a term of imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, or a sentence of life, or to a term of not less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years.

Section 74. KRS 532.025 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Upon conviction of a defendant in cases where the death penalty may be imposed, a hearing shall be conducted. In such hearing, the judge shall hear additional evidence in extenuation, mitigation, and aggravation of punishment, including the record of any prior criminal convictions and pleas of guilty or pleas of nolo contendere of the defendant, or the absence of any prior conviction and pleas; provided, however, that only such evidence in aggravation as the state has made known to the defendant prior to his trial shall be admissible. Subject to the Kentucky Rules of Evidence, juvenile court records of adjudications of guilt of a child for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult shall be admissible in court at any time the child is tried as an adult, or after the child becomes an adult, at any subsequent criminal trial relating to that same person. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial; however, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense that would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Release of any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act is also prohibited. The judge shall also hear argument by the defendant or his counsel and the prosecuting attorney, as provided by law, regarding the punishment to be imposed. The prosecuting attorney shall open and the defendant shall conclude the argument. In cases in which the death penalty may be imposed, the judge when sitting without a jury shall follow the additional procedure provided in subsection (2) of this section. Upon the conclusion of the evidence and arguments, the judge shall impose the sentence or shall recess the trial for the purpose of taking the sentence within the limits prescribed by law. If the trial court is reversed on appeal because of error only in the presentence hearing, the new trial which may be ordered shall apply only to the issue of punishment;

(b) In all cases in which the death penalty may be imposed and which are tried by a jury, upon a return of a verdict of guilty by the jury, the court shall resume the trial and conduct a presentence hearing before the jury. Such hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as presentence hearings conducted before the judge as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, including the record of any prior criminal convictions and pleas of guilty or pleas of nolo contendere of the defendant. Upon the conclusion of the evidence and arguments, the judge shall give the jury appropriate instructions, and the jury shall retire to determine whether any mitigating or aggravating circumstances, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, exist and to recommend a sentence for the defendant. Upon the findings of the jury, the judge shall fix a sentence within the limits prescribed by law.

(2) In all cases of offenses for which the death penalty may be authorized, the judge shall consider, or he shall include in his instructions to the jury for it to consider, any mitigating circumstances or aggravating circumstances otherwise authorized by law and any of the following statutory aggravating or mitigating circumstances which may be supported by the evidence:

(a) Aggravating circumstances:

1. The offense of murder or kidnapping was committed by a person with a prior record of conviction for a capital offense, or the offense of murder was committed by a person who has a substantial history of serious assaultive criminal convictions;
2. The offense of murder or kidnapping was committed while the offender was engaged in the commission of arson in the first degree, robbery in the first degree, burglary in the first degree, rape in the first degree, or sodomy in the first degree;
3. The offender by his act of murder, armed robbery, or kidnapping knowingly created a great risk of death to more than one (1) person in a public place by means of a destructive device, weapon, or other device which would normally be hazardous to the lives of more than one (1) person;
4. The offender committed the offense of murder for himself or another, for the purpose of receiving money or any other thing of monetary value, or for other profit;
5. The offense of murder was committed by a person who was a prisoner and the victim was a prison employee engaged at the time of the act in the performance of his duties;
6. The offender's act or acts of killing were intentional and resulted in multiple deaths; and
7. The offender's act of killing was intentional and the victim was a state or local public official or police officer, sheriff, or deputy sheriff engaged at the time of the act in the lawful performance of his duties;

(b) Mitigating circumstances:

1. The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;
2. The capital offense was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance even though the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance is not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;
3. The victim was a participant in the defendant's criminal conduct or consented to the criminal act;
4. The capital offense was committed under circumstances which the defendant believed to provide a moral justification or extenuation for his conduct even though the circumstances which the defendant believed to provide a moral justification or extenuation for his conduct are not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;
5. The defendant was an accomplice in a capital offense committed by another person and his participation in the capital offense was relatively minor;
6. The defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person even though the duress or the domination of another person is not sufficient to constitute a defense to the crime;

7. At the time of the capital offense, the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct to the requirements of law was impaired as a result of mental illness or retardation or intoxication even though the impairment of the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform the conduct to the requirements of law is insufficient to constitute a defense to the crime; and

8. The youth of the defendant at the time of the crime.

(3) The instructions as determined by the trial judge to be warranted by the evidence or as required by KRS 532.030(4) shall be given in charge and in writing to the jury for its deliberation. The jury, if its verdict be a recommendation of death, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, shall designate in writing, signed by the foreman of the jury, the aggravating circumstance or circumstances which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. In nonjury cases, the judge shall make such designation. In all cases unless at least one (1) of the statutory aggravating circumstances enumerated in subsection (2) of this section is so found, the death penalty, or imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole, or the sentence to imprisonment for life without benefit of probation or parole until the defendant has served a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of his sentence, shall not be imposed.

Section 75. KRS 533.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a crime and who has not been sentenced to death may be sentenced to probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

(2) Before imposition of a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall consider[~~the possibility of~~] probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge. Unless the defendant is a violent felon as defined in KRS 439.3401 or a statute prohibits probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge, after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation[~~, probation with an alternative sentencing plan,~~] or conditional discharge shall[~~should~~] be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for protection of the public because:

(a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation[~~, probation with an alternative sentencing plan,~~] or conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(3) In the event the court determines that probation is not appropriate after due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime, and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation with an alternative sentencing plan shall be granted unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for the protection of the public because:

(a) There is a likelihood that during a period of probation with an alternative sentencing plan or conditional discharge the defendant will commit a Class D or Class C felony or a substantial risk that the defendant will commit a Class B or Class A felony;

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(4) The court shall not determine that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony based upon the fact that:

(a) The defendant has never been convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense;

(b) If convicted of, having pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony offense, the defendant successfully completed probation more than ten (10) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period; or

(c) The defendant has been released from incarceration for the commission of a felony offense more than ten (10) years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period.

(5) In making a determination under subsection (4) of this section, the court may determine that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that there is a likelihood that the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony.

(6) Upon initial sentencing of a defendant or upon modification or revocation of probation, when the court deems it in the best interest of the public and the defendant, the court may order probation with the defendant to serve one (1) of the following alternative sentences:

(a) To a halfway house for no more than twelve (12) months;

(b) To home incarceration with or without work release for no more than twelve (12) months;

(c) To jail for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months with or without work release and other programs as required by the court;

(d) To a residential treatment program for the abuse of alcohol or controlled substances; or

(e) To any other specified counseling program, rehabilitation or treatment program, or facility.

(7) If during the term of the alternative sentence the defendant fails to adhere to and complete the conditions of the alternative sentence, the court may modify the terms of the alternative sentence or may modify or revoke probation and alternative sentence, and commit the defendant to an institution.

(8) In addition to those conditions that the court may impose, the conditions of alternative sentence shall include the following and, if the court determines that the defendant cannot comply with them, then they shall not be made available:

(a) A defendant sentenced to a halfway house shall:

1. Be working or pursuing his or her education, or be enrolled in a full-time treatment program;

2. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime;

(b) A defendant sentenced to home incarceration shall:

1. Be employed by another person or self-employed at the time of sentencing to home incarceration and continue the employment throughout the period of home incarceration, unless the court determines that there is a compelling reason to allow home incarceration while the defendant is unemployed;

2. Pay restitution during the term of home incarceration;

3. Enter a treatment program, if appropriate;

4. Pay all or some portion of the cost of home incarceration as determined by the court;

5. Comply with other conditions as specified; and

6. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime;

(c) A defendant sentenced to jail with work release shall:

1. Pay restitution during all or some part of the defendant's term of probation;

2. Pay all or some portion of the cost of incarceration as determined by the court; and

3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime; or

(d) A defendant sentenced to a residential treatment program for drug and alcohol abuse shall:

1. Undergo mandatory drug screening during term of probation;

2. Be subject to active, supervised probation for a term of five (5) years;

3. Undergo aftercare as required by the treatment program;

4. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and

5. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime.

(9) When the court deems it in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the person to work at community service related projects under the terms and conditions specified in KRS 533.070. Work at community service related projects shall be considered as a form of conditional discharge.

(10) Probation with alternative sentence shall not be available as set out in KRS 532.045 and 533.060, except as provided in KRS 533.030(6).

(11) The court may utilize a community corrections program authorized or funded under KRS Chapter 196 to provide services to any person released under this section.

(12) When the court deems it in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the defendant to placement for probation monitoring by a private agency. The private agency shall report to the court on the defendant's compliance with his terms of probation or conditional discharge. The defendant shall be responsible for any reasonable charges which the private agency charges.

Section 76. KRS 532.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a term of imprisonment in the state~~[penitentiary or reformatory]~~ for:

(a) At least one (1) but not more than five (5) years shall be deemed a Class D felony;

(b) At least five (5) but not more than ten (10) years shall be deemed a Class C felony;

(c) At least ten (10) but not more than twenty (20) years shall be deemed a Class B felony;

(d) For at least twenty (20) but not~~[or]~~ more than fifty (50) years or for life shall be deemed a Class A felony.

(2) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a definite term of imprisonment with a maximum which falls between ninety (90) days and twelve (12) months shall be deemed a Class A misdemeanor.

(3) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a definite term of imprisonment with a maximum of less than ninety (90) days shall be deemed a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any offense defined outside this code for which a law outside this code provides a sentence to a fine only or to any other punishment, whether in combination with a fine or not, other than death or imprisonment shall be deemed a violation.

Section 77. KRS 532.050 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No court shall impose sentence for conviction of a felony, other than a capital offense, without first ordering a presentence investigation after conviction and giving due consideration to a written report of the investigation. The presentence investigation report shall not be waived; however, the completion of the presentence investigation report may be delayed until after sentencing upon the written request of the defendant if the defendant is in custody and is ineligible for probation or conditional discharge.

(2) The report shall be prepared and presented by a probation officer and shall include an analysis of the defendant's history of delinquency or criminality, physical and mental condition, family situation and background, economic status, education, occupation, personal habits, and any other matters that the court directs to be included.

(3) Before imposing sentence for a felony conviction, the court may order the defendant to submit to psychiatric observation and examination for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days. The defendant may be remanded for this purpose to any available clinic or mental hospital or the court may appoint a qualified psychiatrist to make the examination.

(4) If the defendant has been convicted of any felony offense under KRS Chapter 510, 530.020, 530.064, 531.310, any sexual offense under KRS 506.010 or 506.030, or any other felony offense committed in conjunction with a misdemeanor under KRS Chapter 510, the court shall, prior to determining the sentence, order an evaluation of the defendant to be conducted by the sexual offender treatment program operated or approved by the Department of Corrections or the Department for Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services. The evaluation shall provide to the court a recommendation related to the risk of a repeat offense by the defendant and the defendant's amenability to treatment, and shall be considered by the court in determining the appropriate sentence. A copy of the evaluation shall be furnished to the Commonwealth and to the defendant. If the defendant is eligible and the court suspends the sentence and places the defendant on probation or conditional discharge, the provisions of KRS 532.045(3) to (8) shall apply. All communications relative to the evaluation and treatment of the sex offender shall fall under the provisions of KRS 197.440 and shall not be made a part of the court record subject to review in appellate proceedings. The defendant shall pay for any evaluation or treatment required pursuant to this section up to the defendant's ability to pay but no more than the actual cost of the evaluation or treatment.

(5) The presentence investigation report shall identify the counseling treatment, educational, and rehabilitation needs of the defendant and identify community-based and correctional-institutional-based programs and resources available to meet those needs or shall identify the lack of programs and resources to meet those needs.

(6) Before imposing sentence, the court shall advise the defendant or his counsel of the factual contents and conclusions of any presentence investigation or psychiatric examinations and afford a fair opportunity and a reasonable period of time, if the defendant so requests, to controvert them. The court shall provide the defendant's counsel a copy of the presentence investigation report. It shall not be necessary to disclose the sources of confidential information.

Section 78. KRS 532.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a defendant is found to be a persistent felony offender, the jury, in lieu of the sentence of imprisonment assessed under KRS 532.060 for the crime of which such person presently stands convicted, shall fix a sentence of imprisonment as authorized by subsection (5) or (6) of this section. When a defendant is charged with being a persistent felony offender, the determination of whether or not he is such an offender and the punishment to be imposed pursuant to subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall be determined in a separate proceeding from that proceeding which resulted in his last conviction. Such proceeding shall be conducted before the court sitting with the jury that found the defendant guilty of his most recent offense unless the court for good cause discharges that jury and impanels a new jury for that purpose.

(2) A persistent felony offender in the second degree is a person who is more than twenty-one (21) years of age and who stands convicted of a felony after having been convicted of one (1) previous felony. As used in this provision, a previous felony conviction is a conviction of a felony in this state or conviction of a crime in any other jurisdiction provided:

(a) That a sentence to a term of imprisonment of one (1) year or more or a sentence to death was imposed therefor; and

(b) That the offender was over the age of eighteen (18) years at the time the offense was committed; and

(c) That the offender:

1. Completed service of the sentence imposed on the previous felony conviction within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

2. Was on probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, furlough, appeal bond, or any other form of legal release from any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

3. Was discharged from probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, or any other form of legal release on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

4. Was in custody from the previous felony conviction at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

5. Had escaped from custody while serving any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted.

(3) A persistent felony offender in the first degree is a person who is more than twenty-one (21) years of age and who stands convicted of a felony after having been convicted of two (2) or more felonies. As used in this provision, a previous felony conviction is a conviction of a felony in this state or conviction of a crime in any other jurisdiction provided:

(a) That a sentence to a term of imprisonment of one (1) year or more or a sentence to death was imposed therefor; and

(b) That the offender was over the age of eighteen (18) years at the time the offense was committed; and

(c) That the offender:

1. Completed service of the sentence imposed on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

2. Was on probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, furlough, appeal bond, or any other form of legal release from any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

3. Was discharged from probation, parole, conditional discharge, conditional release, or any other form of legal release on any of the previous felony convictions within five (5) years prior to the date of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

4. Was in custody from the previous felony conviction at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted; or

5. Had escaped from custody while serving any of the previous felony convictions at the time of commission of the felony for which he now stands convicted.

(4) For the purpose of determining whether a person has two (2) or more previous felony convictions, two (2) or more convictions of crime for which that person served concurrent or uninterrupted consecutive terms of imprisonment shall be deemed to be only one (1) conviction, unless one (1) of the convictions was for an offense committed while that person was imprisoned.

(5) A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the second degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment pursuant to the sentencing provisions of KRS 532.060(2) for the next highest degree than the offense for which convicted. A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the second degree shall not be eligible for probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge.

(6) A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to imprisonment as follows:

(a) If the offense for which he presently stands convicted is a Class A or Class B felony, a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment, the maximum of which shall not be less than twenty (20) years nor more than fifty (50) years, or life imprisonment; or

(b) If the offense for which he presently stands convicted is a Class C or Class D felony, a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall be sentenced to an indeterminate term of imprisonment, the maximum of which shall not be less than ten (10) years nor more than twenty (20) years.

(7) ~~[If the offense the person presently stands convicted of is a Class A, B, or C felony,]~~A person who is found to be a persistent felony offender in the first degree shall not be eligible for probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge, and if the offense the person presently stands convicted of is a Class A, B, or C felony, shall not be eligible~~[nor]~~ for parole until having served a minimum term of incarceration of not less than ten (10) years.

(8) No conviction, plea of guilty or Alford plea to a violation of KRS 218A.500 shall bring a defendant within the purview of or be used as a conviction eligible for making a person a persistent felony offender under this section.

(9) The provisions of this section amended by 1994 Ky. Acts ch. 396, sec. 11, shall be retroactive.

Section 79. KRS 439.3401 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "violent offender" means any person who has been convicted of or pled guilty to the commission of a capital offense, Class A felony, or Class B felony involving the death of the victim or serious physical injury to a victim, or rape in the first degree or sodomy in the first degree of the victim by forcible compulsion~~[, or serious physical injury to a victim]~~. The court shall designate in its judgment if the victim suffered death or serious physical injury, or, in the case of rape or sodomy, forcible compulsion.

(2) A violent offender who has been convicted of a capital offense and who has received a life sentence (and has not been sentenced to twenty-five (25) years without parole), or a Class A felony and receives a life sentence, or to death and his sentence is commuted to a life sentence shall not be released on parole until he has served at least twenty (20)~~[twelve (12)]~~ years in the penitentiary. Violent offenders may have a greater minimum parole eligibility date than other offenders who receive longer sentences, including a sentence of life imprisonment.

(3) A violent offender who has been convicted of a capital offense or Class A felony with a sentence of a term of years or Class B felony who is a violent offender shall not be released on parole until he has served at least eighty-five percent (85%)~~[fifty percent (50%)]~~ of the sentence imposed.

(4) A violent offender may not be awarded any credit on his sentence authorized by KRS 197.045(1), except the educational credit. A violent offender may, at the discretion of the commissioner, receive credit on his sentence authorized by KRS 197.045(3). In no event shall a violent offender be given credit on his sentence if the credit reduces the term of imprisonment to less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the sentence.

(5) This section shall not apply to a person who has been determined by a court to have been a victim of domestic violence or abuse pursuant to KRS 533.060 with regard to the offenses involving the death of the victim or serious physical injury to the victim. The provisions of this subsection shall not extend to rape in the first degree or sodomy in the first degree by the defendant.

(6)~~[(5)]~~ This section shall apply only to those persons who commit offenses after July 15, 1998~~[1986]~~.

Section 80. KRS 439.3405 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any statute eliminating parole or establishing minimum time for parole eligibility for a certain class or status of offender, including KRS 439.340(10), 439.3401, 532.080(7), and 533.060, the board, with the written consent of a majority of the full board, may review the case of any prisoner and release that prisoner on parole despite any elimination of or minimum time for parole eligibility, when the prisoner has a documented terminal medical condition likely to result in death within one (1) year or severe chronic lung disease, end-stage heart disease, severe neuro-muscular disease such as multiple sclerosis; or has severely limited mobility due to paralysis as a result of stroke or trauma; or is dependent on external life support systems and would not pose a threat to society if paroled.

(2) Medical information considered under this section shall be limited to the medical findings supplied by Department of Corrections medical staff. The medical staff shall provide in writing the prisoner's diagnosis and prognosis in support of the conclusion that the prisoner suffers from a terminal medical condition likely to result in death within one (1) year or because of the conditions set forth in subsection (1) of this section he is totally dependent on others for the activities of daily living.

(3) The medical information prepared by the Department of Corrections medical staff under this section shall be forwarded to the warden of the institution who shall submit that information and a recommendation for or against parole review under this section to the commissioner of the Department of Corrections or his designee. With the approval of the commissioner of the Department of Corrections, a request for parole review under this section, along with the medical information and warden's recommendation, shall be submitted to the board.

(4) Medical information presented under this section shall be considered along with other information relevant to a decision regarding the granting of parole and shall not constitute the only reason for granting parole.

(4) If the court voids the pretrial diversion agreement, the court shall notify the applicable prosecutor, in writing, that the pretrial diversion agreement has been voided and the reasons for the action. The prosecutor shall decide whether or not the defendant should be tried and for what charges. If the decision is made to try the defendant the court shall order the defendant to stand trial. The defendant may be arrested and jailed pending pretrial release. The order voiding the pretrial diversion agreement is subject to appeal in the same manner as any probation revocation under the statutes and the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(2) If the person is certified, the council shall continue certified status.

(3) If the person is on inactive status, the council shall upgrade to certified status unless the certification is revoked as provided by Sections 101 to 112 of this Act.

(4) If the person is not certified and not on inactive status, the council shall designate the person as being in precertification status.

(5) A person who is in precertification status shall, upon successful completion of the required basic training, be certified unless he has committed an act that would result in revocation of his certificate in which case he shall be denied certification.

(6) A person who is denied certified status under this section shall have the same right of appeal as a person who has been revoked under Sections 101 to 112 of this Act.

(7) If the certified officer has successfully completed the basic training required by KRS 95.955 and transfers from a peace officer position from a current employer to a peace officer position for another employer, and both employers have, at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective date of the transfer, notified the council in writing of the transfer, the council shall maintain the officer in certified status.

Section 113. KRS 532.055 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In all felony cases, the jury in its initial verdict will make a determination of not guilty, guilty, guilty but mentally ill, or not guilty by virtue of insanity, and no more.

(2) Upon return of a verdict of guilty or guilty but mentally ill against a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing before the jury, if such case was tried before a jury. In the hearing the jury will determine the punishment to be imposed within the range provided elsewhere by law. The jury shall recommend whether the sentences shall be served concurrently or consecutively.

- (a) Evidence may be offered by the Commonwealth relevant to sentencing including:
  1. Minimum parole eligibility, prior convictions of the defendant, both felony and misdemeanor;
  2. The nature of prior offenses for which he was convicted;
  3. The date of the commission, date of sentencing, and date of release from confinement or supervision from all prior offenses;
  4. The maximum expiration of sentence as determined by the division of probation and parole for all such current and prior offenses;
  5. The defendant's status if on probation, parole, conditional discharge, or any other form of legal release;[~~and~~]
  6. Juvenile court records of adjudications of guilt of a child for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult. Subject to the Kentucky Rules of Evidence, these records shall be admissible in court at any time the child is tried as an adult, or after the child becomes an adult, at any subsequent criminal trial relating to that same person. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial, and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial; however, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense that would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication. Release of the child's treatment, medical, mental, or psychological records is prohibited unless presented as evidence in Circuit Court. Release of any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or Title IV-B of the federal Social Security Act is also prohibited; and

7. The impact of the crime upon the victim, as defined in KRS 421.500, including a description of the nature and extent of any physical, psychological, or financial harm suffered by the victim;

(b) The defendant may introduce evidence in mitigation. For purposes of this section, mitigating evidence means evidence that the accused has no significant history of criminal activity which may qualify him for leniency. This section shall not preclude the introduction of evidence which negates any evidence introduced by the Commonwealth; and

(c) Upon conclusion of the proof, the court shall instruct the jury on the range of punishment and counsel for the defendant may present arguments followed by the counsel for the Commonwealth. The jury shall then retire and recommend a sentence for the defendant.

(3) All hearings held pursuant to this section shall be combined with any hearing provided for by KRS 532.080. This section shall not apply to sentencing hearings provided for in KRS 532.025.

(4) In the event that the jury is unable to agree as to the sentence or any portion thereof and so reports to the judge, the judge shall impose the sentence within the range provided elsewhere by law.

Section 114. KRS 439.315 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A person placed by a releasing authority on probation, parole, or other form of release subject to supervision by the Department of Corrections and all persons supervised pursuant to KRS 439.560 shall pay a fee to offset the costs of supervising the probation, parole, or other supervised release.

(2) The fees shall be as follows:

(a) For a felony, not less than ten dollars ($10) per month while on active supervision nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per year.

(b) For a misdemeanor, not less than ten dollars ($10) per month while on active supervision nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) per year, except as provided in subsection (13) of this section.

(3) The releasing authority shall order the fee paid in a lump sum or installments. If the fee is to be paid in a lump sum, the person shall not be released from custody until the fee is paid in full.

(4) Upon the failure of a person to pay an installment on a fee set forth in a release agreement, the releasing authority shall hold a hearing to determine why the installment has not been paid. Failure without good cause to pay an installment pursuant to a release agreement shall be grounds for the revocation of probation, parole, conditional release, or other form of release upon which the person has been released as provided in KRS 533.050.

(5) The releasing authority shall hold a hearing to determine the ability of the defendant to make the payments; and in making this determination, the releasing authority shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution. In counties containing a city of the first class or an urban-county form of government, the releasing authority may waive the payment of the fee in whole or in part for defendants placed under the supervision of the adult misdemeanant probation and work release program, if it finds that any of the factors in subsection (6) of this section exist.

(6) The releasing authority shall not waive any fee unless the commissioner of the Department of Corrections or his designee petitions the releasing authority in written form for the waiver. The Department of Corrections shall not petition unless:

(a) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment. Certification of student status shall be supplied to the releasing authority by the educational institution in which the offender is enrolled. In such case, the fee may be postponed until completion of education but shall be paid thereafter.

(b) The offender has an employment disability, as determined by a physical, psychological, or psychiatric examination acceptable to, or ordered by, the releasing authority.

(7) At any time during the pendency of the judgment or order rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant may petition the releasing authority to modify or vacate its previous judgment or order on the grounds of change of circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the fee. The releasing authority shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of the rendering of the judgment or order placing the defendant on probation, parole, or other supervised release.

(8) All sums paid by the defendant pursuant to this section shall be paid into the general fund, except as provided in subsection (13) of this section.

(9) When granting a release of any defendant by way of probation, parole, or otherwise, the releasing authority shall make the payment of this fee a condition of release, unless the fee has been waived, reduced, or delayed as provided in this section. Nonpayment shall be grounds for revocation of the release as provided in KRS 533.050.

(10) The releasing authority, if the Department of Corrections petitions the releasing authority to modify the fee, shall consider the petition and may waive the payment of the fee in whole or in part, delay payment of the fee, increase the fee, or deny the petition.

(11) All fees fixed under the provisions of this section shall be collected by the circuit clerk of the county where the defendant is supervised, except as provided in subsection (13) of this section.

(12) The Department of Corrections and the Division of Probation and Parole shall, for each person released under its supervision, keep an account of all payments made and report delinquencies to the releasing authority.

(13) In counties containing a city of the first class or an urban-county form of government, persons placed by a releasing authority on probation, parole, or other release subject to supervision by the adult misdemeanant probation and work release program of the county containing a city of the first class or urban-county government shall pay a fee to offset the costs of supervising the probation, parole, or other supervised release. The fees shall be assessed by the releasing authority in accordance with the provisions of this section. The fee for a misdemeanant defendant placed under the supervision of an adult misdemeanant probation and work release program of a county containing a city of the first class or an urban-county government shall be not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) per year. All sums paid by the defendant under this subsection shall be paid into the general fund of the county containing a city of the first class or urban-county government in lieu of the payment specified in subsection (8) of this section. All fees fixed under this subsection shall be collected by the circuit clerk of the county containing a city of the first class or urban-county involved. The adult misdemeanant probation and work release program of the county containing a city of the first class or urban-county government shall, for each person released under its supervision, keep an account of all payments made, maintain copies of all receipts issued by the circuit clerk, and report delinquencies to the court.

(c) Recipients shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service for each semester or summer term of scholarship received, except that recipients who teach in a critical shortage area designated by the authority shall render one (1) semester of qualified teaching service as repayment for two (2) semesters or summer terms of scholarships received. (a) Statewide student discipline guidelines to ensure safe schools; and

(b) Recommendations designed to improve the learning environment, student achievement, and to reduce the dropout rate in the state's public schools.

(2) The department shall obtain statewide data on major discipline problems and reasons why students drop out of school. In addition, the department, in collaboration with the Center for School Safety, shall identify successful strategies currently being used[~~ successfully~~] in programs in Kentucky and in other states and shall incorporate those strategies[~~be incorporated~~] into the statewide guidelines and the recommendations to improve the learning environment and to reduce dropouts.

(3) Copies of the discipline guidelines shall be distributed to all school districts. The statewide guidelines shall contain broad principles to guide local districts in developing their own discipline code and school councils in the selection of discipline and classroom management techniques under Section 12 of this Act; and in the development of the district-wide safety plan[~~. The local code shall be distributed to all students and parents in the district and shall be available for inspection~~].

(4) Each local board of education shall be responsible for formulating a code of acceptable behavior and discipline to apply to the students in each school operated by the board.

(a) The superintendent, or designee, shall be responsible for overall implementation and supervision, and each school principal shall be responsible for administration and implementation within each school. Each school council shall select and implement the appropriate discipline and classroom management techniques necessary to carry out the code. The board shall establish a process for a two-way communication system for teachers and other employees to notify a principal, supervisor, or other administrator of an existing emergency.

(c) The principal of each school shall apply the code of behavior and discipline uniformly and fairly to each student at the school without partiality or discrimination.

(d) A copy of the code of behavior and discipline adopted by the board of education shall be posted at each school. Guidance counselors shall be provided copies for discussion with students. The code shall be referenced in all school handbooks. All school employees and parents shall be provided copies of the code.

(5) The Department of Education with assistance from the Center for School Safety shall[~~ first~~] provide technical assistance to those districts requesting assistance with dropout prevention strategies[~~reporting the greatest number of dropouts~~]. Reporting requirements shall be established by the Department of Education; however, reports shall be prepared in a manner that will provide data on successful strategies for dropout prevention.

(6)[~~(5)~~] The Kentucky Board of Education shall establish criteria for the development of dropout prevention programs and award grants based upon available appropriations from the General Assembly[~~for up to twenty (20) school districts in which:~~

~~(a) The percentage of students dropping out of school is among the highest twenty-five (25) districts in the state; and~~

~~(b) More than one hundred (100) students drop out of schools each year~~]. These grants shall be administered through contracts whereby school districts agree to provide dropout prevention services specified by the Kentucky Board of Education.[~~ In addition, the Kentucky Board of Education shall have the authority to award up to twenty (20) grants to school districts having high dropout rates but fewer than one hundred (100) dropouts per year. The Kentucky Board of Education shall develop grant funding criteria based upon available appropriations.~~]

Section 11. KRS 158.150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All pupils admitted to the common schools shall comply with the lawful regulations for the government of the schools:

(a) Willful disobedience or defiance of the authority of the teachers or administrators, use of profanity or vulgarity, assault or battery or abuse of other students, the threat of force or violence, the use or possession of alcohol or drugs, stealing or destruction or defacing of school property or personal property of students, the carrying or use of weapons or dangerous instruments, or other incorrigible bad conduct on school property, as well as off school property at school-sponsored activities, constitutes cause for suspension or expulsion from school; and

(b) Assault or battery or abuse of school personnel; stealing or willfully or wantonly defacing, destroying, or damaging the personal property of school personnel on school property, off school property, or at school-sponsored activities constitutes cause for suspension or expulsion from school.

(2) Each local board of education shall adopt a policy requiring the expulsion from school for a period of not less than one (1) year for a student who is determined by the board to have brought a weapon to a school under its[~~the~~] jurisdiction. The board shall also adopt a policy requiring disciplinary actions, up to and including expulsion from school, for a student who is determined by the board to have possessed prescription drugs or controlled substances for the purpose of sale or distribution at a school under the board's jurisdiction, or to have physically assaulted or battered or abused educational personnel or other students at a school or school function under the board's jurisdiction.[~~of the local board of education, except that~~] The[~~ local~~] board[~~ of education~~] may modify the expulsion requirement for students on a case-by-case basis. A[~~ local~~] board[~~ of education~~] that has expelled a student from the student's regular school setting shall[~~may~~] provide or assure that educational services are provided to the student in an appropriate alternative program or setting. Other intervention services as indicated for each student may be provided by the board or by agreement with the appropriate state or community agency. A state agency that provides the service shall be responsible for the cost. In determining whether a student has brought a weapon to school, a local board of education shall use the definition of "unlawful possession of a weapon on school property" stated in KRS 527.070.

(3) School administrators, teachers, or other school personnel may immediately remove threatening or violent students from a classroom setting or from the district transportation system.

(4) A pupil shall not be suspended from the common schools until after at least the following due process procedures have been provided:

(a) The pupil has been given oral or written notice of the charge or charges against him which constitute cause for suspension;

(b) The pupil has been given an explanation of the evidence of the charge or charges if the pupil denies them; and

(c) The pupil has been given an opportunity to present his own version of the facts relating to the charge or charges.

These due process procedures shall precede any suspension from the common schools unless immediate suspension is essential to protect persons or property or to avoid disruption of the ongoing academic process. In such cases, the due process procedures outlined above shall follow the suspension as soon as practicable, but no later than three (3) school days after the suspension.

(5)~~[(4)]~~ The superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or head teacher of any school may suspend a pupil but shall report the action in writing immediately to the superintendent and to the parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody or control of the pupil. The board of education of any school district may expel any pupil for misconduct as defined in subsection (1) of this section, but the action shall not be taken until the parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody or control of the pupil has had an opportunity to have a hearing before the board. The decision of the board shall be final.

(6)~~[(5)]~~ (a) Suspension of exceptional children, as defined in KRS 157.200, for more than a total of ten (10) days during a school year shall constitute a change of educational placement. The admissions and release committee shall meet to review the placement and make a recommendation for continued placement or a change in placement and determine whether regular suspension or expulsion procedures apply. Additional evaluations shall be completed, if necessary.

(b) If the admissions and release committee determines that an exceptional child's behavior is related to his disability, the child shall not be suspended any further or expelled unless the current placement could result in injury to the child, other children, or the educational personnel, in which case an appropriate alternative placement shall be provided that will provide for the child's educational needs and will provide a safe learning and teaching environment for all. If the admissions and release committee determines that the behavior is not related to the disability, the local educational agency may pursue its regular suspension or expulsion procedure for the child, if the behavior so warrants. However, educational services shall not be terminated during a period of expulsion. A district may seek temporary injunctive relief through the courts if the parent and the other members of the admissions and release committee cannot agree upon a placement and the current placement will likely result in injury to the student or others.

(7) Suspension of primary school students shall be considered only in exceptional cases where there are safety issues for the child or others.

The policy may include a requirement that each school council make an annual report at a public meeting of the board describing the school's progress in meeting the educational goals set forth in KRS 158.6451 and district goals established by the board. The policy shall also address and comply with the following:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b)2. of this subsection, each participating school shall form a school council composed of two (2) parents, three (3) teachers, and the principal or administrator. The membership of the council may be increased, but it may only be increased proportionately. The teacher representatives shall be Kentucky residents. The principal or head teacher shall be the chair of the school council.

2. School councils in schools having eight percent (8%) or more minority students enrolled, as determined by the enrollment on the preceding October 1, shall have at least one (1) minority member. If the council formed under paragraph (a) of this subsection does not have a minority member, the principal, in a timely manner, shall be responsible for carrying out the following:

a. Organizing a special election to elect an additional member. The principal shall call for nominations and shall notify the parents of the students of the date, time, and location of the election to elect a minority parent to the council by ballot; and

b. Allowing the teachers in the building to select one (1) minority teacher to serve as a teacher member on the council. If there are no minority teachers who are members of the faculty, an additional teacher member shall be elected by a majority of all teachers. (5) After July 13, 1990, any school in which two-thirds (2/3) of the faculty vote to implement school-based decision making shall do so. By June 30, 1991, each local board shall submit to the chief state school officer the name of at least one (1) school which shall implement school-based decision making the following school year. The board shall select a school in which two-thirds (2/3) of the faculty vote to implement school-based decision making. If no school in the district votes to implement school-based decision making, the local board shall designate one (1) school of its choice. All schools shall implement school-based decision making by July 1, 1996, in accordance with this section and with the policy adopted by the local board pursuant to this section. Upon favorable vote of a majority of the faculty at the school and a majority of at least twenty-five (25) voting parents of students enrolled in the school, a school performing above its threshold level requirement as determined by the Department of Education pursuant to KRS 158.6455 may apply to the Kentucky Board of Education for exemption from the requirement to implement school-based decision making, and the state board shall grant the exemption. The voting by the parents on the matter of exemption from implementing school-based decision making shall be in an election conducted by the parent and teacher organization of the school or, if none exists, the largest organization of parents formed for this purpose. School council members elected to fill a vacancy shall complete the applicable training within thirty (30) days of their election.

(7) A school that chooses to have school-based decision making but would like to be exempt from the administrative structure set forth by this section may develop a model for implementing school-based decision making including, but not limited to, a description of the membership, organization, duties, and responsibilities of a school council. The school shall submit the model through the local board of education to the chief state school officer and the Kentucky Board of Education, which shall have final authority for approval. The application for approval of the model shall show evidence that it has been developed by representatives of the parents, students, certified personnel, and the administrators of the school and that two-thirds (2/3) of the faculty have agreed to the model.

(8) The Kentucky Board of Education, upon recommendation of the chief state school officer, shall adopt by administrative regulation a formula by which school district funds shall be allocated to each school council. Included in the school council formula shall be an allocation for professional development that is at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the district's per pupil state allocation for professional development for each student in average daily attendance in the school. The school council shall plan professional development with the district's coordinator and other school councils. Small schools shall be encouraged to work with other school councils to maximize professional development opportunities.

(9) (a) No board member, superintendent of schools, district employee, or member of a school council shall intentionally engage in a pattern of practice which is detrimental to the successful implementation of or circumvents the intent of school-based decision making to allow the professional staff members of a school and parents to be involved in the decision making process in working toward meeting the educational goals established in KRS 158.645 and 158.6451 or to make decisions in areas of policy assigned to a school council pursuant to paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of this section.

(b) An affected party who believes a violation of this subsection has occurred may file a written complaint with the Office of Education Accountability. The office shall investigate the complaint and resolve the conflict, if possible, or forward the matter to the Kentucky Board of Education.

(d) If the state board determines a violation has occurred, the party shall be subject to reprimand. A second violation of this subsection may be grounds for removing a superintendent, a member of a school council, or school board member from office or grounds for dismissal of an employee for misconduct in office or willful neglect of duty.

Section 13. KRS 610.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A special record book shall be kept by the court for all cases, to be known as the "juvenile record," and the docket or calendar of such cases shall be called the "juvenile docket."

(2) No probation officer, nor employee of a probation officer, shall, without the consent of the District Judge sitting in juvenile session, divulge or communicate to any persons other than the court, an officer of the court interested in the case, a member of the advisory board of the court, or a representative of the cabinet, any information obtained pursuant to the discharge of his duties, nor shall any record of the action of the probation officer be made public except by leave of the District Judge; provided, that nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the probation officer from divulging or communicating such information to the court, to his colleagues or superiors in his own department, or to another probation officer having a direct interest in the record or social history of the child.

(3) All law enforcement and court records regarding children who have not reached their eighteenth birthday shall not be opened to scrutiny by the public, except court records, limited to the petition, order of the adjudication, and disposition in juvenile delinquency proceedings concerning a child who is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for the commission of an offense that would constitute a capital offense or a Class A, B, or C felony if the juvenile were an adult, or any offense involving a deadly weapon, or an offense wherein a deadly weapon is used or displayed. Juvenile court records made available pursuant to this section may be used for impeachment purposes during a criminal trial, and may be used during the sentencing phase of a criminal trial. However, the fact that a juvenile has been adjudicated delinquent of an offense which would be a felony if the child had been an adult shall not be used in finding the child to be a persistent felony offender based upon that adjudication.

(5) This section shall not relieve the probation officer or peace officer from divulging such facts as a witness in a trial or hearing involving any cases falling under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or the production of juvenile records for use in the trial or proceedings.

(6) This section shall not prohibit release of information regarding juvenile proceedings in the District Court which do not reveal the identity of the child or its parents or guardians, or which relate to the child's eligibility for services under Title IV-E or IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act. Juvenile court records which contain information pertaining to arrests, petitions, adjudications, and dispositions of a child may be disclosed to victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070. Any records resulting from the child's prior abuse and neglect under Title IV-E or Title IV-B of the Federal Social Security Act shall not be disclosed to victims or other persons authorized to attend a juvenile court hearing pursuant to KRS 610.070.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to public officers or employees engaged in the prosecution of cases under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or other portions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes provided that the inspection of the records and the disclosure of the information contained therein is limited to that required in the investigation and the prosecution of the case.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to employees of the cabinet or its designees responsible for any services under KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or to attorneys for parties involved in actions relating to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 or other prosecutions authorized by the Kentucky Revised Statutes provided that the inspection of the records and the disclosure of the information contained therein is limited to that required in the investigation and the representation of the client in the case.

(7) No person, including school personnel, not authorized to obtain records pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 shall obtain or attempt to obtain records which are made confidential pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645 except upon proper motion to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(9) As used in this section the term "KRS Chapters 600 to 645" includes any administrative regulations which are lawfully promulgated pursuant to KRS Chapters 600 to 645.

(1) A water district shall be administered by a board of commissioners which shall control and manage the affairs of the district. The term of each commissioner is four (4) years, except as provided in this section:

(a) If a district lies wholly within a single county, or operates as a single-county district, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board of commissioners shall be composed of either three (3) or five (5) members as the county judge/executive shall determine. Members of the board shall be residents of the district, or of any incorporated or unincorporated area served by the district in the county in which the district was originally established, who shall be appointed by the county judge/executive with the approval of the fiscal court. If two (2) or more water districts within a single county merge as described in KRS 74.361, the county judge/executive may appoint up to two (2) additional commissioners with the approval of the fiscal court. Initial appointments shall be for terms of two (2), three (3), and four (4) years, as designated by the court.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county, as provided by KRS 74.115, the board of commissioners shall be appointed by the county judges/executive with the approval of the fiscal courts of the concerned counties as follows: in two (2) county districts, three (3) members from the original district and two (2) members from the extended portion of the district; for extensions into three (3) or more counties, the respective county judges/executive, with the approval of the fiscal courts, shall appoint, in addition to the existing membership of the commission, two (2) members from the original one-county district and two (2) members from the newly extended portion of the district. Orders establishing the extension shall provide for the staggering of initial terms in an equitable manner.

(c) If a single-county district administered as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection[~~hereof~~] shall acquire an existing water or gas distribution system serving an area which extends beyond the boundaries of the district into another county, or if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county as provided by KRS 74.115, it may operate the distribution system so acquired, or extended, if the area served outside the county shall be deemed to be a minor portion of the total area served by the district, and if the fiscal court of the county containing the minor portion of the total area shall have agreed to the acquisition or to the extension of the distribution system. If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total assets of the distribution system are located within the county outside of the boundaries of the district, it shall be conclusively presumed that the district comes within the terms of this subsection.

(2) A commissioner may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(3) A commissioner who participates in any official action by the water district board of commissioners which results in a direct financial benefit to him may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(4) Vacancies shall be filled by the same appointing authority which is empowered to make the original appointment. Vacancies resulting from cause other than expiration of the term shall be filled for the unexpired term only. In fixing and approving the salary of the commissioners, the county judge/executive and the fiscal court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the district and its ability to meet its obligations as they mature.

(7) Each commissioner shall successfully complete six (6) clock hours of water district management training annually. The training shall be approved and paid for by the fiscal court of the county in which the Commissioner resides.

(8) Each commissioner shall be eligible for the disability, health maintenance organization coverage, or hospitalization benefits provided under KRS 79.080 to county employees in the county in which the commissioner resides, or which may be available to water district employees.

(3) Each appointment to the board of commissioners of the resulting district shall be made by the appropriate county judge/executive with the approval of the fiscal court. Each member of the board shall be a resident of the county from which he or she is appointed. The initial terms of the board of commissioners after the merger shall be as follows: approximately one-third (1/3) of the commissioners shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years; approximately one-third (1/3) of the commissioners shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years; and the remaining commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years. Thereafter, all commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years.

The provisions of sections (2) to (8)[~~(6)~~] of KRS 74.020 shall apply to all commissioners and vacancies on the board of commissioners.

(4) The resulting district shall have all the assets and legal liabilities of the water districts joining in the merger. Bonded obligations of any district secured by the right to levy an assessment as provided by KRS 74.130 through 74.230 or secured by the revenue of the systems operated by the district shall continue to be retired or a sinking fund for such purpose created from the tax assessments or revenue from the system operated by the district from funds collected over the same area by the new board of commissioners in accordance with the laws under which the bonds were issued until all bonded obligations of the old district have been retired.

(1) A water district shall be administered by a board of commissioners which shall control and manage the affairs of the district. The term of each commissioner is four (4) years, except as provided in this section:

(a) If a district lies wholly within a single county, or operates as a single-county district, as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the board of commissioners shall be composed of either three (3) or five (5) members as the county judge/executive shall determine. Members of the board shall be residents of the district, or of any incorporated or unincorporated area served by the district in the county in which the district was originally established, who shall be appointed by the county judge/executive with the approval of the fiscal court. If two (2) or more water districts within a single county merge as described in KRS 74.361, the county judge/executive may appoint up to two (2) additional commissioners with the approval of the fiscal court. Initial appointments shall be for terms of two (2), three (3), and four (4) years, as designated by the court.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county, as provided by KRS 74.115, the board of commissioners shall be appointed by the county judges/executive with the approval of the fiscal courts of the concerned counties as follows: in two (2) county districts, three (3) members from the original district and two (2) members from the extended portion of the district; for extensions into three (3) or more counties, the respective county judges/executive, with the approval of the fiscal courts, shall appoint, in addition to the existing membership of the commission, two (2) members from the original one-county district and two (2) members from the newly extended portion of the district. Orders establishing the extension shall provide for the staggering of initial terms in an equitable manner.

(c) If a single-county district administered as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection[~~hereof~~] shall acquire an existing water or gas distribution system serving an area which extends beyond the boundaries of the district into another county, or if a district formed in a single county extends its area to include territory in an adjacent county as provided by KRS 74.115, it may operate the distribution system so acquired, or extended, if the area served outside the county shall be deemed to be a minor portion of the total area served by the district, and if the fiscal court of the county containing the minor portion of the total area shall have agreed to the acquisition or to the extension of the distribution system. If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total assets of the distribution system are located within the county outside of the boundaries of the district, it shall be conclusively presumed that the district comes within the terms of this subsection.

(2) A commissioner may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(3) A commissioner who participates in any official action by the water district board of commissioners which results in a direct financial benefit to him may be removed from office as provided by KRS 65.007.

(4) Vacancies shall be filled by the same appointing authority which is empowered to make the original appointment. Vacancies resulting from cause other than expiration of the term shall be filled for the unexpired term only. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 67.710, a vacancy resulting from the expiration of a term shall be filled by the Public Service Commission if, within ninety (90) days following the expiration of the term, the vacancy has not been filled by the appropriate county judge/executive with approval of the fiscal court.

(5) The commission shall elect a chairman, secretary, and treasurer. Each commissioner shall execute a bond, approved by the county judge/executive, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his position.

(6) Each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of not more than thirty-six hundred dollars ($3600), which shall be paid out of the water district fund except that beginning January 1, 1999, each commissioner who completes during an educational year a minimum of six (6) instructional hours of water district management training approved by the Public Service Commission may receive an annual salary of not more than six thousand dollars ($6,000) to be paid out of the water district fund. An educational year shall begin on January 1 and end on the following December 31. In the case of single-county districts, which shall be deemed to include districts described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the salary shall be fixed by the county judges/executive with the approval of the fiscal court; in multicounty districts, it shall be fixed by the agreement between the county judges/executive with the approval of their fiscal courts. In fixing and approving the salary of the commissioners, the county judge/executive and the fiscal court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the district and its ability to meet its obligations as they mature.

(7) (a) In order to receive an increase in salary as specified in subsection (6) of this section, commissioners shall successfully complete six (6) instructional hours of water district management training annually. The training shall be approved and paid for by the water district of the county the commissioner represents. Those commissioners not required to complete the six (6) instructional hours shall be reimbursed for the cost of instruction if they choose to complete the water district training.

(b) The Public Service Commission shall be responsible for the regulation of all water district management training programs for commissioners of water districts, combined water, gas, or sewer districts, or water commissions.

(c) The Public Service Commission shall encourage and promote the offering of high quality water district management training programs that enhance a water district commissioner's understanding of his or her responsibilities and duties. The commission shall, no later than January 1, 1999, establish standards and procedures to evaluate, accredit, and approve water district management training programs.

(d) The Public Service Commission may promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A to implement this section.

(8) A water district that provides health care and pension fund benefits to its water district employees may provide the same health care and pension fund benefits to its water district commissioners. These health care benefits for water district commissioners shall be paid for by the water district.

Section 2. KRS 74.363 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Boards of commissioners of any two (2) or more water districts may by concurrent action and by approval of a majority of the membership of the board of each merge their districts into one (1).

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in KRS 74.361(7), in case of a merger under this section, the members of the boards of commissioners of the merged water districts shall serve as members of the board of commissioners of the resulting district, regardless of their normal term expiration, until one (1) year after approval of the merger by the Public Service Commission. Thereafter, the board shall be composed as follows:

(a) If the boundaries of the resulting district lie wholly within a single county, the board of commissioners shall be composed of between three (3) and seven (7) members as the county judge/executive shall determine.

(b) If the boundaries of the resulting district lie within two (2) or more counties, the board of commissioners shall be composed of six (6) or more members as follows: four (4) members shall be appointed by the county judge/executive of the county in which the greatest portion of the population of the district resides; two (2) members shall be appointed by the county judge/executive of the county in which the next greatest portion of the population of the district resides; and one (1) member shall be appointed by the county judge/executive of each remaining county in which a portion of the population of the district resides.

(3) Each appointment to the board of commissioners of the resulting district shall be made by the appropriate county judge/executive with the approval of the fiscal court. Each member of the board shall be a resident of the county from which he or she is appointed. The initial terms of the board of commissioners after the merger shall be as follows: approximately one-third (1/3) of the commissioners shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years; approximately one-third (1/3) of the commissioners shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years; and the remaining commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years. Thereafter, all commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years. The provisions of sections (2) to (8)[~~(6)~~] of KRS 74.020 shall apply to all commissioners and vacancies on the board of commissioners.

(4) The resulting district shall have all the assets and legal liabilities of the water districts joining in the merger. The separate existences of the water districts joining in the merger, except the resulting district, shall cease, and the title to all real estate and other property owned by the water districts joining in the merger shall be vested in the resulting district without reversion or impairment. Bonded obligations of any district secured by the right to levy an assessment as provided by KRS 74.130 through 74.230 or secured by the revenue of the systems operated by the district shall continue to be retired or a sinking fund for such purpose created from the tax assessments or revenue from the system operated by the district from funds collected over the same area by the new board of commissioners in accordance with the laws under which the bonds were issued until all bonded obligations of the old district have been retired.

HB 168, AN ACT relating to cellular telecommunications facilities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 100 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In addition to the definitions set forth in KRS 100.111, the following definitions shall apply to Sections 1 to 2 and Section 4 of this Act:

(1) "Cellular antenna tower" means a tower constructed for, or an existing facility that has been adapted for, the location of transmission or related equipment to be used in the provision of cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services;

(2) "Cellular telecommunications service" means a retail telecommunications service that uses radio signals transmitted through cell sites and mobile switching stations;

(3) "Co-location" means locating two (2) or more transmission antennas or related equipment on the same cellular antenna tower;

(4) "Personal communication service" means as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 332(c); and

(5) "Utility" is defined in KRS 278.010(3).

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 100 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A planning unit and legislative body or fiscal court may plan for and regulate the siting of cellular antenna towers in accordance with locally adopted planning or zoning regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 100.

(2) Every utility that proposes to construct an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services within the jurisdiction of a planning unit that has adopted planning or zoning regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 100 shall:

(a) Submit a proposal to the planning commission of the affected planning unit to construct an antenna tower for cellular or personal telecommunications services prior to applying to the Public Service Commission for a certificate of necessity and convenience as required by KRS 278.020(1); and

(b) File a grid map with the planning commission that shows the location of all existing cellular antenna towers and that indicates the general position of proposed construction sites for new cellular antenna towers within an area that includes:

1. All of the planning unit's jurisdiction; and

2. A one-half (1/2) mile area outside of the boundaries of the planning unit's jurisdiction, if that area contains either existing or proposed construction sites for cellular antenna towers; and

(c) Provide any additional information requested by the planning unit that is necessary to evaluate a proposal for the construction of a cellular antenna tower.

(3) After receiving the proposal to construct a cellular antenna tower, the planning commission shall:

(a) Review the proposal in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan and locally adopted zoning regulations;

(b) Make its final decision to approve or disapprove the proposal; and

(c) Advise the utility in writing of its final decision, within sixty (60) days from the date the proposal is submitted.

(4) If the planning commission disapproves of the proposed construction, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in its written decision and may make suggestions which, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan and the locally adopted zoning regulations. The affected utility may appeal the final decision of the planning unit to the Circuit Court of the county in which the proposed location of the cellular antenna tower lies. No permit for construction of a cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, including any certificate of convenience and necessity required to be issued by the Kentucky Public Service Commission, shall be issued until the planning commission approves the proposal or a final determination has been issued by the court to either vacate or set aside the planning unit's decision to disapprove the proposal.

(5) The planning commission may require co-location of additional transmitting or related equipment on any new or existing towers, if there is available space on the tower and the required co-location does not interfere with the structural integrity of the antenna tower. In the event of co-location, a utility shall be considered the primary user of the tower if the utility is the owner of the antenna tower and if no other agreement exists that proscribes an alternate arrangement between the parties for use of the tower. Any other entity that co-locates transmission or related facilities on a cellular antenna tower shall do so in a manner that does not impose additional costs or operating restrictions on the primary user. Any disputes between the planning commission and parties affected by co-location shall be resolved by the Public Service Commission.

Section 3. KRS 100.324 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All other provisions of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, public utilities operating under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission, except as specified in Section 2 of this Act[~~subsection (5) of this section~~], or the Department of Vehicle Regulation or Federal Power Commission, any municipally-owned electric system, and common carriers by rail shall not be required to receive the approval of the planning unit for the location or relocation of any of their service facilities. Service facilities include all facilities of such utilities and common carriers by rail other than office space, garage space, and warehouse space and include office space, garage space, and warehouse space when such space is incidental to a service facility. The Public Service Commission and the Department of Vehicle Regulation shall give notice to the planning commission of any planning unit of any hearing which affects locations or relocations of service facilities within that planning unit's jurisdiction.

(2) The nonservice facilities excluded in subsection (1) of this section must be in accordance with the zoning regulations.

(3) Upon the request of the planning commission, the public utilities referred to in this section shall provide the planning commission of the planning unit affected with information concerning service facilities which have been located on and relocated on private property.

(4) Any proposal for acquisition or disposition of land for public facilities, or changes in the character, location, or extent of structures or land for public facilities, excluding state and federal highways and public utilities and common carriers by rail mentioned in this section, shall be referred to the commission to be reviewed in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan, and the commission shall, within sixty (60) days from the date of its receipt, review the project and advise the referring body whether the project is in accordance with the comprehensive plan. If it disapproves of the project, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in writing and make suggestions for changes which will, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan. No permit required for construction or occupancy of such public facilities shall be issued until the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or until the planning commission issues its report, whichever occurs first.

[~~(5) Every utility which proposes to construct an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services within a county containing a city of the first class shall submit the proposal to the planning commission of the affected planning unit. The planning commission shall review the proposal in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan and locally adopted zoning regulations and shall, within sixty (60) days from the date the proposal is submitted, make its final decision and advise the utility in writing whether the proposed construction is in accordance with the comprehensive plan and locally adopted zoning regulations. If the planning commission fails to issue a final decision within sixty (60) days, it is presumed to have approved the proposal, and may not later appeal a decision of the Public Service Commission under KRS 278.650(3). If the planning commission disapproves of the proposed construction, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in its written decision and may make suggestions which, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan and the locally adopted zoning regulations. No permit for construction of a cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, including any certificate of convenience and necessity required to be issued by the Kentucky Public Service Commission, shall be issued until the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or until the planning commission issues its final decision on the utility proposal, whichever occurs first.~~]

Section 4. KRS 278.650 is amended to read as follows:

[~~(1)~~]If a utility proposes construction of an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services which is to be located within a county containing a city of the first class, then the utility shall submit the proposal to the planning commission of the affected planning unit prior to making application to the commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity as required by KRS 278.020(1). The commission shall not grant a certificate of convenience and necessity in this situation until the planning commission approves the proposal or a final determination has been issued by the court to either vacate or set aside the planning unit's decision to disapprove the utility's proposal[~~a final action on the proposal has been taken by the planning commission of the affected planning unit, or until the sixty (60) day time period set forth in KRS 100.324(5) has expired, whichever comes first.~~

~~(2) If a planning commission rejects a proposal to construct an antenna tower, the commission may override the decision of the planning commission and issue a certificate of convenience and necessity for construction of the cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, if it determines that there is no acceptable alternate site, and that the public convenience and necessity requires the proposed construction.~~

~~(3) Any party aggrieved by the final action of the Public Service Commission under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall appeal from the action to the Franklin Circuit Court. The appeal shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the final action by the Public Service Commission. All final actions of the Public Service Commission which have not been appealed within thirty (30) days shall not be subject to judicial review.~~

~~(4) If a utility proposes construction of an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services which is to be located outside the area of a county containing a city of the first class, then the commission may also take into account in its deliberations the character of the general area concerned, and the likely effects of the installation on nearby land uses and values~~].

The Committee Substitute to HB 168 is as follows:

AN ACT relating to cellular telecommunications facilities.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 100 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In addition to the definitions set forth in KRS 100.111, the following definitions shall apply to Sections 1 to 2 of this Act:

(1) "Cellular antenna tower" means a tower constructed for, or an existing facility that has been adapted for, the location of transmission or related equipment to be used in the provision of cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services;

(2) "Cellular telecommunications service" means a retail telecommunications service that uses radio signals transmitted through cell sites and mobile switching stations;

(3) "Co-location" means locating two (2) or more transmission antennas or related equipment on the same cellular antenna tower;

(4) "Personal communication service" has the meaning as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 332(c);

(5) "Uniform application" means an application for a certificate of convenience and necessity issued under KRS 278.020 submitted by a utility to the Public Service Commission to construct an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services of personal communications service in a jurisdiction, that has adopted planning and zoning regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 100, except for any county that contains a city of the first class; and

(6) "Utility" has the meaning as defined in KRS 278.010(3).

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 100 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A planning unit as defined in KRS 100.111 and legislative body or fiscal court that has adopted planning and zoning regulations, except for a county that contains a city of the first class as provided under KRS 278.650, may plan for and regulate the siting of cellular antenna towers in accordance with locally adopted planning or zoning regulations in KRS Chapter 100 by officially registering with the Public Service Commission. The registration shall be in the form of an official resolution adopted by the local planning commission. Nothing in this section shall require a planning unit and legislative body or fiscal court to plan for and regulate the siting of cellular antenna towers.

(2) Every utility that proposes to construct an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services within the jurisdiction of a planning unit that has adopted planning and zoning regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 100, except for a county that contains a city of the first class as provided under KRS 278.650, and that has officially registered with the Public Service Commission shall:

(a) Submit a copy of the utility's completed uniform application to the planning commission of the affected planning unit to construct an antenna tower for cellular or personal telecommunications services within five (5) days of applying to the Public Service Commission for a certificate of necessity and convenience as required by KRS 278.020(1). The uniform application shall include a grid map that shows the location of all existing cellular antenna towers and that indicates the general position of proposed construction sites for new cellular antenna towers within an area that includes:

1. All of the planning unit's jurisdiction; and

2. A one-half (1/2) mile area outside of the boundaries of the planning unit's jurisdiction, if that area contains either existing or proposed construction sites for cellular antenna towers;

(b) Include in any contract with a owner of property upon which a cellular antenna tower is to be constructed, a provision that specifies, in the case of abandonment, a method that the utility will follow in dismantling and removing a cellular antenna tower including a timetable for removal; and

(c) Comply with any local ordinances concerning land use.

(3) Commencing from the time that a utility files a uniform application with the Public Service Commission, all information contained in the uniform application and any updates, except for information that specifically identifies the proposed location of the cellular antenna tower then being reviewed by the applying utility, shall be deemed confidential and proprietary within the meaning of KRS 61.878. The Public Service Commission and the local planning commission shall deny any public request for the inspection of this information, whether submitted under Kentucky's Open Records Act or otherwise, except when ordered to release the information by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any person violating this subsection shall be guilty of official misconduct in the second degree as provided under KRS 522.030.

(4) After receiving the uniform application to construct a cellular antenna tower, the planning commission shall:

(a) Review the uniform application in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan and locally adopted zoning regulations;

(b) Make its final decision to approve or disapprove the uniform application; and

(c) Advise the utility in writing of its final decision within sixty (60) days commencing from the date that the uniform application is received by the planning commission or within a date certain specified in a written agreement between the local planning commission and the utility. If the planning commission fails to issue a final decision within sixty (60) days and if there is no written agreement between the local planning commission and the utility to a specific date for the planning commission to issue a decision, it is presumed that the local planning commission has approved the utility's uniform application.

(5) (a) If the planning commission disapproves of the proposed construction, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in its written decision and may make suggestions which, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan and the locally adopted zoning regulations. No permit for construction of a cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, including any certificate of convenience and necessity required to be issued by the Kentucky Public Service Commission, shall be issued until the planning commission approves the uniform application or the sixty (60) day time period has expired. If a planning commission rejects the uniform application to construct an antenna tower, the Public Service Commission may override the decision of the planning commission and issue a certificate of convenience and necessity for construction of the cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, if it determines that there is no acceptable alternate site and that the public convenience and necessity requires the proposed construction.

(b) Any party, other than the applying utility, that is aggrieved by the final action of a planning commission under this section, may appeal the action to the Public Service Commission, but this appeal shall not automatically postpone action by the Public Service Commission on the uniform application. The appeal shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the final action of the planning commission. All final actions of the planning commission which have not been appealed within thirty (30) days shall not be subject to judicial review.

(6) The planning commission may require the utility to make a reasonable attempt to co-locate additional transmitting or related equipment on any new or existing towers, if there is available space on the tower and the co-location does not interfere with the structural integrity of the tower and does not require the owner of the tower to make substantial alterations to the tower. A planning commission may provide the location of existing cellular antenna towers on which the commission deems the applying utility can successfully co-locate its transmitting and related equipment. If the local planning commission requires the utility to attempt co-location, the utility shall provide the local planning unit with a statement indicating that the utility has:

(a) Successfully attempted to co-locate on towers designed to host multiple wireless service providers' facilities or existing structures such as a telecommunications tower or another suitable structure capable of supporting the utility's facilities, and that identifies the location of the tower which the applying utility will co-locate its transmission and related facilities on; or

(b) Unsuccessfully attempted to co-locate on towers designed to host multiple wireless service provider's facilities or existing structures such as a telecommunications tower or another suitable structure capable of supporting the utility's facilities and that:

1. Identifies the location of the towers which the applying utility attempted to co-locate on; and

2. Lists the reasons why the co-location was unsuccessful in each instance.

(7) The local planning commission may deny a uniform application to construct a cellular antenna tower based on a utility's unwillingness to attempt to co-locate additional transmitting or related equipment on any new or existing towers.

(8) In the event of co-location, a utility shall be considered the primary user of the tower, if the utility is the owner of the antenna tower and if no other agreement exists that prescribes an alternate arrangement between the parties for use of the tower. Any other entity that co-locates transmission or related facilities on a cellular antenna tower shall do so in a manner that does not impose additional costs or operating restrictions on the primary user. Any disputes between the planning commission and the parties affected by co-location shall be resolved by the Franklin Circuit Court.

Section 3. KRS 100.324 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All other provisions of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, public utilities operating under the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission, except as specified in Section 2 of this Act and subsection (5) of this section, or the Department of Vehicle Regulation or Federal Power Commission, any municipally-owned electric system, and common carriers by rail shall not be required to receive the approval of the planning unit for the location or relocation of any of their service facilities. Service facilities include all facilities of such utilities and common carriers by rail other than office space, garage space, and warehouse space and include office space, garage space, and warehouse space when such space is incidental to a service facility. The Public Service Commission and the Department of Vehicle Regulation shall give notice to the planning commission of any planning unit of any hearing which affects locations or relocations of service facilities within that planning unit's jurisdiction.

(2) The nonservice facilities excluded in subsection (1) of this section must be in accordance with the zoning regulations.

(3) Upon the request of the planning commission, the public utilities referred to in this section shall provide the planning commission of the planning unit affected with information concerning service facilities which have been located on and relocated on private property.

(4) Any proposal for acquisition or disposition of land for public facilities, or changes in the character, location, or extent of structures or land for public facilities, excluding state and federal highways and public utilities and common carriers by rail mentioned in this section, shall be referred to the commission to be reviewed in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan, and the commission shall, within sixty (60) days from the date of its receipt, review the project and advise the referring body whether the project is in accordance with the comprehensive plan. If it disapproves of the project, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in writing and make suggestions for changes which will, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan. No permit required for construction or occupancy of such public facilities shall be issued until the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or until the planning commission issues its report, whichever occurs first.

(5) Every utility which proposes to construct an antenna tower for cellular telecommunications services or personal communications services within a county containing a city of the first class shall submit the proposal to the planning commission of the affected planning unit. The planning commission shall review the proposal in light of its agreement with the comprehensive plan and locally-adopted zoning regulations and shall, within sixty (60) days from the date the proposal is submitted, make its final decision and advise the utility in writing whether the proposed construction is in accordance with the comprehensive plan and locally-adopted zoning regulations. If the planning commission fails to issue a final decision within sixty (60) days, it is presumed to have approved the proposal, and may not later appeal a decision of the Public Service Commission under KRS 278.650(3). If the planning commission disapproves of the proposed construction, it shall state the reasons for disapproval in its written decision and may make suggestions which, in its opinion, better accomplish the objectives of the comprehensive plan and the locally-adopted zoning regulations. No permit for construction of a cellular or personal communications services antenna tower, including any certificate of convenience and necessity required to be issued by the Kentucky Public Service Commission, shall be issued until the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or until the planning commission issues its final decision on the utility proposal, whichever occurs first.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 278 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The commission shall, by administrative regulation promulgated in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, establish the minimum content of a uniform application, provided under subsection (5) of Section 1 of this Act, for a certificate of convenience and necessity to construct cellular antenna towers, and the procedures to carry out the commission's responsibilities under Section 2 of this Act.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 278 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Commencing from the time that a utility files a uniform application, as defined in subsection (5) of Section 1 of this Act, with the commission, all information contained in the uniform application and any updates, except for information that specifically identifies the proposed location of the cellular antenna tower then being reviewed by the applying utility, shall be deemed confidential and proprietary within the meaning of KRS 61.878. The commission shall deny any public request for the inspection of this information, whether submitted under Kentucky's Open Record Act, KRS 61.872 to 61.874, or otherwise, except when ordered to release the information by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any person violating this subsection shall be guilty of official misconduct in the second degree as provided under KRS 522.030.

Section 6. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable.

The Committee on Counties and Special Districts reported HB 370 and HB 458 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Consent Calendar.

For failure to file the termination statement within the allowable time, the secured party shall be subject to the penalty provided in KRS 186.990(1). Within five (5) days after the receipt of such documents, the county clerk shall note the filing in the index, in language prescribed by the cabinet, that the termination statement has been filed. Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk where the termination statement was submitted, and with the copy of the termination statement submitted by the secured party, the clerk shall discharge the security interest by noting on such title that the termination statement has been filed and place the seal of the county clerk thereon. The clerk shall return the owner's title to the owner. The county clerk shall then file the termination statement in the place from which the title~~[motor vehicle]~~ lien statement was removed. Termination statements must be retained in the clerk's files for a period of two (2) years subsequent to the date of filing such statement, at which time they may be destroyed. The fee for these services are included in the provisions of KRS 186A.190.

(3) Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk of a county where the termination statement was not delivered, the county clerk of that county shall access the automated system to determine whether a record of termination of the security interest has been entered into the automated system by the county clerk where the termination statement was delivered by the secured party as provided in KRS 186A.210. If such record of termination has been entered into the automated system, the county clerk of the county where the termination statement was not delivered, shall note the discharge of the security interest on the certificate of title by noting that the termination statement has been delivered, the county where it was delivered, and placing the seal of the county clerk thereon and may rely on the automated system to do so. If such record of termination has not been entered into the automated system, in no case shall the county clerk of the county other than where the termination statement was delivered, make any notation upon the certificate of title that the security interest has been discharged or that a termination statement has been delivered to the county where the title~~[motor vehicle]~~ lien statement was submitted.

(4) Whenever any secured party repossesses a vehicle titled in this state, for which a security interest is in existence at the time of repossession, and disposes of such vehicle pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 355, he must present, within fifteen (15) days after such disposition, an affidavit in form prescribed by the department and a termination statement or proof that such termination statement has been filed. The new owner shall pay all applicable fees for titling and transferring the vehicle to the county clerk. Upon receipt of such documents, the county clerk who issued the lien shall then omit from the title he makes application for any information relating to the security interest under which the vehicle was repossessed or any security interest subordinate thereto. However, any security interest, as shown by such title which is superior to the one under which the vehicle was repossessed, must be shown on the title issued by the clerk unless the prior secured party has discharged such security interest in such clerk's office or proof of termination is submitted in case such prior security interest was discharged in another clerk's office.

(5) Whenever any vehicle brought into this state is required to be titled in this state and such vehicle is then subject to a security interest in another state as shown by the out-of-state documents presented to the clerk, the county clerk is prohibited from processing the application for title on the vehicle unless the owner obtains from the secured party a financing statement or title~~[motor vehicle]~~ lien statement and presents same to the clerk along with the fees required in KRS 186A.190. The clerk shall note the out-of-state security interest on the certificate of title. This provision does not apply to vehicles required to be registered in Kentucky under forced registration provisions under KRS 186.145.

(6) The fees provided for in this section are in addition to any state fee provided for by law.

(7) Any person violating any provision of this section or any person refusing to surrender a certificate of title registration and ownership or transfer certificate upon request of any person entitled thereto, is subject to the penalties provided in subsection (1) of KRS 186.990.

(8) The county clerk is prohibited from noting any security interest on a certificate of title on any vehicle subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 186A if a certificate of title therefor is presented to him which has all the spaces provided thereon for noting security interests fully exhausted. The owner must see to it that a discharge is noted on the certificate of title for each security interest and then a duplicate title as provided for in KRS 186A.180 must be obtained from the clerk by the owner of the vehicle.

(9) Security interests in vehicles sold to or owned by residents of other states must be perfected in the state of such nonresident and repossession of the vehicle must be taken pursuant to the laws of such state, unless the vehicle is principally operated in Kentucky and is properly titled herein under KRS Chapter 186A and the security interest is authorized to be noted on the certificate of title by the county clerk under KRS Chapter 186A.

Section 10. KRS 186.170 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this subsection and in KRS 186.045, the owner shall have the receipt issued by the cabinet through the county clerk constantly in his possession, and shall display the registration plate conspicuously upon the rear of the motor vehicle, except that the registration plate upon a semitrailer-tractor shall be displayed upon the front of the tractor. The owner's copy, or a reproduced copy thereof, of the registration receipt of every motor vehicle, except motorcycles, licensed under KRS 186.050 shall be kept in the vehicle at all times and shall be available for inspection. Plates shall be kept legible at all times and the rear plate shall be illuminated when being operated during the hours designated in KRS 189.030. No rim, frame, or other covering around the plate shall in any way obscure or cover any lettering or decal on the plate; except that, any owner who objects to the display of a trademark of a private corporation which appears on the registration plate shall be entitled to receive a set of decals from the county clerk in his county of residence to cover the trademark of the private corporation. The owner may apply for the decal by presenting his certificate of registration either at the time of registration renewal or later. The county clerk shall charge a three dollar ($3) clerk's fee for issuing the decal set if it is applied for a time other than at registration renewal. If the cabinet has prescribed that plates shall continue in use, it shall each year, in addition to the registration receipt, select and give to the owner as further evidence of registration some insignia which may conveniently be attached permanently and conspicuously to the motor vehicle during each registration year. It shall be the duty of the owner to attach the insignia in the prescribed manner and no person may operate a motor vehicle unless the insignia is affixed upon it. The cabinet shall have placed on the insignia either figures, letters, writing, marks, or a combination thereof, which indicate that the motor vehicle has been registered and which in conjunction with the records of the cabinet make identity of the registrant readily ascertainable.

(2) The registration year for commercial vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, mobile homes, and recreational vehicles shall be from April 1 to March 31.

(3) At the discretion of the vehicle owner, the title to a motor vehicle may be held in the system and subsequently printed and mailed to the owner at the owners request.

Section 11. KRS 186.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When a motor vehicle that has been previously registered changes ownership, the registration plate shall remain upon the motor vehicle as a part of it until the expiration of the registration year.

(2) A person shall not purchase, sell, or trade any motor vehicle without delivering to the county clerk of the county in which the sale or trade is made the current hard copy or electronic version of the registration receipt issued on the motor vehicle[~~ and the bill of sale~~]. Any unexpired registration shall remain valid upon transfer of the vehicle to the new owner. Except for transactions handled by a motor vehicle dealer licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 190, the person who is purchasing the vehicle shall present proof of insurance in compliance with KRS 304.39-080 to the county clerk before the clerk transfers the registration on the vehicle. Proof of insurance shall be in the manner prescribed in administrative regulations promulgated by the Department of Insurance pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A.

(3) Upon delivery of the motor vehicle registration receipt[~~ and the bill of sale~~] to the county clerk of the county in which the sale or trade was made, the seller shall pay to the county clerk a transfer fee of one dollar ($1), which shall be remitted to the Transportation Cabinet. The county clerk shall issue to the purchaser a transfer of registration bearing the same data and information as contained on the original registration receipt, except the change in name and address. The seller shall pay to the county clerk a fee of three dollars ($3) for his services.

(4) When a county clerk issues to a purchaser a transfer of registration in a county other than the one (1) in which the motor vehicle was originally registered, the clerk shall immediately forward[~~mail~~] one (1) copy of the transfer of registration to the clerk of the county of original registration.

(5) If the owner junks or otherwise renders a motor vehicle unfit for future use, he shall deliver the registration plate and registration receipt to the county clerk of the county in which the motor vehicle is junked. The county clerk shall return the plate and motor vehicle registration receipt to the Transportation Cabinet. The owner shall pay to the county clerk one dollar ($1) for his services.

(6) A licensed motor vehicle dealer shall not be required to pay the transfer fee provided by this section, but shall be required to pay the county clerk's fee provided by this section.

(7) The motor vehicle registration receipt issued by the clerk under this section shall contain information required by the Department of Vehicle Regulation.

Section 12. KRS 186A.196 is amended to read as follows:

Any lien noted on a Kentucky certificate of title which evidences a security interest perfected after July 1, 1987, but before March 31, 1988, shall be valid whether the security interest was perfected by filing a title[~~motor vehicle~~] lien statement under this chapter or by filing a financing statement under Article 9 of KRS Chapter 355. Such security interests shall be considered perfected as of the date of tender of the title[~~motor vehicle~~] lien statement or financing statement as the case may be. A security interest evidenced by a lien noted on a Kentucky certificate of title, which was perfected by filing a financing statement under Article 9 KRS Chapter 355, remains perfected without the requirement of filing a continuation statement under KRS 355.9-403.

Section 13. KRS 186A.200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to a vehicle previously titled in the name of its debtor, the secured party shall, within fifteen (15) days after execution of the security agreement, obtain the current certificate of title in the name of the debtor, with no more than one (1) prior lien indicated thereon, and present to the county clerk the certificate of title, which the secured party shall have the right to obtain from the debtor, together with the title[~~motor vehicle~~] lien statement and the required fees in KRS 186A.190 to the county clerk.

(2) For failure to present both the title and title[~~motor vehicle~~] lien statement within the time prescribed by subsection (1) of this section, the secured party shall pay a penalty of two dollars ($2) to the county clerk as a prerequisite for noting the security interest on the title.

(3) The county clerk shall enter the information required by KRS 186A.190(6) into the automated system.

(4) The county clerk shall record upon the title in the appropriate section the information designated by KRS 186A.190(6).

Section 14. The following KRS sections are repealed:

186A.075	Motor vehicle titles -- When to be effective -- Governor may extend effective date by executive order.
186A.135	Issuance of documents processed by system.
186A.140	Issuance of documents in county not equipped with operable automated system.

HB 431, AN ACT relating to traffic regulations.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 189.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) [~~(a)~~]The department may issue[~~promulgate administrative regulations, pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, to govern the issuance of~~] permits for the operation of motor vehicles, manufactured homes, recreational vehicles, boats, or any other vehicle[~~vehicles transporting microwave satellite television antennae, and vehicles transporting boats or farm equipment~~], whose gross weight including load, height, width, or length exceeds the limits prescribed by this chapter, is a nondivisible load, or which in other respects fail to comply with the requirements of this chapter. Permits may be issued by the department for stated periods, special purposes, and unusual conditions, and upon terms in the interest of public safety and the preservation of the highways as the department may require.

(2) The department may, at the request of an applicant, issue a single-trip permit regardless of the type of vehicle or equipment being transported that exceeds the weight or dimension limits established by this chapter, except a vehicle shall not exceed sixteen (16) feet in width exclusive of usual and ordinary overhang, one hundred twenty (120) feet in length including a towing vehicle and trailer combination, thirteen (13) feet six (6) inches in height, or one hundred twenty thousand (120,000) pounds. A single-trip permit shall cost sixty dollars ($60) for each overweight or overdimensional permit requested.

(3) The department may, at the request of an applicant, issue an annual permit regardless of the type of vehicle or equipment being transported that exceeds the weight or dimension limits established by this chapter, except a vehicle shall not exceed sixteen (16) feet in width exclusive of usual and ordinary overhang, one hundred twenty (120) feet in length including a towing vehicle and trailer combination, thirteen (13) feet six (6) inches in height, or one hundred twenty thousand (120,000) pounds. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, an annual permit for loads less than fourteen (14) feet in width shall cost two hundred fifty dollars ($250). An annual permit for loads exceeding fourteen (14) feet in width shall cost five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) An annual permit to transport farm equipment less than fourteen (14) feet in width shall cost eighty dollars ($80). An annual permit to transport farm equipment that exceeds fourteen (14) feet in width from a dealership to a farm or from a farm to a dealership shall cost one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(5) Permits issued under this section shall be valid statewide; however, the department may, as a condition of issuing an annual or single-trip permit, limit the overweight or overdimensional vehicle to specified routes, exclude certain highways, or even cancel an applicant's permit if an unreasonable risk of accident or an unreasonable impedance of the flow of traffic would result from the presence of the overweight or overdimensional vehicle. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section is acknowledging that the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet is not guaranteeing safe passage of vehicles by issuing the permit. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section agrees to measure all clearances of highway structures, both laterally and vertically, prior to passage of the person's vehicles along the routes specified in the permit. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section is classified as a bare licensee whose duty is to assume sole risk involved in using Kentucky's highways without warranty of accuracy.

(6) The department shall promulgate administrative regulations under KRS Chapter 13A to establish requirements for escort vehicles, safety markings, and other safety restrictions governing the operation of an overweight or overdimensional vehicle. The department shall provide each applicant for an annual or single-trip permit issued under this section a copy of all restrictions associated with the overweight or overdimensional permit at no charge to the applicant. The department shall be prohibited from raising the permit fee established in subsections (2) and (3) of this section by levying additional fees for an overweight or overdimensional permit through the administrative regulation process

[~~(b) The department shall require an applicant to pay a single trip fee of sixty dollars ($60) for each overweight or overdimensional permit issued except as set forth below:~~

~~1. Twenty dollars ($20) for each single trip manufactured home permit if the manufactured home is fourteen (14) feet wide or less; and~~

~~2. Forty dollars ($40) for each single trip manufactured home permit if the manufactured home exceeds fourteen (14) feet in width.~~

~~(c) The department shall require an applicant to pay a fee as follows for any annual overdimensional permit issued:~~

~~1. Eighty dollars ($80) for each annual permit to transport:~~

~~a. Farm equipment;~~

~~b. Utility equipment transporter including towing vehicle and trailer combination which does not exceed ninety-five (95) feet in length or twelve (12) feet in width;~~

~~c. Boat transporter; or~~

~~d. Microwave antennae transporter permit;~~

~~2. Five hundred dollars ($500) for each annual manufactured home permit if the manufactured home is sixteen (16) feet or less in width;~~

~~3. Eighty dollars ($80) for each annual manufactured home permit if all manufactured homes transported during the year are less than fourteen (14) feet in width; and~~

~~4. Five hundred dollars ($500) for each annual boat permit for units in excess of sixty-five (65) feet in length and sixteen (16) feet in width~~].

(7)[~~(d)~~] The department may require the applicant to give bond, with approved surety, to indemnify the state or counties against damage to highways or bridges resulting from use by the applicant. The operation of[~~ motor~~] vehicles[~~, manufactured homes, and recreational vehicles~~] in accordance with the terms of the permit issued under this section shall not constitute a violation of this chapter if the operator has the permit, or an authenticated copy of it, in his possession.

[~~(2) Annual boat permits shall be issued for any unit, including towing vehicle and trailer combination which does not exceed ninety-five (95) feet in length or sixteen (16) feet in width exclusive of usual and ordinary overhang. The department may, by administrative regulation, limit annual boat permits for units including towing vehicle and trailer combinations which exceed sixty-five (65) feet in length and sixteen (16) feet in width to manufacturers and dealers, to specified routes or to exclude certain highways from the annual permit in this subsection if an unreasonable risk of accident or an unreasonable impedance of the flow of traffic would result from the presence of the units. Movement of boats in excess of sixty-five (65) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width shall be preceded by notification to the Department of Vehicle Regulation, Division of Motor Carriers of any trip to be made under the permit. The department may, no later than eighteen (18) hours after the receipt of notice, prohibit the trip if, because of temporary or special conditions, an unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedance of the flow of traffic would be created.~~

~~(3) Any motor carrier transporting equipment used to mold steel which exceeds the dimensional limits for movement over a highway in this state may apply for an annual overdimensional permit pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The permit shall be limited to a vehicle operating on a round trip basis of not more than twenty-five (25) miles. The material movement shall be limited to the manufacturing facilities of the same corporation. Reporting of these movements shall be on an annual basis, but shall include an estimate of trips which will be made weekly. The cost of the annual permit~~

~~shall be five hundred dollars ($500).~~

~~(4) The department shall, for a fee not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150), issue an annual permit for the operation of a motor vehicle or vehicle described in subsection (1) of this section when the motor vehicle or vehicle exceeds the dimension limits for length or width prescribed by KRS 189.221 or 189.222, if:~~

~~(a) The motor vehicle is engaged in the transporting of farm equipment from the dealership to the farm or from the farm to the dealership; and~~

~~(b) The width of the motor vehicle or vehicle does not exceed sixteen (16) feet, including any part of the body or load.~~

~~(5) Upon the issuance of an annual permit for the operation of a motor vehicle or vehicle described in subsection (4) of this section, the department shall provide each applicant free of charge a publication which contains a description of the administrative regulations that are applicable to the operation of the motor vehicle or vehicle including escort vehicles, safety markings, and other applicable restrictions. The department shall update the publication within thirty (30) days of any change in an administrative regulation that pertains to the operation of a motor vehicle or vehicle described in subsection (4) of this section.~~

~~(6) (a) Annual overlength permits may be issued to any utility pole or pipe transporter under the following conditions:~~

~~1. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a towing vehicle and trailer combination which does not exceed one hundred twenty-five (125) feet in overall length. Restrictions may be placed on routes and the permit use limited if unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedance of traffic flow could be created. An annual permit to transport poles or pipe which are fifty-five (55) feet or less in length shall cost one hundred dollars ($100). An annual permit to transport poles or pipe which are more than fifty-five (55) feet in length shall cost three hundred fifty dollars ($350). The Department of Highways may prescribe the use of escort vehicles for transportation of poles or pipes which exceed fifty-five (55) feet in length, and the permit holder shall notify the Department of Highways of each trip or series of trips to be made that requires an escort. The department may cancel or reroute the trip if an unreasonable risk of accident or impedance of the flow of traffic could be created.~~

~~2. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a straight truck capable of transporting utility poles or pipe on a specially designed pole rack mounted on the body of the truck if the pole or pipe length exceeds forty-five (45) feet. Restrictions may also be placed on routes and the permit use limited if unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedance to traffic flow could be created. The cost of this overlength permit shall be one hundred dollars ($100).~~

~~3. An annual overlength permit may be issued for a straight truck capable of transporting utility poles or pipe on specially designed pole racks mounted on the body of the truck if the pole or pipe length exceeds fifty-five (55) feet, but does not exceed ninety-five (95) feet. The permit shall cost three hundred fifty dollars ($350). The Department of Highways may prescribe the use of escort vehicles, and the permit holder shall notify the Department of Highways of each trip or series of trips made. The department may cancel or reroute the trip if an unreasonable risk of accident or impedance of the flow of traffic could be created.~~

~~4. More than one (1) type of permit authorized in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph may be issued for the same vehicle. The maximum cost of the multiple use annual permit shall be three hundred fifty dollars ($350).~~

~~(b) The secretary of transportation shall, by administrative regulation, prescribe additional safety requirements for movements of these vehicles. Administrative regulations promulgated for this subsection and for utility equipment transporters under subsection (1) of this section shall not restrict the ability of a permit holder to respond to an emergency due to an electrical or gas outage.~~

~~(7) Each motor carrier used in transporting prefabricated wood trusses, used in residential and commercial construction, which exceeds the dimensional limits for movement over a highway in this state may apply for an annual overdimensional permit. The Department of Vehicle Regulation shall charge the applicant a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each annual permit. A copy of the permit shall be carried at all times in the vehicle and shall be shown to a peace officer upon demand. The department may restrict the use of the permits to specified routes or exclude certain highways from the annual permit in this subsection if an unreasonable risk of accident or impedance of the flow of traffic could result. The department shall promulgate administrative regulations setting forth the safety requirements which shall be met prior to the movement of any vehicle under the provisions of this permit including setting the dimensions at which the transporter shall contact the department for specific, individual authority for the movement under the annual permit.~~]

(8) Any person transporting a parade float which exceeds the dimensional limits on a highway over which it is transported shall be required to obtain a permit as required in subsection (2)[~~(1)~~] of this section. If the float is being used in conjunction with a parade to be held within the boundaries of the Commonwealth, a fee shall not be assessed by the department to issue the permit.

(9) A person shall not operate any~~[motor]~~ vehicle~~[, manufactured home, or recreational vehicle]~~ in violation of the terms of the permit issued under this section.

The Committee Substitute to HB 431 is as follows:

AN ACT relating to traffic regulations.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 189.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~[(a)]~~The department may issue~~[promulgate administrative regulations, pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A, to govern the issuance of]~~ permits for the operation of motor vehicles, manufactured homes, recreational vehicles, boats, or any other vehicle transporting a nondivisible load~~[vehicles transporting microwave satellite television antennae, and vehicles transporting boats or farm equipment]~~, whose gross weight including load, height, width, or length exceeds the limits prescribed by this chapter or which in other respects fail to comply with the requirements of this chapter. Permits may be issued by the department for stated periods, special purposes, and unusual conditions, and upon terms in the interest of public safety and the preservation of the highways as the department may require.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the department may, at the request of an applicant, issue a single-trip permit regardless of the type of vehicle or equipment being transported that exceeds the weight or dimension limits established by this chapter if the load being transported is a nondivisible load. A single-trip permit shall cost sixty dollars ($60) for each overweight or overdimensional permit requested.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, the department may, at the request of an applicant, issue an annual permit regardless of the type of vehicle or equipment being transported that exceeds the weight or dimension limits established by this chapter if the load being transported is a nondivisible load. The vehicle shall not exceed sixteen (16) feet in width exclusive of usual and ordinary overhang, one hundred twenty (120) feet in length including a towing vehicle and trailer combination, thirteen (13) feet six (6) inches in height, or one hundred twenty thousand (120,000) pounds. Except as provided in subsections (4) and (7) of this section, an annual permit for loads less than fourteen (14) feet in width shall cost two hundred fifty dollars ($250). (5) Permits issued under this section shall be for nondivisible loads and shall be valid statewide; however, the department may, as a condition of issuing an annual or single-trip permit, limit the overweight or overdimensional vehicle to specified routes, exclude certain highways, or even cancel an applicant's permit if an unreasonable risk of accident or an unreasonable impedance of the flow of traffic would result from the presence of the overweight or overdimensional vehicle. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section is acknowledging that the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet is not guaranteeing safe passage of vehicles by issuing the permit. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section agrees to measure all clearances of highway structures, both laterally and vertically, prior to passage of the person's vehicles along the routes specified in the permit. A person who applies for, and accepts, a permit issued under this section is classified as a bare licensee whose duty is to assume sole risk involved in using Kentucky's highways without warranty of accuracy.

(6) The department shall promulgate administrative regulations under KRS Chapter 13A to establish requirements for escort vehicles, safety markings, and other safety restrictions governing the operation of an overweight or overdimensional vehicle. The department shall provide each applicant for an annual or single-trip permit issued under this section a copy of all restrictions associated with the overweight or overdimensional permit at no charge to the applicant. The department shall be prohibited from raising the permit fee established in subsections (2) and (3) of this section by levying additional fees for an overweight or overdimensional permit through the administrative regulation process.

(8)[~~(d)~~] The department may require the applicant to give bond, with approved surety, to indemnify the state or counties against damage to highways or bridges resulting from use by the applicant. The operation of[~~ motor~~] vehicles[~~, manufactured homes, and recreational vehicles~~] in accordance with the terms of the permit issued under this section shall not constitute a violation of this chapter if the operator has the permit, or an authenticated copy of it, in his possession.

Movement of boats in excess of sixty-five (65) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width shall be preceded by notification to the Department of Vehicle Regulation, Division of Motor Carriers of any trip to be made under the permit. The department may, no later than eighteen (18) hours after the receipt of notice, prohibit the trip if, because of temporary or special conditions, an unreasonable risk of accident or unreasonable impedance of the flow of traffic would be created.~~

Section 2. KRS 304.17A-310 is amended to read as follows:

To qualify as a provider-sponsored integrated health delivery network, the network shall meet the following financial solvency requirements:

(1) Maintenance of a fidelity bond or fidelity insurance in an amount not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) on employees and officers, directors, and partners who receive, collect, disburse, or invest funds of the provider-sponsored network;

(2) (a) The provider-sponsored network shall have an initial net worth requirement of[~~ or surety bond for~~] one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) and shall thereafter maintain the minimum net worth required under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(b) Every provider-sponsored network shall maintain a minimum net worth equal to the greater of:

1. One million dollars ($1,000,000);

2. Two percent (2%) of annual premium revenues as reported on the most recent annual financial statement filed with the commissioner on the first one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) of premiums and one percent (1%) of annual premiums on the premiums in excess of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000);

3. An amount equal to the sum of three (3) months' uncovered health care expenditures as reported on the most recent financial statement filed with the commissioner of insurance; or

An amount equal to the sum of eight percent (8%) of annual health care expenditures except those paid on a capitated basis or managed hospital payment basis and four percent (4%) of annual hospital expenditures paid on a managed hospital payment basis as reported on the most recent financial statement filed with the commissioner.

(c) In determining net worth, no debt shall be considered fully subordinated unless the subordination clause is in a form acceptable to the commissioner. Any interest obligation relating to the repayment of any subordinated debt shall be similarly subordinated.

1. The interest expenses relating to the repayment of any fully subordinated debt shall be considered covered expenses.

2. Any debt incurred by a note meeting the requirements of this section, and otherwise acceptable to the commissioner, shall not be considered a liability and shall be recorded as equity.

(3) (a) Unless otherwise provided below, each provider-sponsored network shall deposit with the commissioner or, at the discretion of the commissioner, with any organization or trustee acceptable to the commissioner through which a custodial or controlled account is utilized, cash, securities, or any combination of these or other measures that are acceptable to the commissioner which at all times shall have a value of not less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000).

(b) The deposit shall be an admitted asset of the provider-sponsored network in the determination of net worth.

(c) All income from deposits shall be an asset of the provider-sponsored network. Any securities shall be approved by the commissioner before being deposited or substituted.

(d) The deposit shall be used to protect the interests of the provider-sponsored network's enrollees and to assure continuation of health care services to enrollees of a provider-sponsored network which is in rehabilitation or conservation. (4) Every provider-sponsored network shall, when determining liabilities, include an amount estimated in the aggregate to provide for any unearned premium and for the payment of all claims for health care expenditures which have been incurred, whether reported or unreported, which are unpaid and for which the provider-sponsored network is or may be liable, and to provide for the expense of adjustment or settlement of such claims.

(b) If the participating provider contract has not been reduced to writing as required by this subsection or if the contract fails to contain the required prohibition, the participating provider shall not collect or attempt to collect from the enrollee sums owed by the provider-sponsored network.

(6) Each provider-sponsored network shall have a plan for handling insolvency which guarantees the continuation of benefits for the duration of the contract period for which premiums have been paid and continuation of benefits to members who are confined on the date of insolvency in an inpatient facility until their discharge or expiration of benefits.

(7) If at any time uncovered expenditures exceed ten percent (10%) of total health care expenditures, a provider-sponsored network shall place an uncovered expenditures insolvency deposit with the commissioner or with any organization or trustee acceptable to the commissioner through which a custodial or controlled account is maintained, in cash or securities that are acceptable to the commissioner. This deposit shall at all times have a fair market value in an amount of one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the provider-sponsored network's outstanding liability for uncovered expenditures for enrollees, including incurred but not reported claims, and shall be calculated as of the first day of the month and maintained for the remainder of the month. The provider-sponsored network shall file a report within forty-five (45) days of the end of the calendar quarter with information sufficient to demonstrate compliance with this subsection. 2. An amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per policy for a covered claim for the return of unearned premium; or

3. An amount not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per claimant for all other covered claims.

(b) Not be obligated to pay a claimant an amount in excess of the obligation of the insolvent insurer under the policy or coverage from which the claim arises. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subtitle, a covered claim shall not include a claim filed with the association after the earlier of twelve (12) months after the date of the order of liquidation, or the final date set by the court for the filing of claims against the liquidator or receiver of an insolvent insurer and shall not include any claim filed with the association or a liquidator for protection afforded under the insured's policy for incurred but not reported losses. Any obligation of the association to defend an insured shall cease upon the association's payment or tender of an amount equal to the lesser of the association's covered claim obligation limit or the applicable policy limit. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subtitle, except in the case of a claim for benefits under workers' compensation coverage, any obligation of the association to any and all persons shall cease when ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall have been paid in the aggregate by the association and any one (1) or more associations similar to the association of any other state or states or any property/casualty security fund that obtains contributions from insurers on a pre-insolvency basis to or on behalf of any insured and its affiliates on covered claims or allowed claims arising under the policy or policies of any one (1) insolvent insurer. For purposes of this section, the term "affiliate" shall mean a person who directly or indirectly, through one (1) or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person. If the claimant has a covered claim or allowed claim against the association or any associations similar to the association or any property and casualty insurance security fund of another states, under the policy or policies of any one (1) insolvent insurer, the association may establish a plan to allocate amounts payable by the association in a manner as the association in its discretion deems equitable[~~Except in the case of a policy of workers' compensation insurance purchased to satisfy the requirements of KRS 342.340, such obligation shall include only that amount of each covered claim which is less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). (c)[~~(b)~~]Be deemed the insurer to the extent of its obligation on the covered claims and to that[~~such~~] extent shall have all rights, duties, and obligations of the insolvent insurer as if the insurer had not become insolvent, including but not limited to, the right to pursue and retain salvage and subrogation recoverable on paid covered claim obligations;

(d)[~~(c)~~]Assess insurers amounts necessary to pay the obligations of the association under paragraph (a) of this subsection subsequent to an insolvency, the expenses of handling covered claims subsequent to an insolvency, and the cost of examinations under KRS 304.36-130 and other expenses authorized by this subtitle. The assessments of each member insurer shall be in the proportion that the net direct written premiums of the member insurer for the calendar year preceding the assessment bears to the net direct written premiums of all member insurers for the calendar year preceding the assessment. Each member insurer shall be notified of the assessment not later than thirty (30) days before it is due. No member insurer may be assessed in any year an amount greater than one percent (1%) of that member insurer's net direct written premiums for the calendar year preceding the assessment. If the maximum assessment, together with the other assets of the association, does not provide in any one (1) year an amount sufficient to make all necessary payments, the funds available shall be prorated and the unpaid portion shall be paid as soon thereafter as funds become available. The association shall pay claims in any order which it may deem reasonable including the payment of claims as such are received from the claimants or in groups or categories of claims. The association may exempt or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect amounts of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance; provided, however, that during the period of deferment no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders. Deferred assessments shall be paid when such payment will not reduce capital and surplus below required minimums. Such payments shall be refunded to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of such deferment, or at the election of any such company, credited against future assessments. Each member insurer serving as a servicing facility may set off against any assessment, authorized payments made on covered claims and expenses incurred in the payment of such claims by such member insurer;

(e)[~~(d)~~]Investigate claims brought against the association and adjust, compromise, settle, and pay covered claims to the extent of the association's obligation and deny all other claims;

(f)[~~(e)~~] Notify such persons as the commissioner directs under KRS 304.36-100(2)(a);

Any recovery under this subtitle shall be reduced by the amount of the recovery from any other insurance guaranty association or its equivalent.

(3) The guaranty association shall receive the benefit of any reinsurance contract or treaties entered into by the insolvent insurer which cover any of the liabilities incurred by the insolvent insurer with respect to covered claims.

If there are two or more surviving parties their respective ownerships during lifetime shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under KRS 391.310 augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before his death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

The transfer or release by a financial institution or third party in accordance with this section shall constitute a full release and discharge of the financial institution or third party from all claims relating to ownership.

(2) If the account is a P.O.D. account, on death of the original payee or of the survivor of two or more original payees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P.O.D. payee or payees if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original payee; if two or more P.O.D. payees survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of a P.O.D. payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(3) If the account is a trust account, on death of the trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent; if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(4) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of his estate.

(5) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

In any event and notwithstanding lack of full disclosure a trustee who has issued a final account or statement received by the beneficiary and has informed the beneficiary of the location and availability of records for his examination is protected after three (3) years. A beneficiary is deemed to have received a final account or statement if, being an adult, it is received by him personally or if, being a minor or disabled person, it is received by his representative.

Section 24. KRS 391.315 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Sums remaining on deposit at the death of a party to a joint account belong to the surviving party or parties to the account as against the estate of the decedent unless there is clear and convincing written evidence of a different

If there are two or more surviving parties their respective ownerships during lifetime shall be in proportion to their previous ownership interests under KRS 391.310 augmented by an equal share for each survivor of any interest the decedent may have owned in the account immediately before his death; and the right of survivorship continues between the surviving parties.

The transfer or release of those joint account funds has no bearing on the actual rights of ownership of the funds as between the surviving party or parties to the account and the dower or curtesy interest of any surviving spouse. The transfer or release by a financial institution or third party in accordance with this section shall constitute a full release and discharge of the financial institution or third party from all claims relating to ownership.

(2) If the account is a P.O.D. account, on death of the original payee or of the survivor of two or more original payees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the P.O.D. payee or payees if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the original payee; if two or more P.O.D. payees survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of a P.O.D. payee thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(3) If the account is a trust account, on death of the trustee or the survivor of two or more trustees, any sums remaining on deposit belong to the person or persons named as beneficiaries, if surviving, or to the survivor of them if one or more die before the trustee, unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent; if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship in event of death of any beneficiary thereafter unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for survivorship between them.

(4) In other cases, the death of any party to a multiple-party account has no effect on beneficial ownership of the account other than to transfer the rights of the decedent as part of his estate.

(5) A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under this section, a beneficiary designation in a trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, cannot be changed by will.

Section 25. KRS 413.120 is amended to read as follows:

If the department finds that the administrative regulations are necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of this chapter, the administrative regulations shall be promulgated and relate to the use or distribution of pesticides, and be relative to the hazards and benefits involved, and prescribe methods and equipment to be used; may restrict the storage of pesticides in designated areas and the type of structure and conditions for the storage of pesticides; may relate to the time, place, manner, and method of application of pesticides; may restrict or prohibit use of pesticides in designated areas; and shall encompass all reasonable factors that the department deems necessary to prevent damage or injury by the use or distribution of pesticides to the environment, including but not limited to:

For the purpose of uniformity of requirements between the states and the federal government, the department shall adopt the list of "restricted-use pesticides" as established by the EPA or other federal or state agencies.

(2) The amount of the irrevocable letter of credit from a qualified financial institution, a surety bond for each client, or a liability insurance policy required by this section shall be not less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) combined single limit bodily injury and property damage. The evidence of financial responsibility shall be maintained at not less than the listed amount at all times. (1) The Commonwealth hereby determines that the citizens of the state benefit from a system of safe, effective, and scientifically sound structural pesticides regulation. The Commonwealth further finds that a system of structural pesticide regulation that is consistent, coordinated, and comports with federal and state technical expertise is essential to the public health, safety, and welfare, and that local structural regulation of pesticides does not materially assist in achieving those benefits.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no city, county, taxing district, or other political subdivision of the state shall adopt or continue in effect any ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, or statute regarding structural pesticide, including, without limitation to: use, distribution, registration, notification of use, posting, advertising and marketing, distribution, application, methods, applicator training and certification, storage, transportation, or disposal.

If the department finds that the administrative regulations are necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of this chapter, the administrative regulations shall be promulgated and relate to the use or distribution of structural pesticides, and be relative to the hazards and benefits involved, and prescribe methods and equipment to be used; may restrict the storage of structural pesticides in designated areas and the type of structure and conditions for the storage of structural pesticides; may relate to the time, place, manner, and method of application of structural pesticides; may restrict or prohibit use of structural pesticides in designated areas; and shall encompass all reasonable factors that the department deems necessary to prevent damage or injury by the use or distribution of structural pesticides to the environment, including but not limited to:

For the purpose of uniformity of requirements between the states and the federal government, the department shall adopt the list of "restricted-use pesticides" as established by the EPA or other federal or state agencies.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 217D IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The Commonwealth hereby determines that the citizens of the state benefit from a system of safe, effective, and scientifically sound structural pesticides regulation. The Commonwealth further finds that a system of structural pesticide regulation that is consistent, coordinated, and comports with federal and state technical expertise is essential to the public health, safety, and welfare, and that local regulation of structural pesticides does not materially assist in achieving those benefits.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no city, county, taxing district, or other political subdivision of the state shall adopt or continue in effect any ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, or statute regarding structural pesticide, including, without limitation to: use, distribution, registration, notification of use, posting, advertising and marketing, distribution, application, methods, applicator training and certification, storage, transportation, or disposal.

If a specific singular classification license lapses or is revoked for any reason, the specific singular classification shall not be reinstated and all current requirements of this chapter shall be met.
